This volume was written and recorded in a time when the great Northwest was rapidly becoming a settled country With the passing of the traditional ways of the Indian much of the America s aboriginal folk lore rich in its fairy like characters and its relation to the lives of its native people has been lost There is a wide difference between folk lore of the so called Old World and that of America The folk stories of our European ancestors transmitted orally through countless generations show many evidences of distortion and of change in material particulars but the American Indian seems to have been too fond of nature and too proud of tradition to have forgotten or changed the teachings of his forefathers Like Polynesian folklore they have changed little and have a childlike in simplicity beginning with creation itself and reaching to the whys and wherefores of nature s moods and eccentricities these tales impress as being well worth saving YESTERDAY S BOOKS for TODAY S CHARITIES 10% of the net sale will be donated to Charities TAGS fairy tales folklore myths legends children s stories children s stories bygone era fairydom fairy land classic stories children s bedtime stories fables cultural setting American Indian native American why stories Blackfeet Chippewa Cree tribes Montana Wyoming Idaho North Dakota South Dakota Great Falls Helena Lewis and Clark Flathead Custer Beaverhead Deerlodge Fort Peck Wolf point I15 I90 i94 why the chipmunk s back is striped ducks fine feathers kingfisher wears war bonnet curlew s bill long crooked old man remake world blackfeet never kill mice otter skin great medicine old man steal sun s leggings conscience treachery night hawk s wings Beautiful mountain lion long lean fire leggings moon great snake deer no gall whip buffalo berries old man fox birch tree slashes bark mistakes how the man found his mate dreams retrospection
