Sants,1987-03-05 This is a comprehensive account of the behaviour and social organisation of humans and other animals The development and evolution of all types of behaviour are reviewed using up to date examples There is a full survey of all the classic behavioural research including the latest information available The concepts of aggression and altruism are explained there are detailed accounts of social organisation in insect and ape communities Finally the book discusses human behaviour and social organisation the development of individuals within society and the biological and cultural bases of human social behaviour are examined Making Deep Games Doris C. Rusch,2017-01-12 Like movies television and other preceding forms of media video games are undergoing a dynamic shift in its content and perception While the medium can still be considered in its infancy the mark of true artistry and conceptual depth is detectable in the evolving styles various genres and game themes Doris C Rusch s Making Deep Games combines this insight along with the discussion of the expressive nature of games various case studies and hands on design exercises This book offers a perspective into how to make games that tackle the whole bandwidth of the human experience games that teach us something about ourselves enable thought provoking emotionally rich experiences and promote personal and social change Grounded in cognitive linguistics game studies and the reflective practice of game design Making Deep Games explores systematic approaches for how to approach complex abstract concepts inner processes and emotions through the specific means of the medium It aims to shed light on how to make the multifaceted aspects of the human condition tangible through gameplay experiences Literature for

Johnson,2016-09-19 Ideas abound as to why certain complex societies collapsed in the past including environmental change subsistence failure fluctuating social structure and lack of adaptability Why Did Ancient Civilizations Fail evaluates the current theories in this important topic and discusses why they offer only partial explanations of the failure of past civilizations This engaging book offers a new theory of collapse that of social hubris Through an examination of Mesopotamian Egyptian Roman Maya Inca and Aztec societies Johnson persuasively argues that hubris blinded many ancient peoples to evidence that would have allowed them to adapt and he further considers how this has implications for contemporary societies Comprehensive and well written this volume serves as an ideal text for undergraduate courses on ancient complex societies as well as appealing to the scholar interested in societal collapse The Book Buyer's Guide ,1966
