Sergi,2024-11-15 This edited collection analyses various aspects of Slovakia s economy including recent developments and events such as the COVID 19 pandemic and war in Ukraine highlighting issues that arise from the current economic model making it difficult for Slovakia to revitalize and adapt the economy to new circumstances

Community-based Entrepreneurship and Rural Development Matthias Fink,Stephan Loidl,Richard Lang,2012 How can municipalities in Central Europe create favourable conditions for local business What and how can municipalities learn from each other How can each individuals in the local area contribute And what requirements have to be met before know how can successfully be transferred on a communal level To answer all these questions the authors of this book comprehensively discuss the manifold opportunities restrictions and prerequisites of establishing favourable conditions for small and medium enterprises in rural

OECD Territorial Reviews: Vienna-Bratislava, Austria/Slovak Republic 2003 OECD,2003-09-02 This OECD Territorial Review of the Vienna Bratislava region on the Austrian Slovak border finds that this area rapidly increased its competitiveness after 1989 following a 40 year separation by the Iron Curtain but that new obstacles to further integration have emerged

OECD Development Co-operation Peer Reviews: Slovak Republic 2019 OECD,2019-02-14 The OECD s Development Assistance Committee DAC conducts periodic reviews of the individual development co operation efforts of DAC members The policies and programmes of each DAC member are critically examined approximately once every five years DAC peer reviews assess the performance of a

New Europe's New Development Aid Balázs Szent-Iványi,Simon Lightfoot,2015-04-17 This book examines the international development policies of five East Central European new EU member states the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Slovakia and Slovenia These countries turned from being aid recipients to donors after the turn of the millennium in the run up to EU accession in 2004 The book explains the evolution subsequent to EU accession and current state of foreign aid policies in the region and the reasons why these deviate from many of the internationally agreed best practices in development cooperation It argues that after the turn of the millennium a Global Consensus has emerged on how to make foreign aid more effective for development A comparison between the elements of the Global Consensus and the performance of the five countries reveals that while they have generally implemented little of these recommendations there are also emerging differences between the countries with the Czech Republic and Slovenia clearly aspiring to become globally responsible donors Building on the literatures on foreign policy analysis international socialization and interest group influence the book develops a model of foreign aid policy making in order to explain the general reluctance of the five countries in implementing international best practices and also the differences in their relative performance

Improving Trade Policy Reviews in the World Trade Organization Donald B. Keesing, 1998 The Trade Policy Review Mechanism is part of the World Trade Organization Its purpose is to strengthen observance of WTO commitments and promote trade liberalization by providing all member countries with objective information about the trade policies and practices of each member individually and by establishing a forum within which members can question one another's policies and practices in a nonconfrontational manner Since the TPRM was established in 1989 as one of the first fruits of the Uruguay Round of multilateral trade negotiations some 80 trade policy reviews have been completed covering nearly 60 countries In light of eight years of experience with the process it is fair to ask whether the TPRM is meeting the goals set for it at its inception Are the reviews sufficiently probing and analytical to provide information of real value Do they cover all relevant aspects of members trade Are they unbiased and objective Does the WTO devote sufficient resources to the task of conducting the reviews and to disseminating the information that they generate Is the potential value of this information to those outside the trade negotiations process being realized This text seeks to answer these questions and others

Democratization in EU Foreign Policy Benedetta Berti, Kristina Mikulova, Nicu Popescu, 2015-09-16 New democracies are uniquely positioned to promote democratic values and have a competitive advantage in the global democracy assistance industry This book examines the attempts of one group of young democracies from Central and Eastern Europe CEE to channel this pro democracy agenda into both national and European foreign policy and development support It looks at how CEE is upstream changing the EU on crucial policy issues as part of the common foreign and security policy Furthermore it tracks the process whereby imported ideas and norms are recycled for further export downstream and how these concepts are received in countries outside of the EU including the post Soviet space the Western Balkans the Middle East and North Africa region and Central Asia This text will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners of democratisation studies European Union studies comparative politics international relations international development European politics as well as area regional studies

Slovak Republic International Monetary Fund, 2002-09-26 This 2002 Article

IV Consultation highlights that after two years of subdued domestic activity strong private domestic demand and expansionary fiscal policy in the Slovak Republic buoyed economic growth which recovered to over 3 percent in 2001 Increased profitability enterprise restructuring and reduced corporate income tax boosted fixed investment Rising real wages and employment personal income tax reduction and the redemption of National Property Fund bonds underpinned vigorous growth in private consumption The general government deficit widened by a half percentage point of GDP to 4 percent of GDP in 2001 Slovak Republic, Staff Report for the ... Article IV Consultation ,2003 Development Policies of Central and Eastern European States Ondřej Horký-Hlucháň,Simon Lightfoot,2013-09-13 The states from Central and Eastern Europe that joined the EU in 2004 and 2007 provide a fascinating series of case studies for scholars interested in politics IR and development studies The interest comes from the fact that never before had so many recipients of EU aid joined the Union and taken on the commitment to become aid donors The journey from recipients of aid to aid donors is interesting because not only does it tell us about development policy in CEE states this policy area gives us an insight into governmental structures in CEE states foreign policy priorities public opinion the role of NGOs civil society and how well CEE states have taken on board the EU acquis the EU s rule book The book also explores whether the development cooperation programmes of the majority of CEEs reflect the so called transition experience of moving from authoritarianism and socialism to democracy and modern liberalism It also explores the extent to which these donors are aligned with the approaches of the DAC donors Finally by extending the scrutiny to the bottom up development activities of non state actors and public opinion the book will analyse the dynamics of the solidarity of the former East with the global South This book was published as a special issue of Perspectives on European Politics and Society OECD Environmental Performance Reviews: Slovak Republic 2002 OECD,2002-04-03 This review of the Slovak Republic s environmental conditions and policies evaluates progress in reducing the pollution burden improving natural resource management integrating environmental and economic policies and strengthening international co operation Reviewing European Union Accession Tom Hashimoto,Michael Rhimes,2017-09-25 The year 2017 has been an uneasy one for the EU with so called Brexit on the horizon and the rise of populist euroskepticism in a number of Member States This year with the tenth anniversary of the Romanian and Bulgarian accession to the Union is a good year to pause and reflect over the life and future of the Union In this work we envision the next decade with Europe 2020 strategy and review the fruits of the 2004 accession in Central and Eastern Europe What has the Union achieved Which policy areas are likely to change and how How successful and by what measure has the accession of the 10 Member States in 2004 been Reviewing European Union Accession addresses a wide range of issues deliberately without any thematic constraints in order to explore EU enlargement from a variety of perspectives both scientific and geographical internal and external In contrast to the major works in this field we highlight the interrelated and often unexpected nature of the integration process hence the subtitle unexpected results spillover effects and externalities
