The Conflict Of Generations:

The Conflict of Generations in Ancient Greece and Rome Stephen Bertman, 1976-01-01 The Conflict of Generations
Lewis Samuel Feuer, 1976 Generation Gap, a Sociological Study of Inter-generational Conflicts Ramaa Prasad, 1992-01-01 Study with reference to Pune India The Generation Gap and International Development Inter-American Development Bank, 1969 Theory and Application of the "Generation" in International Relations and Politics B. Steele, J.
Acuff, 2011-12-15 The generation has been largely forgotten in the fields of sociology and political science especially regarding global politics This volume re engages the concept of a generation utilizing it to explore how it can help us understand a variety of processes and patterns in International Relations and Comparative Politics Generations Alexandra Walsham, 2023 Generations examines how the English Reformation was shaped by the generations that experienced witnessed and participated in it Drawing on a rich array of evidence it highlights the vital part played by families bound by blood and by faith in the religious revolution that stretched across the 16th and 17th centuries Gender, Generations, and Communism in Central and Eastern Europe and Beyond Anna Artwińska, Agnieszka Mroziak, 2020-06-03 Communism in twentieth century Europe is predominantly narrated as a totalitarian movement and or regime This book aims to go beyond this narrative and provide an alternative framework to describe the communist past This reframing is possible thanks to the concepts of generation and gender which are used in the book as analytical categories in an intersectional overlap The publication covers twentieth century Poland Czechoslovakia Czech Republic the Soviet Union Russia former Yugoslavia Turkish communities in West Germany Italy and Cuba as a comparative point of reference It provides a theoretical frame and overview chapters on several important gender and generation narratives about communism anticommunism and postcommunism Its starting point is the belief that although methodological reflection on communism as well as on generations and gender is conducted extensively in contemporary research the overlapping of these three terms is still rare The main focus in the first part is on methodological issues The second part features studies which depict the possibility of generational gender interpretations of history The third part is informed by biographical perspectives The last part shows how the problem of generations and gender is staged via the medium of literature and how it can be narrated Cultural Impact on Conflict Management in Higher Education Nancy T. Watson, Lei Xie, Matthew J.

Etchells, 2018-07-01 Cultural Impact on Conflict Management in Higher Education shares information regarding conflict management and resolution in higher education from a global perspective In this book we introduced many conflict resolution methods from different regions in the world You can borrow some successful strategies and examine the differences and similarities between contexts The book shares a conflict resolution model which may direct the reader to start thinking about addressing and managing conflicts from different levels of organizations This book is a collective work of authors coming from all over the world We chose higher education as the context because it is a place where diverse thoughts perspectives and people come together Because of the potential richness of diversity on a college campus the opportunity for conflicts occurs Managing conflict does not work when there is a one way only approach model for addressing conflict Some conflict resolution encompasses multiple dimensions a one s personal beliefs or beliefs about an issue b an individual s personal history in terms of how the conflict was perceived as something to be discussed or not c work culture of the conflict where if one has a conflict the person or unit is messing up or there is a problem person d the unconscious strategies of face saving trying to maintain one s image present e social hierarchies or relationships and f the diversity dimensions and issues that may be present

Toward Sustainability Sonja Maria Geiger, Sebastian Bamberg, Daniel Fischer, 2021-09-13 The Myth of Generational Conflict Sara Arber, Claudine Attias-Donfut, 2002-01-04 The ageing of Western societies has provoked extensive sociological debate surrounding both the role of the state and whether it can afford the cost of an ageing population and the role of the family especially women in supporting older people In this important book the authors examine how changes such as cuts in welfare provision migration urbanization and individualisation influence intergenerational relations The collection addresses theoretical and policy issues connecting age and generation with the family and social policy and focuses both on cross cultural comparison within societies and analysis based on a range of societies This edited collection brings together a range of leading researchers and theorists from across Europe to advance a sociological understanding of generational relations in terms of the state and the family and how they are interlinked It will be of interest to academics and researchers in sociology social policy and ageing and to policy makers concerned with the implications of demographic and policy changes

Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Oltean, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg s multidirectional memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9 11 as a traumatic landmark

Family businesses constitute some of the most unique complex and dynamic systems in modern society The blending of the performance based world of business and the emotion based domain of the family creates a system potentially fraught with confusion and conflict The significant rise in immigrant family businesses adds a further level of complexity to this mix Research into immigrant family businesses has been based on traditional limited views of entrepreneurship largely ignoring the ethnic and family contexts that create the culture from which entrepreneurship emerges making it impossible to understand the complex and interdependent relationships between an owning family its firm its governance and the community context in which the firm operates These firms possess features that make their governance a challenging task They depict a complex stakeholder structure whereby the ownership stakes are passed from one generation to the next The owning family s members usually play multiple roles thereby blurring governance relationships Governance in Immigrant Family Businesses explores the relationship between ethnic cultural influence in family businesses and its impact on corporate governance addressing the intertwined influences of contractual relational and cultural governance mechanisms and sets out a comprehensive theoretical model which clarifies the complexities involved in business planning family harmony and ethnic cultural variables The authors specifically identify the implications for research education and practice Application of their model will be of value to policy makers consultants business researchers and educators Research
