The History And Sociology Of Genocide Analyses And Case Studies:

The History and Sociology of Genocide Frank Robert Chalk, Kurt Jonassohn, Montreal Institute for Genocide Studies, 1990
Genocide is not an invention of the twentieth century in this absorbing book but has occurred throughout history in all parts of the world This study the first comprehensive survey of the history and sociology of genocide presents over two dozen examples of the one sided mass slaughter of peoples spanning the centuries from antiquity to the present The History and Sociology of Genocide Frank Robert Chalk, Kurt Jonassohn, Montreal Institute for Genocide Studies, 1990-01-01
Genocide is not an invention of the twentieth century in this absorbing book but has occurred throughout history in all parts of the world This study the first comprehensive survey of the history and sociology of genocide presents over two dozen examples of the one sided mass slaughter of peoples spanning the centuries from antiquity to the present The History and Sociology of Genocide ,2000 Genocide Graham Charles Kinloch, Raj P. Mohan, 2005 Twenty authors analyze factors behind genocidal situations worldwide with detailed case studies and an evaluation of attempts to prevent genocide and of the implications for human rights policies with a particular concern to develop new and practical insights Provided by publisher Atrocity Labelling Markus P. Beham, 2022-11-03 Atrocity Genocide War crime Crime Against Humanity Such atrocity labels have been popularized among international lawmakers but with little insight offered into how and when these terms are applied and to what effect What constitutes an event to be termed a genocide or war crime and what role does this play in the application of legal proceedings Markus P Beham through an interdisciplinary and comparative approach unpicks these terms to uncover their historical genesis and their implications for international criminal law initiatives concerned with atrocity The book uniquely compares four specific case studies Belgian colonial exploitation of the Congo atrocities committed against the Herero and Nama in German South West Africa the Armenian genocide and the man made Ukrainian famine of the 1930s Encompassing international law legal history and discourse analysis the concept of atrocity labelling is used to capture the meaning underlying the work of international lawyers and prosecutors historians and sociologists agenda setters and policy makers Genocide Adam Jones, 2006 Recent events in the former Yugoslavia Rwanda East Timor and Iraq have demonstrated with appalling clarity that the threat of genocide is still a major issue within world politics The Politics of Mass Violence in the Middle East Laura Robson, 2020-09-17 The Middle East today is characterized by an astonishingly bloody civil war in Syria an ever more highly racialized and militarized approach to the concept of a Jewish state in Israel and the Palestinian territories an Iraqi state paralyzed by the emergence of class and region inflected sectarian identifications a Lebanon teetering on the edge of collapse from the pressures of its huge numbers of refugees and its sect bound political system and the rise of a wide variety of Islamist paramilitary organizations seeking to operate outside all these states The region s emergence as a zone of violence characterized by a viciously dystopian politics of identity is a relatively recent phenomenon developing only over the past century but despite these shallow historical roots the mass violence and dispossession now characterizing Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine and Iraq have emerged as some of the twenty first century s most intractable problems In this study Laura Robson uses a framework of mass violence encompassing the concepts of genocide ethnic cleansing forced migration appropriation of resources mass deportation and forcible denationalization to explain the emergence of a dystopian politics of identity across the Eastern Mediterranean in the modern era and to illuminate the contemporary breakdown of the state from Syria to Iraq to Israel Violence Catherine

Besteman,2002-06 This multi disciplinary anthology explores the topic of violence from a wide variety of perspectives It looks at state violence anti state violence and criminal violence such as armed robbery Routledge Handbook of Ethnic

Conflict Karl Cordell,Stefan Wolff,2010-10-18 A definitive global survey of the interaction of race ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends theoretically grounded rigorous analysis with empirical illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today The contributors to this volume offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a specific place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed the Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain better insights into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegrations of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences and the genocide in Rwanda as well as the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland Macedonia and Aceh By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of its prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses

Reigns of Terror M. Patricia Marchak,2003 She argues that while these variables may be contributing factors states move toward human rights crimes because their governments can no longer sustain a particular social hierarchy Reasons for their paralysis may be economic environmental demographic or purely political In an attempt to re establish the former status quo they turn against groups low on the hierarchical scale some of which may be defined in ethnic terms If governments come into power as revolutionary forces they may commit such crimes in order to establish a new social hierarchy Other necessary but insufficient conditions for state crimes include the military capacity for committing mass murder the creation of ideology that justifies such action and the failure of independent institutions such as the mass media and universities to counter ideological and military forces
