[With Plates.]. Eric Maple, 1965 The Dark World of Pakistani Black Magic Insar Haq, 2024-11-01 A fascinating and often surprising journey into the beliefand practice of magic in Pakistan exploring the country's myths legends andfolklore The supernatural and the religious intertwine to produce a uniquecultural landscape where the holy and the superstitious combine inextricably and practitioners of both white and black magic gain legitimacy and status from the incorporation of Ouranic elements in their rituals from faith healing and protection to harmful sorcery Far from an arcane relic of times long past the practice ofmagic is ubiquitous in Pakistan today and amongst its diaspora across theglobe constantly changing and adapting to new environments and influences Neither is the popularity of magic limited to the impoverished or illiterate belief is widespread regardless of status and education with a resurgence ininterest from younger people perhaps disillusioned with modern society andorganised religion and seeking a return to a more natural way of life The risks of exploitation and abuse from unprincipled charlatans are commonplace especially since they are promoted by the media and unregulated by law but genuine religiously legitimate practitioners also exist and their help is sought by millions suggesting a deep seated human needfor connection to the supernatural The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools Cynthia Leanne Landrum, 2019-03-01 The Dakota Sioux Experience at Flandreau and Pipestone Indian Schools illuminates the relationship between the Dakota Sioux community and the schools and surrounding region as well as the community s long term effort to maintain its role as caretaker of the sacred citadel of its people Cynthia Leanne Landrum explores how Dakota Sioux students at Flandreau Indian School in South Dakota and at Pipestone Indian School in Minnesota generally accepted the idea that they should attend these particular boarding institutions because they saw them as a means to an end and ultimately as community schools This construct operated within the same philosophical framework in which some Eastern Woodland nations approached a non Indian education that was simultaneously tied to long term international alliances between Europeans and First Peoples beginning in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Landrum

provides a new perspective from which to consider the Dakota people's overt acceptance of this non Native education system and a window into their ongoing evolutionary relationships with all of the historic overtures and tensions that began the moment alliances were first brokered between the Algonquian Confederations and the European powers Witches Ivan Bunn, Gilbert Geis, 2005-11-04 In 1662 Amy Denny and Rose Cullender were accused of witchcraft and in one of the most important of such cases in England stood trial and were hanged in Bury St Edmunds A Trial of Witches is a complete account of this sensational trial and an analysis of the court procedures and the larger social cultural and political concerns of the period In a critique of the official process the book details how the erroneous conclusions of the trial were achieved The authors consider the key participants in the case including the judge and medical witness their institutional importance their part in the fate of the women and their future careers Through detailed research of primary sources the authors explore the important implications of this case for the understanding of hysteria group mentality social forces and the witchcraft phenomenon as a whole Medicine Women Elisabeth Brooke, 1997 Women have always been healers from the priestess healers in the temples of Isis to the hedge witches and herbalists of medieval times to the physicians researchers and alternative practitioners of today This glorious book celebrates the history of women healers from earliest times to the present It includes profiles of women healers from all traditions Some are well known such as Hildegard of Bingen Florence Nightingale and Mary Baker Eddy Others deserve to be more widely recognized such as Trotula of Salerno who wrote gynecological and obstetrical texts in thirteenth century Italy and Mama Lola a respected mambo or healing priestess in the Haitian Voodoo tradition Text and pictures detail the many contributions of women to the healing arts from the founding of nursing orders and the tending of soldiers to the establishment of public health hospitals to contemporary applications of the ancient lore of herbal medicine and therapeutic touch Witches Nigel Cawthorne, 2019-11-07 When bigotry and power mania take control disaster always follows for subjugated persons even when the power is wielded by the Church Witchcraft was viewed as devil worship Between 1450 and 1750 one hundred thousand people were accused subject to the most bestial tortures and usually executed Witches examines the wildfire spread of witch hunting across Europe and America revealing the disturbing and brutal realities of these witch hunts and their roots in misogyny and religious persecution It includes Letters and trial testimonies from those charged with witchcraft as well as some from self proclaimed witches Biographic detail of key witch hunters such as Matthew Hopkins the so called Witchfinder General who was responsible for hundreds of executions Accounts of famous witch trials from Chelmsford to Salam Nigel Cawthorne doesn t shy away from the violent details of this persecution exploring the events as they transpired the contexts that triggered them and tracing it back to its source Please note This title contains descriptions of a violent and sexual nature and is not intended for younger readers Discretion is advised The Dragon Empress Carlos A. Essex Witches Peter C. Brown,2014-10-01 Medieval folk had long suspected that the Devil was carrying out his work on earth with the help of his minions In 1484 Pope Innocent VIII declared this to be true which resulted in witch hunts across Europe which lasted for nearly 200 years In 1645 England notably Essex was in the grip of witch fever Between 1560 and 1680 in Essex alone 317 women and 23 men were tried for witchcraft and over 100 were hanged Essex Witches recounts many of the local common folk who were tried in the courts for their beliefs and practice in herbal remedies and potions and for causing often by their familiars the deaths of neighbours and even family members and had meted out the harshest penalties for their sorcery and demonic ways
