Exorcism and Deliverance Ministry in the Twentieth Century James M. Collins, 2009-11-10 This study seeks to demonstrate that exorcism deliverance ministry is an innately enthusiastic practice utilizing John Knox's classic study of Christian enthusiasm The twentieth century provides an ideal arena for such a study since it frames a complete lifecycle for this rite from its infancy during the early decades through its heyday in the 1970s and 80s on to creeping routinisation by the end of the century Two enthusiastic settings Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist are identified and examined as the environment in which two related streams of exorcism deliverance ministry was practiced Finally enthusiastic Sacramentalist exorcism is considered in order to establish the thesis that enthusiastic settings provide a conducive atmosphere for the emergence and practice of exorcism deliverance ministry Attention is paid to historical factors within the Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist streams that underlie the development of this rite As a result important secondary insights are gained into the tidal nature of enthusiastic movements the role of itinerant preachers in the propagation of enthusiasm the routinisation of enthusiastic practices and the manner in which enthusiasm overcomes institutional denominational boundaries The study provides the foundation for future investigation of the manner in which enthusiastic experience is presented for apologetic purposes the relationship between exorcism deliverance ministry and millenarianism and the practice of this rite within non Western churches The Nation That Fears God Prospers Chammah J.

Kaunda,2019-01-15 Through its strength in numbers and remarkable presence in politics Pentecostalism has become a force to reckon with in twenty first century Zambian society Yet some fundamental questions in the study of Zambian Pentecostalism and politics remain largely unaddressed by African scholars Situated within an interdisciplinary perspective this unique volume explores the challenge of continuity in the Zambian Pentecostal understanding and practice of spiritual power in relation to political engagement Chammah J Kaunda argues that the challenge of Pentecostal political imagination is found in the inculturation of spiritual power with political praxis The result of this inculturation is that Zambian Pentecostals sacralize the political authority of state power through the charisma of the national president and other major political personalities It has also contributed to the construction of Zambian Pentecostal leadership that is deified rather than leadership that is formed through the struggles and experiences of the marginalized and powerless Kaunda argues that the solution does not lie either in desacralization of powers or the separation between the church and the state but rather in rethinking the Christ event as a paradigm for the recovery of Pentecostalism s sociopolitical prophetic dynamism

The Mental as Physical Edgar Wilson,2018-01-29 The central theme of this impressively argued study is that the mental and physical are identical Drawing heavily on recent scientific research into the mind brain relationship Dr Wilson argues that human mentality rationality and purposefulness are phenomena which come within the compass of scientifically based explanation The consequences of this thesis are enormous both in relation to the controversies about reasons and causes as explanations of human behaviour and more important to the problems of free will moral responsibility penal philosophy ethics and the law The book argues that free will is a misconceived idea and that our notions of moral responsibility need radical revision The book is of considerable relevance not only to academic philosophy but also to scientists and jurists interested in the implications of this study Originally published in 1979 The Exorcist Effect Joseph P. Laycock,Eric Harrelson,2023-11-07 The Exorcist Effect examines the relationship between horror films and religious culture focusing on the period from 1968 to the present Films like Rosemary s Baby 1968 The Exorcist 1973 and The Omen 1976 claimed to be based on actual events religious traditions and Biblical texts These films inspired subsequent beliefs and experiences which became the basis for yet more horror films This book draws on archival research to shed new light on such figures as Ed and Lorraine Warren and Malachi Martin who inserted themselves into this cycle It also incorporates interviews with horror authors film writers and paranormal investigators The Nations of the Night Oliver Johnson,2015-07-30 In this the

In Search of the Swan Maiden Barbara Fass Leavy, 1995-07-01 In her compendious study of the folktale of the runaway wife Leavy argues that the contradictory claims of nature and culture are embodied in the legendary figure of the swan maiden a woman torn between the human and bestial worlds The New York Times Book Review This is a study of the meaning of gender as framed by the swan maiden tale a story found in the folklore of virtually every culture The swan maiden is a supernatural woman forced to marry keep house and bear children for a mortal man who holds the key to her imprisonment When she manages to regain this key she escapes to the otherworld never to return These tales have most often been interpreted as depicting exogamous marriages describing the girl from another tribe trapped in a world where she will always be the outsider Barbara Fass Leavy believes that in the societies in which the tale and its variants endured woman was the other the outsider trapped in a society that could never be her own Leavy shows how the tale though rarely explicitly recognized is frequently replayed in modern literature Beautifully written this book reveals the myriad ways in which the folktales of a society reflect its cultural values and particularly how folktales are allegories of gender relations It will interest anyone involved in literary gender and cultural studies
