The Denton Experience Family And Friends Faces And Places:

Grave Convictions William Pillow, 2004-05 Clues from beyond the grave convict a killer and cause townspeople of Denton Kentucky to question the finality of death Three teenagers disappear without a trace One victim's newborn brother has fearful nightmares and recalls things only his dead brother would know The parents attach no significance to this until the boy becomes terrified of a local handyman and his mother reads a book on reincarnated children She contacts the book's author and learns that her son may be his reincarnated brother With that she begins an uphill battle to learn the truth about her first son's disappearance and to convict the culprit But without a body her efforts seem in vain Complicating everything are the firm convictions of Denton residents that we only live once Grave Convictions couples murder and reincarnation in a setting where people's beliefs about death clash with findings from real life research Even for those who do not believe in the paranormal it provides timely advice for improving one's life and the lives of others Banded Brothers, Volume 1 Amber Kell,

Over-Policing Black Bodies Delores D. Jones-Brown, Jason M. Williams, 2023-05-31 The 2020 deaths of George Floyd and Breonna Taylor rekindled decades old concerns about the legitimacy of policing They ignited the international recognition that Black people are subjected to forms of police violence that exceed the boundaries of formal law and human decency This book confirms that the Floyd and Taylor cases are not isolated incidents and provides suggestions toward prevention The contributors to the book have served on both sides of the criminal legal system They have been those who were tasked with enforcing the law and those who have been subject to law enforcement Consequently they are able to identify specific failures of a system that focuses on race specifically Blackness as a primary indicator of criminal propensity Through these chapters the authors suggest academically morally and practically sound corrective measures for moving toward a goal of equal rather than discriminatory and excessively harmful treatment under the law This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Criminology Race and Ethnic Studies Politics Human Rights and Political Sociology It was originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Ethnicity in Criminal Justice

The Local Preachers' Magazine and Christian Family Record, 1864 Human Development and Faith (Second Edition)

Felicity Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 Updated with the latest research this second edition approaches human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of the life cycle Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development Back cover

Food and Theatre on the World Stage Dorothy Chansky, Ann Folino White, 2015-06-12 Putting food and theatre into direct conversation this volume focuses on how food and theatre have operated for centuries as partners in the performative symbolic and literary making of meaning Through case studies literary analyses and performance critiques contributors examine theatrical work from China Japan India Greece Italy France Germany England the United States Chile Argentina and Zimbabwe addressing work from classical popular and contemporary theatre practices The investigation of uses of food across media and artistic genres is a burgeoning area of scholarly investigation yet regarding representation and symbolism literature and film have received more attention than theatre while performance studies scholars have taken the lead in examining the performative aspects of food events This collection looks across dramatic genres historical periods and cultural contexts and at food in all of its socio political material complexity to examine the particular problems and potentials of invoking and using food in live theatre The volume considers food as a transhistorical global phenomenon across theatre genres addressing the explosion of food studies at the end of the twentieth century that has shown how food is a crucial aspect of cultural identity
