Brave New Digital Classroom Robert J. Blake, Gabriel Guillén, 2020-02-20 Robert Blake now with Gabriel Guillén updates his successful book 1st ed 2008 2nd ed 2013 on how to teach foreign languages using technology Brave New Digital Classroom touches on all of the key concepts and challenges of teaching with technology focusing on issues specific to FLL or L2 learning and CALL Originally referred to as computer assisted language learning CALL has come to encompass any kind of learning that uses digital tools for language learning This edition reframes the conversation to account for how technology has been integrated into our lives Blake and Guill n address the ways technology can help with L2 how to choose the right digital tools how to use those tools effectively and how technology can impact literacy and identity The book is primed for use in graduate courses terminology is in bold and a comprehensive glossary is included each chapter finishes with a short list of references for further reading on the topic and discussion questions The authors provide short interview videos free via GUP website to enhance discussions on each chapter s topic

Teaching Social Justice Brandi Lawless,Yea-Wen Chen,2021-08-15 The intercultural communication classroom can be an emotionally and intellectually heavy place for many students and teachers Sensitive topics arise and students must face complex issues with intellectual curiosity and collegial respect To navigate the precarious waters of intercultural communications teachers need an intentional approach to foster meaningful discussion and learning This pedagogical guide presents conceptual overviews student activities and problem solving strategies for teaching intercultural communication The authors navigate eight categories of potential conflict including communicating power and privilege community engagement in social justice and assessing intercultural pedagogies for social justice In addition to empirical studies and the authors own classroom experiences the book features the personal narratives of junior and senior intercultural communication teacher scholars whose journeys will encourage and instruct readers towards more fulfilling teaching experiences

Intercultural Competence in Instructed Language Learning Paula Garrett-Rucks,2016-03-01 There is pressure on world language educators to prepare learners with 21st century skills to meet the challenges of an increasingly interconnected globalized world The need for change was summarized in the 2007 report of the MLA Ad Hoc Committee on Foreign Languages that suggested the implementation of curricular reform by developing students translingual and transcultural competence p 3 which allows someone to operate between languages p 237 However the integration of such a meaningful cultural component in instructed language learning is a complex topic This book recognizes the difficulty world language educators face to achieve the goals of the MLA report particularly at beginning levels of instruction in target language use classrooms Accordingly this book informs instructed language learning and teaching by bridging developmental theories from the fields of intercultural competence with second language pedagogies particularly communicative language teaching CLT and literacy based approaches providing examples of practical applications inside the classroom and beyond It is intended to support the many FL educators who have consistently reported that they are struggling to incorporate meaningful cultural instruction into their practice Fox Phillips Sercu 2005 This book provides a framework to foster learners deep cultural reflection at beginning levels of instruction while preserving target language use policies bridging CLT pedagogies to intercultural communicative competence ICC literacy based approaches It starts by synthesizing prominent definitions of culture and culture learning models and then summarizes disparate sources of research findings on culture learning projects which primarily take place at advanced levels of language learning to the Standards based classroom at all levels of instruction K 16 Although research on fostering learners intercultural competence at beginning levels of language instruction is in its infancy it is of utmost concern given that the vast majority of U S language learners rarely continue to advanced levels of instruction Zimmer Lowe 2008 In addition this book challenges FL educators to advocate for their FL programs and to give greater visibility and credibility to the profession in institutional internationalization efforts The theoretical components of this book deconstruct the connections between language thought and culture and problematize developmental models in the IC field that neglect to consider the important role of language This book provides K 16 FL educators with the discourse needed to 1 explain to administrators parents and students how world language study prepares learners to compete in an increasingly global market beyond the learner s development of linguistic proficiency and 2 convince administrators of the value in and the need for world language study in order to support institutional internationalization efforts The last chapter of this book provides guidance and suggestions on ways to expand K 12 teacher preparation programs and continuing education training to foster learners intercultural communicative competence while preserv ing a Standards based curriculum In sum this book is intended to 1 support all K 16 world language educa tors with their program advocacy and instruction 2 serve as a reference manual or course book in teacher preparation programs 3 serve as a reference manual or course book for research and graduate courses on the teaching and learning of languages

Language Learning Strategies Around the World Rebecca L. Oxford,1996

Telecollaboration 2.0 Sarah Guth,Francesca Helm,2010 Telecollaboration or online intercultural exchange has become widely recognised as an effective way to promote the development of intercultural communicative competence and language skills However the study and implementation of new 2 0 environments such as wikis Skype virtual worlds and gaming for telecollaboration is still in its infancy How can these multilingual multimodal collaborative environments be used to promote language and intercultural learning What are the implications for teachers and learners and what new literacies are required Do they offer an added value This book seeks to answer these questions and many more by bringing together the experience and expertise of researchers and practitioners alike The authors offer critical stances new frameworks and practical case studies to help the reader navigate the world of Telecollaboration 2 0

Technology-Enhanced Learning and Linguistic Diversity Patrick-André Mather,2020-11-26 Drawing on research and hands on experience this book includes contributions which draw on linguistic research on 2nd and 3rd language acquisition as well as case studies of specific challenges in teaching content courses in various disciplines to offer a roadmap of how educators might facilitate the learning of their bilingual student cohort

Cross-cultural Literacy Steven F. Arvizu,Marietta Saravia-Shore,2017-11-28 Originally published in 1992 This book advocates and demonstrates the benefits of an anthropological approach that recognizes the centrality of culture in the educational process This approach encompasses knowledge and understanding of other cultures patterns of interaction values institutions metaphors and symbols as well as cross cultural communication skills Ethnographic studies of
