The Day the grog ran out and other stories from the Big Book Keith Murray,1995 Evangelicals and the End of Christendom Hugh Chilton,2019-12-09 Exploring the response of evangelicals to the collapse of Greater Christian Britain in Australia in the long 1960s this book provides a new religious perspective to the end of empire and a fresh national perspective to the end of Christendom In the turbulent 1960s two foundations of the Western world rapidly and unexpectedly collapsed Christendom marked by the dominance of discursive Christianity in public culture and Greater Britain the powerful sentimental and strategic union of Britain and its settler societies disappeared from the collective mental map with startling speed To illuminate these contemporaneous global shifts this book takes as a case study the response of Australian evangelical Christian leaders to the cultural and religious crises encountered between 1959 and 1979 Far from being a narrow national study this book places its case studies in the context of the latest North American and European scholarship on secularisation imperialism and evangelicalism Drawing on a wide range of archival sources it examines critical figures such as Billy Graham Fred Nile and Hans Mol as well as issues of empire counter cultural movements and racial and national identity This study will be of particular interest to any scholar of Evangelicalism in the twentieth century It will also be a useful resource for academics looking into the wider impacts of the decline of Christianity and the British Empire in Western civilisation Hogan James Oram,1987 G'day America James Oram,1988 Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books,1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe International Books in Print ,1997 Bookbuyers' Reference Book ,1993 The Idiot And Other Stories Fyodor Dostoyevsky,2020-09-28 Towards the end of November during a thaw at nine o clock one morning a train on the Warsaw and Petersburg railway was approaching the latter city at full speed The morning was so damp and misty that it was only with great difficulty that the day succeeded in breaking and it was impossible to distinguish anything more than a few yards away from the carriage windows Some of the passengers by this particular train were returning from abroad but the third class carriages were the best filled chiefly with insignificant persons of various occupations and degrees picked up at the different stations nearer town All of them seemed weary and most of them had sleepy eyes and a shivering expression while their complexions generally appeared to have taken on the colour of the fog outside When day dawned two passengers in one of the third class carriages found themselves opposite each other Both were young fellows both were rather poorly dressed both had remarkable faces and both were evidently anxious to start a conversation If they had but known why at this particular moment they were both remarkable persons they would undoubtedly have wondered at the strange chance which had set them down opposite to one another in a third class carriage of the Warsaw Railway Company One of them was a young fellow of about twenty seven not tall with black curling hair and small grey fiery eyes His nose was broad and flat and he had high cheek bones his thin lips were constantly compressed into an impudent ironical it might almost be called a malicious smile but his forehead was high and well formed and atoned for a good deal of the ugliness of the lower part of his face A special feature of this physiognomy was its death like pallor which gave to the whole man an indescribably emaciated appearance in spite of his hard look and at the same time a sort of passionate and suffering expression which did not harmonize with his impudent sarcastic smile and keen self satisfied bearing He wore a large fur or rather astrachan overcoat which had kept him warm all night while his neighbour had been obliged to bear the full severity of a Russian November night entirely unprepared His wide sleeveless mantle with a large cape to it the sort of cloak one sees upon travellers during the winter months in Switzerland or North Italy was by no means adapted to the long cold journey through Russia from Eydkuhnen to St Petersburg The wearer of this cloak was a young fellow also of about twenty six or twenty seven years of age slightly above the middle height very fair with a thin pointed and very light coloured beard his eyes were large and blue and had an intent look about them yet that heavy expression which some people affirm to be a peculiarity as well as evidence of an epileptic subject His face was decidedly a pleasant one for all that refined but quite colourless except for the circumstance that at this moment it was blue with cold He held a bundle made up of an old faded silk handkerchief that apparently contained all his travelling wardrobe and wore thick shoes and gaiters his whole appearance being very un Russian Rídan The Devil And Other Stories Louis Becke,2019-07-02 Big Book of Best Short Stories Volume 8 Émile Zola,Stewart Edward White,Sarah Orne Jewett,Willa Cather,George Ade,Robert W. the inimitable Bill Swampy Marsh bestselling author of Great Australian Flying Doctor Stories and Great Australian Police Stories I've been a trained nurse for almost sixty years now and I've never once gone to work thinking I don't want to do this. In fact I've always said how it's been a privilege to be a nurse in areas where there were no counsellors no psychologists nothing just me. With hearts as big as the outback rural and remote nurses are a dedicated and gutsy bunch who work selflessly to care for their communities often in isolated and inhospitable conditions with few resources but plenty of experience courage and care. Outback nurses deal with it all broken limbs labour pains snake bites sunburnt backpackers lost explorers vaccinations defibrillations even the occasional crook cattle dog. One thing they are never short of is stories to tell. This memorable and eye-opening collection of real-life accounts from nurses in the Australian bush is by turns inspiring poignant heartbreaking and hilarious and Swampy should know. It was while he was researching this book he had a near-fatal fall from a cliff in Kakadu and experienced first-hand the skill and heroism of these outback nurses in extraordinary situations. Bill Swampy Marsh is an award-winning writer and performer of stories songs and plays. He spent most of his youth in rural south-western NSW and now lives in Adelaide. Swampy is one of ABC Books' bestselling authors of Australian stories; this is his sixteenth book.
