Treaties Submitted to the United States Senate Christian L. Wiktor, 2006-09-30 Under U S domestic law and treaty practice all international agreements concluded by the United States regardless of their form designation or title are divided into treaties which are submitted to the Senate for its advice and consent to ratification and other international agreements. Treaties which are submitted to the Senate are similar to federal laws and their legislative history is much the same as the one followed by legislation except that it is confined to proceedings in the Senate only. This legislative history follows the procedures established by the Senate and it is based on primary legislative sources. The main part is arranged chronologically by the date of conclusion of the treaty. Each treaty contains the following components: it provides general information about the treaty; it lists chronologically steps taken by the Senate during the treaty approval process; legislative implementation; executive action following Senate approval; entry into force; and annotations such as references to related treaties, amendments, and present status. The use of the legislative history is facilitated by appendices and a detailed general index which includes parties, regional subdivisions, and subjects. Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 1999 Endgame in NATO's Enlargement Yaroslav Bilinsky, 1999-02-28 After briefly dealing with arguments for and against NATO's enlargement as far as Poland, the Czech Republic, and Hungary, the author shows why the enlargement process must be carried forward to include in the near future the three Baltic States: Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, and Ukraine. Inclusion of the Baltic States and of Ukraine in NATO would stabilize the region by helping the Russian democrats to concentrate on building a genuinely democratic market-oriented Russian national state instead of succumbing to the temptation to restore the Soviet Union. Ukraine could also contribute to NATO a sizable conventional military force and a prime strategic area. The Baltic States offer a prime location and an indomitable spirit. The Balts and Ukraine will help NATO when finally admitted as full members. Using polling data, printed material, and interviews with Lithuanian and Ukrainian diplomats, the book convincingly shows the soundness of the Baltic and Ukrainian security goals without glossing over some difficulties, both internal and external. Future NATO

Enlargement Mark F. Cancian, 2022-01-15 Past NATO enlargement helped create a Europe whole, free, and at peace, but future enlargement should it occur, faces a hostile and militarily revitalized Russia. This report examines the military requirements and resulting budget costs of extending NATO's Article 5 commitment to countries such as Ukraine, Georgia, or Bosnia Herzegovina, which are actively seeking NATO membership, and Sweden and Finland, about which there has been analysis and speculation about membership. Costs to the United States range from 11 billion per year to defend Ukraine to half a billion dollars or less to defend Sweden. The project recommends that NATO incorporate force requirements and cost
