Public POWER PLAYERS turns the lens around to examine how sports have shaped our presidents and made for some amazing moments in White House history including Dwight Eisenhower played so much golf he had a putting green built outside the Oval Office He also almost died on a golf course while in office How John F Kennedy s touch football games with family were knowing plays to polish the Camelot mystique People might not have related to the aloof and awkward Richard Nixon but hey he would bowl a few frames just like them Ronald Reagan didn t just play the part of The Gipper for the silver screen but truly adopted the famous footballer s never say die persona George H W Bush once ran a horseshoe league from the White House with a commissioner and brackets He would later claim to have come up with the fan expression You da man Bill Clinton s Arkansas Razorback fandom was so intense that he could be found shouting at the referees from a box at the basketball national championship game in 1994 George W Bush s not only owned the Texas Rangers but also threw out the most iconic first pitch ever in the 2001 World Series What really went down when Barack Obama played pickup hoops with the North Carolina Tarheels He later won the state by 3 percent of the vote Donald Trump is the only president ever featured in a professional wrestling storyline and everything real and fake that went with that In the pages of POWER PLAYERS a love of sports shines through as the key to understanding who these presidents really were and how they chose to play by the rules occasionally bluff or cheat all the while coaching the country into a few quality wins and some notorious losses
