The Politics of Expertise Matthew Hilton, James McKay, Nicholas Crowson, Jean-François Mouhot, 2013-04-25 The Politics of Expertise offers a challenging new interpretation of politics in contemporary Britain through an examination of non governmental organisations Using specific case studies of the homelessness environment and international aid and development sectors it demonstrates how politics and political activism has changed over the last half century NGOs have contributed enormously to a professionalization and a privatization of politics emerging as a new form of expert knowledge and political participation They have been led by a new breed of non party politician working in collaboration and in competition with government Skilful navigators of the modern technocratic state they have brought expertise to expertise and in so doing have changed the nature of grassroots activism As affluent citizens have felt marginalised by the increasingly complex nature of many policy solutions they have made the rational calculation to support NGOs the professionalism and resources of which make them better able to tackle complex problems Yet in doing so support rather than participation becomes the more appropriate way to describe the relationship of the public to NGOs As voter turnout has declined membership and trust in NGOs has increased But NGOs are very different types of organisations from the classic democratic institutions of political parties and the labour movement They maintain different and varied relationships with the publics they seek to represent Attracting mass support has provided them with the resources and the legitimacy to speak to power on a bewildering range of issues yet perhaps the ultimate victors in this new form of politics are the NGOs themselves

The Struggle for 'community' in a British Multi-ethnic Inner-city Area Max Farrar,2002 In a theoretical sense Max Farrar s book advances a distinctive conceptualization of community through a wide ranging encounter with contemporary debates in sociological theory as displayed in a case study of the Chapeltown area of Leeds England The First Miscarriage of Justice Jon Robins,2014-10-20 I would have been the first miscarriage of justice There was this spate of cases the Birmingham Six Guildford Four and Cardiff Three Each one was another nail in my coffin Tony Stock 2008 The story of Tony Stock is astonishing deeply disturbing it sent out ripples of disquiet when he was sentenced to ten years for robbery at Leeds Assizes in 1970 Over the next 40 years the case went to the Court of Appeal four times and has the distinction of being the first to have been referred to that court twice by the Criminal Cases Review Commission Tony Stock died in 2012 still fighting to clear his name spending from his meagre savings to hire private investigators and hoping beyond hope to see justice Reviews The story of Tony Stock should be mandatory reading for everyone not merely those involved with the laws It concerns the quality of our criminal justice system and its serious reluctance and unwillingness to root out injustice Michael Mansfield QC One of the most outrageous miscarriages of justice of modern times Barry Sheerman Labour MP for Huddersfield In the Press If anyone seriously believes the Court of Appeal has reformed itself since the dark days of the Birmingham Six and Bridgewater Four they should study the unreported and amazing case of Tony Stock Private Eye I would have thought that the injustice done to Tony Stock was fairly self evident and yet his conviction still stands I find this very difficult to accept Ralph Barrington investigations adviser at the Criminal Cases Review Commission The fight for justice that will not die Yorkshire Post Deadly Silence Institute of Race Relations,1991 Black deaths do not have a good press especially when they occur in the custody of our custodians The media leads the public to believe that our guardians can do no wrong Racism leads them to believe that blacks can do no right The silence of the custodial system is compounded by the silences of racism We have chosen to break that silence page 4 of the title page West Africa ,1987 New Social Connections J. Burnett,S. Jeffers,G. Thomas,2010-04-09 Offering a fresh approach to new explorations of the reconfigurations of sociological thought this book provides a mix of literature review original theory and autobiographical material in order to understand formations of sociological knowledge Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1975
