

Negative Peace

Negative Peace is known as the “absence of violence and the absence of the fear of violence.” Despite its simplicity, this is a deeply profound definition. Peace had often been thought of as simply the absence of war, but its is much more than that.

...is the absence of violence
or fear of violence

Positive Peace

Beyond measuring levels of actual peace, how can we understand what is needed to attain peaceful societies? The Global Peace Index tells us how peaceful a country is, but it doesn't tell us what we should be investing in to strengthen or maintain levels of peace.

...is the attitudes, institutions & structures that create and sustain peaceful societies

Regan,2018-05-21 The idea of studying peace has gained considerable traction in the past few years after languishing in the shadows of conflict for decades but how should it be studied The Peace Continuum offers a parallax view of how we think about peace and the complexities that surround the concept i e the book explores the topic from different positions at the same time Toward this end we review existing literature and provide insights into how peace should be conceptualized particularly as something more interesting than the absence of conflict We provide an approach that can help scholars overcome what we see as the initial shock that comes with unpacking the zero in the war peace model of conflict studies Additionally we provide a framework for understanding how peace and conflict have have not been related to one another in the literature To reveal how the Peace Continuum could be applied we put forward three alternative ways that peace could be studied With this approach the book is less trying to control the emerging peace research agenda than it is trying to assist in encourage thinking about the topic that we all have some opinion on but that has yet to be measured and analyzed in a way comparable to political conflict and violence Indeed we attempt to help facilitate a veritable explosion of approaches and efforts to study peace Globalization and Environmental Challenges Hans Günter Brauch,Úrsula Oswald Spring,Czesław
