Swigart,2002 Valley Forge is a name that resonates in the minds of many Americans As the site of the 1777 1778 encampment of the Continental army during the Revolutionary War it has come to symbolize determination and triumph While many people know something revolutionary happened in Valley Forge they do not understand how or why it became a place of remembrance today Using the rich historical collections of the National Center for the American Revolution and Valley Forge Historical Society Valley Forge shares the early twentieth century history of the area through nearly two hundred images the majority of which are published for the first time Valley Forge offers a variety of historical views and background into the site that became Pennsylvania s first state park Highlights include Washington s Headquarters and the patriotic and inspiring Washington Memorial Chapel as well as Revolutionary War artifacts that have found a home in Valley Forge Thousands of books exist on the history of the American War for Independence but few describe the events and people who have struggled to preserve that story of independence for people everywhere as Valley Forge does The History of Valley Forge (Classic Reprint) Henry Woodman,2015-07-01 Excerpt from The History of Valley Forge A large portrait of a plain unassuming man was hanging on the wall of the old Camp School house in Valley Forge park when John U Francis Sr publisher of this history took charge Father was born in Lower Providence township just across the Schuylkill river from the Cradle of American Liberty His great grandfather Captain Arnold Francis had commanded the Providence militia and had rendered conspicuous service under Washington at Valley Forge In the family Valley Forge was sacred ground and to the name of Washington was rendered a homage hardly due to mortal man In keeping with the suffering endured a resentment toward British arrogance was developed which even to day causes the eye to Hash at the slightest semblance of the thing on our national horizon A patriotism purer than father s we have never met To tell the story of Valley Forge than whom no man knows it better and to provide for visitors to the park suitable souvenirs has been to him a labor of love The publication of this history is a becoming climax of his labors But year after year the portrait continued to hang on the wall When at times we visited the Park and inquired Whose is that portrait practically no light could be given It was sent down from Headquarters Some one knew better than father In the summer of 1919 a group of visitors entered the School house One of the ladies pointed to the portrait and said That is a portrait of my grandfather Henry Woodman He wrote the first history of Valley Forge The lady was Mrs Alice Woodman Smith of Wycombe Bucks county Pa She promised a letter giving particulars and in due time one was received Miss Mary S daughter of Henry Woodman a lady now of some eighty summers was the embodiment of the first commandment with promise She had had a small portrait of her father enlarged and had sent it to the Headquarters at Valley Forge As already stated from there it was sent down to the old Camp School house About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
