American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda, 2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government's position towards Indonesia's struggle for independence     Sjahrir Rudolf Mrázek, 2018-05-31 A comprehensive biography of the Indonesian nationalist leader and Prime Minister of the Indonesian Republic Sutan Sjahrir This work is both a study of an individual and the social conditions that shaped him The author has conducted extensive research and interviews with those who knew Sjahrir personally politically and by reputation     Suharto R. E. Elson, 2001-11-13 Suharto is synonymous with modern Indonesia He came to the leadership of Indonesia amidst extreme social upheaval and mass violence in 1966 and established an enduring regime known as the New Order He remained in command of the world's fourth most populous country until his dramatic fall from power in 1998 This book provides fascinating insights into a man who rose from humble beginnings to exert extraordinary power over a complex and volatile nation He presented himself as an infallible father of Indonesia yet he remained a mysterious and puzzling figure He sought to transform Indonesia into a strong united and economically prosperous nation but he is remembered today for human rights abuses and profound corruption The system of power he created collapsed with his decline and he left a problematic legacy for Indonesia's current leaders as they seek to create a new beginning for their country     At the Risk of Being Heard Bartholomew Dean, Jerome M. Levi, 2003 An analysis of indigenous rights and the challenges confronting indigenous peoples in the twenty first century     The Journal of Asian Studies, 1994     Journalism and Politics in Indonesia David T. Hill, 2010-01-21 This book weaves a history of the Indonesian press and of Indonesia's post independence history through the life story of Mochtar Lubis one of Indonesia's best known newspaper editors authors and cultural figures with a national regional and international prominence he retained from the early 1950s until his death in 2004     Dutch Culture Overseas Frances Gouda, 2008 European colonial expansion led to Dutch notions of civilised society or the Dutch's community's flexible and relatively charitable attitudes toward others being scattered as in the Greek word diaspeirein to the four corners of the earth In some cases the exportation of Dutch cultural values to places overseas like North America endowed Dutchness with subtle new meanings But in colonial Indonesia Dutch political customs and traditions were transformed in the process of migrating to exotic locales In this book Frances Gouda examines the ways in which the Netherlands portrayed its unique colonial style to the outside world Why were citizens of a small and politically insignificant European nation able to represent as natural and normal their dominance over ancient civilizations on islands such as Java and Bali How did Dutch colonial residents explain the cultural differences between themselves and the supposedly primitive peoples of the Indonesian archipelago In trying to understand the gendering practices of colonial governance in the Netherlands East Indies Gouda also explores the interactions of Dutch and Indonesian women with European men FRANCES GOUDA earned a Ph D in history from the University of Washington in Seattle in 1980 She is currently professor of history and gender studies in the Political Science Department of the University of Amsterdam      Indonesia Taufik Abdullah, 2009 This book traces the beginning of the process of nation formation the struggle for independence the hopeful beginning of the new nation state of Indonesia only to be followed by hard and difficult ways to remain true to the ideals of independence In the process Indonesia with its sprawling archipelago and its multi ethnic and multi religious nation has to undergo various types of crisis and internal conflicts but the ideals that have been nurtured since the beginning when a new nation began to be visualized remain intact Some changes in the interpretation may have taken place and some deviations here and there can be noticed but the literal meaning of the ideals continues to be the guiding light In short this is a history of a nation in the continuing effort to retain the ideals of its existence      Southeast Asia Keat Gin Ooi, 2004 Contains over eight hundred alphabetically arranged entries that provide information about topics related to the historical development and global influence of Southeast Asia covering politics war religion socioeconomics ethnohistory geography and folklore      No Concessions Daniel S. Michael R. J. Vatikiotis, 1996 Takes up the debate between those who resist the pressure for democracy and point to unchanging Asian values and those who believe that the appeal of democracy is universal Censorship in Colonial Indonesia, 1901-1942

Nobuto Yamamoto, 2019-09-16 In Censorship in Colonial Indonesia 1901-1942 Nobuto Yamamoto examines the institutionalization of censorship and its symbiosis with print culture in the Netherlands Indies Born from the liberal desire to promote the well being of the colonial population censorship was not practiced exclusively in repressive ways but manifested in constructive policies and stimuli among which was the cultivation of the native press under state patronage Censorship in the Indies oscillated between liberal impulse and the intrinsic insecurity of a colonial state in the era of nationalism and democratic governance It proved unpredictable in terms of outcomes at times being co-opted by resourceful activists and journalists and susceptible to international politics as it transformed during the Sino Japanese war of the 1930s Riots, Pogroms, Jihad

John T. Sidel, 2018-07-05 In October 2002 a bomb blast in a Balinese nightclub killed more than two hundred people many of them young Australian tourists This event and subsequent attacks on foreign targets in Bali and Jakarta in 2003 2004 and 2005 brought Indonesia into the global media spotlight as a site of Islamist terrorist violence Yet the complexities of political and religious struggles in Indonesia the most populous Muslim country in the world remain little known and poorly understood in the West In Riots Pogroms Jihad John T Sidel situates these terrorist bombings and other jihadist activities in Indonesia against the backdrop of earlier episodes of religious violence in the country including religious riots in provincial towns and cities in 1995 1997 the May 1998 riots in Jakarta and interreligious pogroms in 1999 2001 Sidel's close account of these episodes of religious violence in Indonesia draws on a wide range of documentary ethnographic and journalistic materials Sidel chronicles these episodes of violence and explains the overall pattern of change in religious violence over a ten year period in terms of the broader discursive political and sociological contexts in which they unfolded Successive shifts in the incidence of violence its forms locations targets perpetrators mobilizational processes and outcomes correspond Sidel suggests to related shifts in the very structures of religious authority and identity in Indonesia during this period He interprets the most recent jihadist violence as a reflection of the post 1998 decline of Islam as a banner for unifying and mobilizing Muslims in Indonesian politics and society Sidel concludes this book by reflecting on the broader implications of the pattern observed in Indonesia both for understanding Islamic terrorism in particular and for analyzing religious violence in all its varieties Towards the Indonesian Republic: Marxist Lineages in the National Revolution

Geoffrey Gunn,2025-05-22 Drawing on little known archival sources this work brings to the fore the salience of a schism in the Indonesian communist movement between pro Moscow loyalists and national communists reaching back to the 1920s which survived even the Japanese occupation and surfaced in the throes of the National Revolution 1945 49 At the heart of the rift lay contrasting visions of revolutionary tactics the salience of Islam in an Islamic majority society the vexed question of alliance between leftists and other anti colonial forces and even the concept and definition of state and national ideology As such we cannot ignore the lineages of Marxism in the National Revolution which trace their roots to the pioneer actions on Java by Dutch communists themselves influenced by the Bolshevik Revolution Contrary to the image of a non revolutionary peasantry and a nationalist leadership broken or tamed by colonial carceral practices the picture that emerges is one of acute agency on the part of an awoken population at a critical historical moment at the end of World War II There is no more complicated period in the history of the Indonesian national revolution than that of 1945 49 during the war with the Dutch colonial armies nor a more complicated strand in Indonesian history than that of its Marxist lineage Dr Gunn s book is a truly unique and fascinating account of both fusing perspectives from a range of colonial as well as indigenous sources Sukarno Hatta Sjahrir Amir Sjariffudin all appear but none more so than Tan Malaka It is as provocative a read as any well researched historical novel but it is not fiction but reality It is very well documented and needs to be read at least twice Max Lane Visiting Senior Fellow Indonesia Studies Programme ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute There have been numerous books on Indonesian independence movements that led to the birth of the Republic of Indonesia Nevertheless this book by Geoffrey Gunn differs from previous ones in the sense that it focuses on the role of Marxist radical movements especially that of Tan Malaka in the Indonesian anti colonial struggle It begins with the emergence of the Communist movement failed rebellions of 1926 27 the Japanese occupation the Madiun Affair and ends with the international recognition of Indonesia s independence in 1949 Using various newly available archives including that of the Russian and recently published articles and books on the subject the author has presented a revisionist history of Indonesian independence with a fresh perspective Leo Suryadinata Visiting Senior Fellow ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute formerly Professor in Political Science National University of Singapore

Bibliography of the Indonesian Revolution H.A.J. Klooster,2024-12-09 Interest in the Indonesian Revolution a period of crucial importance in the history of modern Indonesia continues unabated as reflected in this bibliography. The bibliography lists more than 6 000 titles related to the Indonesian Revolution 1945-1949, the West Irian issue 1950-1962 and the South Moluccan question 1950-1951 and its aftermath. It is the first bibliography of such depth and scope and purports to offer a complete listing of scholarly works including unpublished theses as well as journalistic accounts, pamphlets, memoirs and fictional works. Most of the works listed are in Indonesian, Dutch or English but relevant works in French, German, Russian, Japanese and other languages have also been included. An introduction allows a first acquaintance with the mass of publications listed. The titles are arranged by period and subdivided by language. Indexes of authors, of subjects, of persons and of geographical names make it possible to access the titles in more detail. Heirs to World Culture M.H.T.

Sutedja-Liem, 2012-01-01. This volume brings together new scholarship by Indonesian and non-Indonesian scholars on Indonesia's cultural history from 1950-1965. During the new nation's first decade and a half, Indonesia's links with the world and its sense of nationhood were vigorously negotiated on the cultural front. Indonesia used cultural networks of the time, including those of the Cold War, to announce itself on the world stage. International links, post-colonial aspirations and nationalistic fervour interacted to produce a thriving cultural and intellectual life at home. Essays discuss the exchange of artists, intellectuals, writing and ideas between Indonesia and various countries; the development of cultural networks and ways these networks interacted with and influenced cultural expression and discourse in Indonesia. With contributions by Keith Foulcher, Liesbeth Dolk, Hairus Salim, HS Tony Day, Budiawan Maya, H. T. Liem, Jennifer Lindsay, Els Bogaerts, Melani Budianta, Choirotun Chisaan, I Nyoman Darma Putra, Barbara Hatley, Marije Plomp, Irawati Durban, Ardjo Rhoma, Dwi Aria Yuliantri and Michael Bodden.
