Ajanta was purely elitist developed by less than a dozen major patrons Its brief heyday traumatically ended however with the death of the great emperor Harisena in about 477 creating political chaos Ajanta s anxious patrons now joined in a headlong rush to get their shrines dedicated in order to obtain the expected merit before they fled the region abandoning their caves to the monks and local devotees remaining at the now doomed site These intrusive new patrons now filled the caves with their own helter skelter votive offerings paying no heed to the well laid plans of the years before A similar pattern of patronage is to be found in the redecoration of the earlier Hinayana caves where the careful planning of the work being done during Harisena s reign is suddenly interrupted by a host of individual votive donations The volume ends with a new and useful editing of Ajanta inscriptions by Richard S Cohen
