Elizabeth Bacon Custer, 2023-11-12 In Defending General Custer's Legacy Complete Illustrated Trilogy Elizabeth Bacon Custer offers an intricate exploration of her husband George Armstrong Custer weaving a compelling narrative that both defends and romanticizes his controversial legacy. Employing a blend of firsthand accounts, historical analysis, and rich illustrations, Custer's trilogy encompasses key milestones in Custer's life, including his military exploits and the infamous Battle of Little Bighorn. The literary style is both personal and authoritative as Custer gracefully balances her passionate defense of her husband with the broader historical context of the American West during the late 19th century, making the work a significant contribution to Civil War and Native American history literature. Elizabeth Bacon Custer, a figure often overshadowed by her husband's notoriety, was herself a writer and a woman of her time who actively engaged in the public discourse surrounding her husband's life and legacy. Custer's work offers not only a defense of an often maligned figure but also serves as an engaging window into the tumultuous era of American expansion and conflict, inviting readers to reconsider the multifaceted dimensions of history.

The Desert War Jean Paul Pallud, 2022-09-21 A study of the North Africa campaign of World War II featuring a plethora of battlefield photographs from during the war and now. Following Mussolini's declaration of war in June 1940, initially Italy faced only those British troops based in the Middle East, but as the armed confrontation in the Western Desert of North Africa escalated, other nations were drawn in. Germany, Australia, India, South Africa, New Zealand, France, and finally the United States, to wage the first major tank versus tank battles of the Second World War. First tracing the history of the very early beginnings of civilisation in North Africa and on through the period of Italian colonisation, Jean Paul Pallud begins his account when the initial shots were fired at the 11th Hussars as they approached Italian outposts near Sidi Omar in Libya. It proved to be the opening move of a campaign which was to last for three years. When the Afrikakorps led by Rommel joined the battle in February 1941, the Germans soon gained the upper hand and recovered the whole of Cyrenaica minus Tobruk in the summer. The campaign then swung back and forth across the desert for another year until Rommel finally captured Tobruk in June 1942 and then moved eastwards into Egypt. With British fortunes at their lowest ebb, changes in command led to Montgomery launching his offensive at El Alamein the following November. This began the advance of the Eighth Army over a thousand miles to Tunisia, resulting in the final round up of the German and Italian forces in May 1943. Jean Paul and his camera retraced the route just prior to the recent civil war in Libya and the uprisings in Tunisia and Egypt in 2011, so he was fortunate to capture the locations before yet another war left its trail of death and destruction. Although the campaign in 1940-43 was dominated
