The Confessions Of William James Chidley:

The Confessions of William James Chidley Sally McInerney, 2013-08-01 Confessions of William James Chidley W. J. Chidley, 1977 Bizzarrism Chris Mikul, 1999 A funny and entertaining look at outlandish ideas wacky religious cults and the extremes of human beliefs both in Australia and overseas It is a celebration of strange and eccentric lives with an emphasis on unsung Australian eccentrics bringing together the best ten years of Bizzarrism magazine The Eccentropedia Chris Mikul, 2012-10-02 An A Z of eccentrics 250 true stories of the most original and outrageous people on earth from bad poets to transsexual evolutionary theorists this encyclopedic guide covering ancient times to the present includes reams of material never seen in book form before Famous eccentrics like King Ludwig Salvador Dal and Howard Hughes rub shoulders with a host of lesser known but equally colorful characters in these mostly life affirming stories There are unsuspected parallels and connections throughout creating an alternative off kilter history of the world Parting with my Sex Lucy Chesser, 2018-08-30 Exploring the recurrence of cross dressing and gender inversion within Australian cultural life this book compares and contrasts sustained life long impersonations where women lived worked and even married as men with other forms of cross dressing such as cross dressing for stage and the prosecution of men seeking sexual encounters disguised as women Chidley's Answer to the Sex Problem Bill Hornadge, William James Chidley, 1971 The Making and Breaking of the Australian Family Michael Gilding, 2020-07-31 Once everyone knew what the family was It was something natural and without a history mum dad and the kids Divorce women in the workforce de facto relationships and the sexual liberation movements have fractured the old certainties Nowadays there is more talk about the family than ever even if no one is quite sure what it is anymore The making and breaking of the Australian family looks at the family in history It traces the shift from the household economy of the late nineteenth century to the child centred nuclear family of the mid twentieth century to the recent proliferation of households The book argues that the so called traditional family was a quite recent creation and that its fragmentation is obscured by new redefinitions of the family The making and breaking of the Australian family addresses the changing experiences of childhood parenting home neighbourhood work birth and sexuality It examines the expansion of the market and the state patterns of class mobilisation the reconstruction of masculinity and femininity and the creative strategies of ordinary people in everyday life This is a lively and accessible book which will prove a valuable reference for students of history sociology women s studies and Australian studies and will generate wide discussion amongst people concerned with family policy welfare and contemporary social issues The Uses of Literacy in Colonial Australia Martyn Lyons, 2025-10-14 What did Australians read This book answers this question in terms of books rather than newspapers and considers the long nineteenth century interpreted as running from 1788 to 1901 In the wake of this primary question several others arise how did Australians acquire the books they read and how did readers in the outback overcome the handicaps of distance and remoteness Did they read for pleasure instruction self edification or spiritual sustenance More importantly how did Australian readers respond to the books they read The evidence is drawn from autobiographical sources in which individual readers related their personal reading experiences and responses At the same time the book pursues a second and related question What did Australians write Reference is made here not to the kind of writing we know as literature but to the non literary writing which cultural historians call ordinary writings These are the writings of everyday life represented in this book by diaries journals hand written newspapers and correspondence The focus is wide enough to include the everyday cultural practices of people of low social status and little education The writing practices of the partially literate including writing delegated to a third party have their place here In this double investigation the book draws on evidence from a cohort of 101 nineteenth century readers and writers They are a heterogeneous group of autobiographers coming from Melbourne and Sydney to rural Queensland and Western Australia They come from the city and the bush from coastal towns and the interior from sheep stations gold diggings and city offices They show us the perennial importance of Shakespeare and the Bible the popularity of the English canon the prestige of poetry and the importance of religious reading Books held the Empire together but as they travelled their meanings changed according to the local cultural environment This book registers such nuances in the Australian context The writing of this group is represented by some prolific diarists and correspondents In the late nineteenth century the eastern colonies became world leaders in sending letters The postal environment which made this possible is also examined History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark,1999-09-13 Manning Clark s six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888 1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I s Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive Love and Freedom Alison Mackinnon,1997-01-28 In this 1997 book Alison Mackinnon traces the history of women s challenges to changes in education employment reproductive science and law She shows the connection between the lives of the first generation of women university graduates and the sudden decline in the national birthrate So dramatic was this shift that it sparked a Royal Commission into its cause Alison Mackinnon s extensive research shows that the declining birthrate was not simply the result of selfish educated young women refusing to bear the burdens of motherhood but was symptomatic of a larger questioning of the role of women in procreation the role of women in marriage and the institution of marriage itself Utilising social and government history autobiography and statistical analysis this book shows that the Marriage Problem exists as much in the 1990s as it did in the 1890s Men and women today are still challenging the boundaries between work and home profession and private life trying to find a way to have it all Let's Talk About Sex Lisa Featherstone,2011-01-18 From the start of the new Australian nation in 1901 to the use of the female contraceptive pill in 1961 Let's Talk About Sex explores the ways sexuality has been constructed understood and experienced in Australia Far from being something hidden and private this work brings sexuality out into the open and explains why sex is of social cultural political and economic importance Let's Talk About Sex is an inclusive history surveying multiple and interwoven forms of sexuality desire pleasure regulation and resistance It begins with the long Victorian period the hidden desires of women and the hydraulic sexual needs of men both in the cities and on the frontier It moves across the decades considering heterosexuality homosexuality lesbians and nascent ideas about queer and sexual difference Lisa Featherstone highlights the tensions of the ages venereal disease homophobia birth control rape and child sexual assault She analyses the ways non normative sexuality was constructed as evil and perverse but also how men and women responded to this pathologising of their desires Let's Talk About Sex provides a fascinating account of sex gender age and race across the formative years of Australian society Australian Autobiographical Narratives: 1850-1900 Kay Walsh, Joy W. Hooton, 1993 Australian Autobiographical Narratives Volume 2 and its partner Volume 1 provide researchers with detailed annotations of published Australian autobiographical writing Both volumes are a rich resource of the European settlement of Australia This selection concentrates on the post gold rush period providing portraits of 533 individuals from amateur explorers to politicians from pioneer settlers to sportsmen Like Volume 1 it offers an intimate and absorbing insight into nineteenth century Australia On Pornography David Saunders, Dugald

Williamson, 2016-07-27 The policing of pornography remains a subject of widespread controversy On Pornography provides a history of this policing and an understanding of the current debate The authors show that obscenity law should not be understood negatively as censorship but as part of the positive administration of a particular practice of sexuality This book indicates that obscenity law is not as liberals claim a mistaken attempt to police moral ideas but rather forms part of the legitimate governmental regulation of a problematic social conduct Bizzarrism Vol 1 Chris Mikul, 2016-09-22 Bizzarrism is a collection of strange but true tales featuring a grand parade of eccentrics visionaries crackpots cult leaders artists theorists and outsiders of every stripe First published in 1999 this new fully revised and expanded edition revisits a host of unique individuals including William Chidley who believed that when it comes to sex we've all been making a terrible mistake Arthur Cravan who combined poetry with boxing Slim Gaillard jazz singer and dispenser of vout William Lindsay Gresham author of the classic noir novel Nightmare Alley Rosaleen Norton Australia's most notorious witch Harry Crosby poet sun worshipper and the best looking corpse of 1929 Reginald Levgiac author of the mysterious pamphlet Drugs Virus Germs In writing their stories Mikul does not judge but instead celebrates these characters for their fabulous weirdness For him they are the beacons of shining if erratic brilliance in a world of sensible conformity The world would be a poorer place without them

Children, Childhood and Youth in the British World Simon Sleight, Shirleene Robinson, 2016-10-06 Age was a critical factor in shaping imperial experience yet it has not received any sustained scholarly attention This pioneering interdisciplinary collection is the first to investigate the lives of children and young people and the construction of modes of childhood and youth within the British world

Purifying Empire Deana Heath, 2010-06-03 Purifying Empire explores the material cultural and moral fragmentation of the boundaries of imperial and colonial rule in the British Empire in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It charts how a particular bio political project namely the drive to regulate the obscene in late nineteenth century Britain was transformed from a national into a global and imperial venture and then re localized in two different colonial contexts India and Australia to serve decidedly different ends While a considerable body of work has demonstrated both the role of empire in shaping moral regulatory projects in Britain and their adaptation transformation and at times rejection in colonial contexts this book illustrates that it is in fact only through a comparative and transnational framework that it is possible to elucidate both the temporalist nature of colonialism and the political racial and moral contradictions that sustained imperial and colonial regimes

Radical Sydney Terence H. Irving, Terry Irving, Rowan J. Cahill, 2010 Sydney a beautiful international city with impressive buildings harbour side walkways public gardens cafes restaurants theatres and hotels This is the way Sydney is represented to its citizens and to the rest of the world But there has always been another Sydney not viewed so fondly by the city s rulers a radical part of Sydney The working class suburbs to the south and west of the city were large and explosive places of marginalised ideas bohemian neighbourhoods dissident politics and contentious action Through a series of snapshots Radical Sydney traces its development from The Rocks in the 1830s to the inner suburbs of the 1980s It includes a range of incidents people and places from freeing protestors in the anti conscription movement resident action movements in Kings Cross anarchists in Glebe to Gay Rights marches on Oxford Street and Black Power in Redfern

Homophobia Shirleene Robinson, 2008 Homophobia is a prejudice with effects that extend far beyond the gay and lesbian community While its physical emotional and social effects have been charted to some extent the development of homophobia in Australia has yet to be fully explored Homophobia An Australian History is the first book to consider homophobia in a distinctively Australian context In this collection thirteen well known scholars examine the embedded homophobic attitudes that Australian gay and lesbian activists have fought to change The book traces the evolution of homophobia from its expression in Australia s past as a colonial settler society through to manifestations in present day society The compilation of this text is timely given the 2007 release of the Same Sex Same Entitlements report of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission The release of this report which focused on institutionalised and legal homophobia has raised public awareness of these issues and sparked broader debates about homosexual rights The thirtieth anniversary of Sydney s Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras earlier this year also offers an ideal opportunity to reflect on the past gains and future goals of the gay and lesbian rights movement The collected chapters in this book argue that homophobia developed in conjunction with the growth of a modern homosexual identity in the second half of the nineteenth century To various extents the legal and medical professions and other social institutions have perpetuated homophobic attitudes Homophobia An Australian History raises awareness of the devastating impact these attitudes can have on individuals and on society Addendum At the commencement of Page IX Dr Ruth Ford s name and academic position was omitted Dr Ford s biographical entry under Notes on Contributors should read Dr Ruth Ford is a lecturer in Australian history at La Trobe University She has published extensively on Australian lesbian queer and gender history She is currently attempting to combine motherhood with researching writing and teaching Her publications include articles in Labour History Gender and History UK and Australian Historical Studies as well as book chapters in Madness in Australia histories heritage and the asylum edited by Catharine Coleborne and Dolly MacKinnon Gender and War Australians at war in the twentieth century edited by Joy Damousi and Marilyn Lake and Sex Power and Justice historical perspectives on the law in Australia 1788 1990 edited by Diane Kirkby Creating the Moral Colonial Subject Deana Lee Heath, 2003
