Regulations to Govern the Destruction of Records of Steam Railroads United States. Interstate Commerce Commission,1945    Intentional Destruction of Cultural Heritage and the Law Alberta Fabbricotti,2024-09-09 The world has been shocked by the destruction of world cultural heritage sites over the past two decades as seen in widely disseminated videos depicting events such as the demolition of the Buddhas of Bamiyan and the ancient Syrian city of Palmyra These acts are perhaps the clearest and most glaring examples of what is meant by the Intentional Destruction of the Cultural Heritage of Humankind IDCHH The book explores in detail the remedies against IDCHH available under international law These remedies are defined as all the lawful responses provided for both by customary law and by the special responsibility regimes created under the many substantive areas of international law The examination includes UNESCO instruments and UN measures for the maintenance of international peace mechanisms for the protection of human rights and those for the protection of investments and international criminal justice outcomes through the decisions of the Permanent Criminal Court Thus the book explores avenues for response such as appeals to international courts peacekeeping operations and referrals to the criminal legislation of States in addition to reparations The concept of the Cultural Heritage of Humankind implies that IDCHH harms all States and all peoples and human groupings in the world not only the State or people on whose territory the cultural property is located The book identifies the international law avenues for subjects not directly injured by IDCHH to obtain its cessation and reparation This book is essential reading for students academics and practitioners exploring international law and the destruction of cultural heritage    Cultural Violence and the Destruction of Human Communities Fiona Greenland,Fatma Müge Göcek,2020-06-02 This volume brings together leading sociologists and anthropologists to break new ground in the study of cultural violence First sketched in Raphael Lemkin's seminal writings on genocide and later systematically defined by peace studies scholar Johan Galtung the concept of cultural violence seeks to explain why and how language symbols rituals practices and objects are so frequently in the crosshairs of socio political change Recent conflicts in the Middle East Africa and Central Asia along with renewed public interest in the repertoire of violence applied to the control and erasure of indigenous populations highlights the gaps in our understanding of why cultural violence occurs what it consists of and how it relates to other forms of collective violence

Regulations to Govern the Destruction of Records of Telephone, Telegraph and Cable Companies (including Wireless Companies) Prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission in Accordance with Section 20 of the Act to Regulate Commerce United States. Interstate Commerce Commission,1920    Prosecuting the Destruction of Cultural Property in International Criminal Law Caroline Ehlert,2013-10-24 In Prosecuting the Destruction of Cultural Property in International Criminal Law Caroline Ehlert offers an analysis of treaty law protecting cultural property from destruction and foremost of the relevant provisions for prosecuting the destruction of cultural property in international criminal law The wanton destruction of valuable cultural property during armed conflict as well as during peacetime is omnipresent Therefore it is of the utmost importance to provide for provisions criminalising the destruction of cultural property and offering a basis for the prosecution of possible perpetrators

Kantian Moral Theory And The Destruction Of The Self Sandra Jane Fairbanks,2019-03-01 This book explains Kantian morality against an interrelated set of criticisms that constitute the most influential contemporary critique of Kantian morality It demonstrates that a theory which emphasizes the guidance of impartial moral principles does not threaten a person's feelings of attachment

Regulations to Govern the Destruction of Records of Carriers by Water, Issue of 1945 .... Effective August 1, 1945 United States. Interstate Commerce Commission,1945    Destruction of Evidence Jamie S. Gorelick,Stephen Marzen,Lawrence Solum,1995-12-31 A practice manual as well as an authoritative resource Destruction of Evidence analyzes issues from the standpoints of civil litigation criminal litigation and the laws of professional responsibility Destruction of Evidence also discusses in depth such areas as the spoliation inference the tort of spoliation discovery sanctions ethics and routine destruction Also included is an expanded discussion of discovery sanctions including procedural issues choice of law considerations the requirements for preserving sanctions issues for appellate review burdens of proof and appellate review. The supplement keeps you up to date on the continuing development of the controversial torts of both first and third party spoliation of evidence. Massachusetts has declined to recognize a cause of action in tort for intentional or negligent spoliation of evidence. The Supreme Court of Mississippi did not recognize an independent cause of action for the intentional spoliation of evidence against first or third party spoliators. Nevada declined to recognize an independent tort spoliation of evidence when weighed against the potentially endless litigation over a speculative loss and by the cost to society of promoting onerous record and evidence retention policies. Constitutional implications in the realm of criminal law. Many states within the last year have been addressing the potential for due process violations when evidence is destroyed and are continuing to adopt and expand the rules dictated by Brady, Trombetta, and Youngblood. While each of these new jurisdictions refused to find due process violation, this trend recognizes the increased potential for constitutional violations when evidence is destroyed. Hawaii refused to find a constitutional violation where a police officer failed to save her completed police report citing Brady. The Supreme Court of Mississippi ruled that a defendant was not denied due process by spoliation of crime scene evidence citing Trombetta. Nevada using a bad faith standard ruled that an independent laboratory's failure to refrigerate a defendant's blood sample did not violate due process. A New Jersey court did not find a due process violation where the police had lost a videotape of the administration of breath tests for a DUI charge. Oklahoma ruled that a defendant's due process rights were not violated when the police destroyed latent crime scene fingerprints citing Youngblood. Using an exculpatory evidence standard, the Supreme Court of South Dakota ruled that the State's release of a rape victim's vehicle without notice to the defendant did not violate the defendant's due process rights.
