The Holland Park Circle:

The Holland Park Circle Caroline Dakers, 1999-01-01 This book the first major study of the Holland Park Circle of artists architects and their patrons is both an engrossing narrative of their lives works and influence and a perceptive analysis of the subtle relationships between high Victorian taste and mercantile values BOOK JACKET Artists at Home Caroline

Dakers, Leighton House (London, England), 1999 Exhibition focusses on the Holland Park area of London which became home to the artists George Frederick Watts and Frederic Leighton as well as to lesser known artists such as Marcus Stone Luke Fildes Colin Hunter William Burges Albert Moore Valentine Prinsep and Hamo Thornycroft Place and the Scene of

Literary Practice Angharad Saunders, 2017-07-28 The act of writing is intimately bound up with the flow and eddy of a writer's being within the world the everyday practices encounters and networks of social life Exploring the geographies of literary practice in the period 1840-1910 this book takes as its focus the work or craft of authorship exploring novels not as objects awaiting interpretation but as spatial processes of making meaning As such it is interested in literary creation not only as something that takes place the situated nature of putting pen to paper but simultaneously as a process that escapes such placing Arguing that writing is a process of longue durée the book explores the influence of family and friends in the creative process it draws attention to the role that travel and movement play in writing and it explores the wider commitments of authorial life not as indicators of intertextuality but as part of the creative process In taking this seventy year period as its focus this book moves beyond the traditional periodisations that have characterised literary studies such as the Victorian or Edwardian novel the nineteenth century or early twentieth century novel or Romanticism social realism and modernism It argues that the literary environment was not one of watershed moments there were continuities between writers separated by several decades or writing in different centuries At the same time it draws attention to a seventy year period in which the value of literary work and culture were being contested and transformed Place and the Scene of Literary Practice will be key reading for those working in Human Geography particularly Cultural and Historical Geography Literary Studies and Literary History Private Collectors of Islamic Art in Late Nineteenth-Century London Isabelle

Gadoin, 2021-09-09 This book examines British collectors of so called Persian art a broad umbrella term then covering a large portion of Islamic art in the late 19th century including ceramics metalwork carpets textiles and woodwork Based on a foundational event the very first exhibition of Persian and Arab Art held by a London Gentlemen's Club in 1885 this book follows one generation of men retracing the subtle shades of difference among amateurs connoisseurs experts and collectors and exploring all the mechanisms of the construction of a collective fascination for the Orient Isabelle Gadoin uncovers some of the first scientific analyses of Islamic objects and of the first private notebooks or exhibition catalogues to provide an in depth study of the way Westerners talked about Islamic objects and began to define what would become Islamic art history All the while Gadoin unravels the skein of Western prejudice Romantic fancy sincere admiration and ruthless appropriation in art collecting to write a new chapter of Orientalist history The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of collecting colonialism and postcolonialism and Orientalism The World in Paint David Peters Corbett, 2004 This anonymous manuscript play has long been the subject of scholarly dispute regarding its relationship with Shakespeare's Richard II This edition which thoroughly re-examines the text situates the play within its historical and political context relating it to the genre of chronicle drama to which it belongs The manuscript is of particular interest in that it appears to have been used in the playhouse over a considerable period of time and contains what seems to be evidence of the theatre practice of the time The play is also of special interest for its skilful and original handling of source material which may well have influenced Shakespeare's Richard II The extensive appendices drawn from Holinshed Grafton and Stow provide the reader with the opportunity to investigate the manner in which the dramatist has shaped the material The editors argue for the play's stage worthiness and dramatic complexity suggesting that its range both of dramatic tone and social inclusiveness indicate the work of a dramatist of considerable skill and subtlety equal or superior to the Shakespeare of the Henry VI plays

Colin Hunter and the Holland Park Set Godfrey Bell, 2018 Published 150 years following Hunter's first success at the Royal Academy Colin Hunter 1841-1904 was a hugely successful Scottish Victorian artist who exhibited nearly one hundred works in the Royal Academy over thirty-five years He lived at 14 Melbury Road Kensington in the heart of the Holland Park Circle of famous artists including Lord Leighton G F Watts and Sir Luke Fildes among others most of whom were both Hunter's friends and neighbours Born in Glasgow and then growing up in Helensburgh Hunter honed his craft painting landscapes in natural settings on the west coast and islands of Scotland and is best known for his seascapes Painting largely with oil and occasionally watercolours he was also an accomplished etcher In the hundred or so years since Hunter's death he has undeservedly gradually faded into relative obscurity This book is not just a biography of the artist it is also the most comprehensive catalogue of his works to date Whistler Daniel E. Sutherland, 2014-03-04 A biography of James McNeill Whistler 1834-1903 that dispels the popular notion of Whistler as merely a combative eccentric and unrelenting publicity seeker a man as renowned for his public feuds with Oscar Wilde and John Ruskin as for the iconic portrait of his mother

The Making of Women Artists in Victorian England Jo Devereux, 2016-08-02 When women were admitted to the Royal Academy Schools in 1860 female art students gained a foothold in the most conservative art institution in England The Royal Female College of Art the South Kensington Schools and the Slade School of Fine Art also produced increasing numbers of women artists Their entry into a male-dominated art world altered the perspective of other artists and the public They came from disparate levels of society Princess Louise the fourth daughter of Queen Victoria studied sculpture at the National Art Training School yet they all shared ambition talent and courage Analyzing their education and careers this book argues that the women who attended the art schools during the 1860s and 1870s including Kate Greenaway Elizabeth Butler Helen Allingham Evelyn De Morgan and Henrietta Rae produced work that would accommodate yet subtly challenge the orthodoxies of the fine art establishment Without their contributions Victorian art would be not simply the poorer but hardly recognizable to us today Victorian Artists and Their World 1844-1861 Katie J. T. Herrington, 2024 The Boyce Papers give readers a rare insight into the milieu of the artists of the mid Victorian period Walk Through History Christopher Winn, 2018-03-01 What is this life if full of care We have no time to stand and stare W H Davies Walking around London is one of life s great pleasures There is a huge amount that you can only see on foot but sometimes it is hard to know where to look Luckily Christopher Winn bestselling author of I Never Knew That About London knows where all the hidden treasures are This book takes the reader on a series of stimulating original walks through different areas of central London focusing on one particular period of history the Victorian so ubiquitous that we take it for granted and yet so astonishing and so far reaching in its variety imagination ambition and detail Discover the remarkable 300 foot bell tower at the Houses of Parliament you never knew was there the extraordinary fairytale house in Kensington where the Mikado was inspired the best Victorian loos in the world near Old Street a hidden chapel in Bloomsbury described by Oscar Wilde as the most delightful private chapel in London London s best preserved high class Victorian shop near Tottenham Court Road an almost complete Victorian townscape boasting the world s oldest surviving mansion block Walk through history and discover the hidden gems of Victorian London
