The Day We Still Stand Here:

The Day We Still Stand Here Gary Margolis, 2008-04-01 Gary Margolis's first book of poems is accomplished in its craftsmanship. For many years he has been publishing in magazines and in this initial gathering of his work he presents a sustained mature poetic voice. This is a collection of his best poems and a carefully considered whole, a book that is consistently lyrical and moving.

Vital Signs Ronald Wallace, 1989 This anthology includes 179 poets published by university presses in recent years. It seeks to provide a rich overview of the best contemporary American poetry irrespective of publisher, age of poet, aesthetic program or current status in the literary canon to celebrate the work of university presses in discovering and supporting that poetry and to suggest some questions about American poetry, its democratization, canonization, aesthetics, politics and sociology. The volume includes brief histories of poetry publishing at each press, their poetry lists and an essay on the American poetry scene of the last 20 years. It features poems by such established poets as John Ashbery, Marge Piercy, Adrienne Rich and James Wright. ISBN 0 299 12160 7 29 95

The Complete Concordance to Shakespeare: Being a Verbal Index to All the Passages in the Dramatic Works of the Poet Mary Cowden-Clarke, 1845

All Aberration Terese Svoboda, 2009-09-01 These are poems of family, of romantic hope and disappointment of parenthood and of grief that move from a childhood in Nebraska in which a father strides into a ripe wheat field to the parks and parking lots of New York City, the interchangeable landscapes of suburban America and the more sensual environment of secluded water to little traveled parts of Africa and the Pacific where our customs and passions are refracted into shapes that are sometimes beautiful, sometimes grotesque. Terese Svoboda writes of a world in which the reassuring simplicity remembered from childhood is difficult to recover. Outside of this vision of the past, all present life seems an aberration, an existence where violence can supplant love, families break apart, a child dies. All Aberration received a starred review in Publishers Weekly, a lead in Contemporary Poetry 1986 and a Notable Book nomination by the American Library Association. It was written during stays at Yaddo, MacDowell and Ossabaw and received the benefit of a Creative Artists Public Service grant in 1982. Its poems first appeared in such magazines as Harper's, The Nation, Paris Review and Ploughshares.

Heaven and Earth Albert Goldbarth, 1991 Focusing with equal energy at the imposing sky and at our own home planet, Albert Goldbarth moves from hosannah, choiring angels to a single peach pit glistening on the tongue of Madame Renoir, from the sweep of the earth's ecocycles to the particles of quantum physics. In these poems, surgeons, lovers, astronauts, psychiatrists and priests embark on the same far journey, traveling into the universe of what it means to be human, exploring how the world works. Here the ancient Egyptian afterlife and the atrocities of the 10 o'clock news, the realm of guacamole, chip dip and the life of Rembrandt mix toward one cohesive vision.

By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki, 2002 By Reason of Breakings, Andrew Zawacki's first book of poetry overwhelms and silences by virtue of its extremely austere beauty. In highly wrought lyrics, prose poems, fragments of apocrypha and splintered efforts at song, this volume is forceful and haunted by doubt Each intimate and restrained line is a glimpse at a wisdom that defies paraphrase each image carefully chosen and constructed Zawacki s language summons and invites and is almost menacing in its delicate intensity Weight is the syntax of filling empty spaces scalpels and expired tissue fall but fire rises to fever and sere While pursuing an explanation for the disappearance of God and for the denouement of a love affair and exploring the failure of language to compensate or console these poems maintain their sublime power and elegance The Gaza of Winter Donald Revell,1988 In Donald Revell s poems the present is often little more than an instant caught between the sadness of memory and the need to face the future s blank expanse Even the best dreams recall happiness that cannot be retrieved while the worst memories bend past love into a crazy line through darkness Anything can turn furious The crazy line through wreckage that wears my face and all the faces seems not to end And on the way even the most damaged things have one surface glazed a sudden distorting mirror that I can t help finding There I look as I did stalled in hours or places it is shame to remember The Eumenides are slow vengeance meted out by anywhere love fails in the collapse and angry dealing of self love The light presses The air presses hard and no story of mine if good enough to hold out When there is escape calm in these poems it is often in thoughts of distant lands and pasts in the works of other writers and artists the bands of light and changing shadows of Cezanne s canvases the suburban desire and deep green lawns of Cheever s fiction It is art stories the urge to tell that brings hope in these lines The Violence of the Morning Calvin Bedient,2002 Groundbreaking new poetry evokes a wide range of influences from Kant to the Upanishads while making deep exploratory journeys into the complexities of sexual relationships disease heartbreak and death Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original
