La historia comparada de los procesos de construcción nacional británico francés español y portugués durante la era de las revoluciones construida a partir de un corpus de relatos de vida constituye una práctica novedosa Aunque las fuentes autobiográficas utilizan la palabra nación y sus términos asociados con diferentes sentidos se pueden inferir una serie de patrones comunes de significado en los lenguajes nacionales empleados antes durante y después de la revolución liberal Asimismo se aborda la relación entre la diversidad cultural territorializada y los conflictos políticos de la época incluyendo los procesos de secesión acontecidos dentro de estas monarquías transatlánticas en su problemática transformación en naciones imperiales Los resultados revelan un uso de la nación recurrente y relativamente transversal en la codificación de las trayectorias vitales e incluyen la propuesta de un modelo de historia conceptual alternativo a la oposición binaria entre naciones modernas y naciones premodernas en este momento clave de transición semántica The Antiquaries Journal ,1984 The Emergence of the Professional Watercolourist Greg Smith,2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2002 Drawing on extensive primary research Greg Smith describes the shifting cultural identities of the English watercolour and the English watercolourist at the end of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth century His convincing narrative of the conflicts and alliances that marked the history of the medium and its practitioners during this period includes careful detail about the broader artistic context within which watercolours were produced acquired and discussed Smith calls into question many of the received assumptions about the history of watercolour painting His account exposes the unsatisfactory nature of the traditional narrative of watercolour painting's development into a high art form which has tended to offer a celebratory focus on the innovations and genius of individual practitioners such as Turner and Girtin rather than detailing the anxieties and aspirations that characterized the ambivalent status of the watercolourist The Emergence of the Professional Watercolourist is published with the assistance of the Paul Mellon Foundation The Diary of Joseph Farington Joseph Farington,Kenneth Garlick,Angus Macintyre,1983 Dreadful Fire! Katherine Solender,Cleveland Museum of Art,1984

Turner and the Masters Tate Britain (Gallery), 2009-09 J M W Turner 1775 1851 is widely regarded as the greatest painter Britain has ever produced Despite the many books and exhibitions that have been devoted to him there is one aspect of his extraordinary oeuvre that has never been thoroughly examined Uniquely in the history of European art he took on all comers past and present that he considered worthy of a challenge creating his own images in their styles These works were both acts of homage and a sophisticated form of art criticism demonstrating his understanding of great art and his ability to equal or better the most celebrated exponents of the landscape tradition No artist however revered was considered beyond challenge This unique habit is clearly a key to understanding Turner's art yet the issue is one that has so far never been thoroughly addressed on Turner and on British art of the 18th and 19th centuries In Turner and the Masters leading authorities explore this fascinating aspect of his career revealing new detail on the debts and rivalries that shaped his work in often unexpected ways Accompanying a major touring exhibition that brings together works by Turner with masterpieces by Claude Canaletto Ruisdael Van de Velde Poussin Rubens and Rembrandt as well as by Turner's contemporaries including Constable and Bonnington this book firmly positions Turner in the company of the greatest painters of all time The contributors include Guillaume Faroult Sarah Monks Martin Myrone Kathleen Nicholson Philippa Simpson and Ian Warrell
