bold agendas being set by the thinkers of the fin de siècle and how prominent Church figures during the era first identified many of the concerns that have preoccupied Christians latterly These include an active interest in social justice and the creation of new types of communities increasingly open discussion of the sexual exploitation of children debates about society's decadence new ideas about the role of women and the belief in the redemptive powers of art pioneered by figures as diverse as P T Forsyth Percy Dearmer and Samuel and Henrietta Barnett Examining in particular the Christian world of fin de siècle London the author offers penetrating insights into a society in which the ritual and culture of Christianity sometimes permeated the aesthetic movement and where devotees of the aesthetic movement like Walter Pater Oscar Wilde and their disciples often revealed a fascination with Christianity She argues that the long 1890s was a decisive decade in which various sections of Christian opinion both on the progressive and the more conservative wings of the faith began to express views which set the tone for attitudes which would become commonplace in the twentieth century Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siècle is the focussed treatment of religion and culture at the end of the nineteenth century that the field has long needed It will be welcomed by scholars of church history social and cultural history and the history of ideas     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1992     The British Architect ,1915     Frozen Assets Frigga Kruse,2014-12-01 The focus of this book is the role of Great Britain in the industrial development of Spitsbergen The primary aim of this study is to explain the British operations on Spitsbergen from a historical international comparative perspective Hence the central research question is What were the driving forces behind the development of the British mining industry on Spitsbergen between 1904 and 1953     London 1900 Jonathan Schneer,2001-01-01 In 1900 London was the capital of an empire that spanned the globe This text examines the powerful city and its relationship with the British Empire at the turn of the century

Black Hands, White House Renee K. Harrison,2021-11-02 Black Hands White House documents and appraises the role enslaved women and men played in building the US both its physical and its fiscal infrastructure The book highlights the material commodities produced by enslaved communities during the Transatlantic Slave Trade These commodities namely tobacco rice sugar and cotton among others enriched European and US economies contributed to the material and monetary wealth of the nation's founding fathers other early European immigrants and their descendants and bolstered the wealth of present day companies founded during the American slave era Critical to this study are also examples of enslaved laborers role in building Thomas Jefferson's Monticello and George Washington's Mount Vernon Subsequently their labor also constructed the nation's capital city Federal City later renamed Washington DC its seats of governance the White House and US Capitol and other federal sites and memorials Given the enslaved community's contribution to the US this work questions the absence of memorials on the National Mall that honor enslaved Black bodied people Harrison argues that such monuments are necessary to redress the nation's historical disregard of Black people and America's role in their forced migration violent subjugation and free labor The erection of monuments commissioned by the US government would publicly demonstrate the government's admission of the US's historical role in slavery and human harm and acknowledgment of the karmic debt owed to these first Black bodied builders of America Black Hands White House appeals to those interested in exploring how nation building and selective memory American patriotism and hypocrisy racial superiority and mythmaking are embedded in US origins and monuments as well as in other memorials throughout the transatlantic European world Such a study is necessary as it adds significantly to the burgeoning and in depth conversation on racial disparity race relations history making reparations and monument erection and removal
