Strategy, Power and CSR Santiago García-Álvarez, Connie Atristain-Suárez, 2020-07-24 In today's global and complex environment traditional views towards organizational management are not enough for businesses to thrive It's only by bringing together different approaches can management styles develop fast enough to keep pace with the ever changing big picture International Narcotics Control Strategy Report, 1999 The Three Secular Plays of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Guillermo Schmidhuber, 2021-12-14 Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 1648-1695 wrote poetry prose and plays and is considered the greatest of Mexican women writers She was an intellectual prodigy reportedly mastering Latin in twenty lessons and at sixteen she entered a convent so that she might continue her learning One of the most influential early feminists in the New World she answered a bishop's criticism in a letter that has become a classic defense of the education of women She collected a private library of 4 000 volumes but when she was told that her studies were delaying the progress of her spiritual education she gave away her books and devoted herself to religious studies Traditionally scholars have attributed only one complete play to Sor Juana but in 1989 Guillermo Schmidhuber discovered a lost play The Second Celestina which he proved conclusively to be Sor Juana's earliest comedia co-authored with Agustín Salazar y Torres Schmidhuber's critical study is the first dedicated exclusively to the secular plays and the first to confirm Sor Juana's authorship of three dramatic pieces Combining literary history and criticism Schmidhuber explores the life and originality of Sor Juana's dramas and helps elucidate her enigmatic genius Though Sor Juana's work as a poet and intellectual has received increasing attention in the last decade writing about her has rarely taken into account her role as dramatist Schmidhuber helps correct this critical imbalance by examining Sor Juana's plays in light of dramatic theory He finds elements of both mannerist and baroque theater in her work sometimes both within the same play

The autos sacramentales of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Alice Brooke, 2018-03-30 Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 1651-1695 was the most significant literary figure of the colonial period in Spanish America The autos sacramentales or Eucharistic plays are some of her least studied and most perplexing works While one of them El divino Narciso has received substantial scholarly attention the other two El cetro de Jos and El misterio del Sacramento San Hermenegildo have been critically neglected in Sor Juana studies This study presents a full length analysis of all three plays along with their prologues or the introductory pieces alongside which they were intended to be performed Furthermore the study seeks to place these works in their philosophical and cultural context by exploring their engagement both with orthodox Catholic sacramental theology and the emergence of empiricism and the New Philosophy across the Hispanic world The three sections of this book each present significant new readings of the three plays The study of El divino Narciso employs a previously little known source to illuminate its Christological readings as well as Sor Juana's engagement with notions of wit and conceptism The analysis of El cetro de Jos explores her presentation of different approaches to perception to emphasise the importance of both the material and the transcendent to a holistic understanding of the Sacraments The final section on San Hermenegildo explores the influence on the play of the Christianised Stoicism of Justus Lipsius and demonstrates how Sor Juana used the work to attempt her most ambitious reconciliation of an empirical approach to natural philosophy and the material world with a Neostoic approach to Christian morality and orthodox Catholic sacramental theology
