Victor M. Corman

The Hollywood Tycoons:

The Movie Moguls Philip French, 1971 In the early 1890s the cinema was a peepshow novelty in penny arcades Thirty years later it was America's fourth largest industry with its production center in Hollywood This vast new business was dominated by eight major corporations which not only made the movies but distributed and exhibited them in their own chains of movie theaters across the nation and around the globe And these films helped shape the tastes and behavior of several generations the world over For the most part movie companies were created by European immigrants who arrived penniless in the United States during the last two decades of the nineteenth century men such as Louis B Mayer Samuel Goldwyn Adolph Zukor William Fox the Warner Brothers The Movie Moguls looks at the backgrounds characters and careers of these extraordinary men From dust jacket The Hollywood Tycoons. (1. Publ.) - London: Hamilton (1969). 354 S., 12 Bl. Abb. 8° Norman Zierold, 1969 The Hollywood Tycoons Norman J. Zierold, 1969 The Men Who Made Hollywood Michael Freedland, 2009 First or second generation Jewish immigrants who had often worked their way up from poor backgrounds the Hollywood Moguls were remarkable entrepreneurs the likes of whom will probably never be seen again Sam Goldwyn Jack and Harry Warner Louis B Mayer Harry Cohn and Zukor and Lasky ruled the movie empires in the golden age of Hollywood These Tinseltown gods liked to be seen at race meetings as proof of their social standing were loyal to their wives but made good use of the casting couch were Jewish but more American than apple pie and the stories of their rise to the top are as fascinating as they are entertaining When Harry Cohn iron dictator of Columbia Pictures died a rabbi was asked if there was anything good that could be said of him Sure he replied he's dead Louis B Mayer of MGM fame regarded himself as head of a big family if one of his children was out of line his solution was to punch them in the jaw Jack Warner had a determination that the studio bearing his name should produce quality products Brother Harry looked upon things differently I don't want it good he once said I want it Tuesday This is a fascinating look at the men who really did make Hollywood and in doing so created the first and arguably most important art form of the 20th century Based on interviews with family members actors producers and directors this is a frank and detailed portrayal of the extraordinary lives of these powerbrokers from their backgrounds and motivations to their love lives and quarrels City of Dreams Bernard F. Dick, 2021-11-09 Horror films Deanna Durbin musicals Francis the talking mule Ma and Pa Kettle Ross Hunter weepies Theme parks E T 1982 Apollo 13 1995 These are only a few of the many faces of Universal Pictures In February 1906 Carl Laemmle German immigrant and former clothing store manager opened his first nickelodeon in Chicago where he quickly moved from exhibition to distribution and then to film production A master of publicity and promotions within ten years Uncle Carl had moved his entire operation to Southern California founded a city and established Universal Pictures as one of the major Hollywood studios In City of Dreams Bernard F. Dick traces the history of Universal Pictures from its humble early origins to the modern day and analyzes the studio's films from horror flicks featuring Karloff and Lugosi to comedies starring

Abbott and Costello and W C Fields Dick details how the Laemmle family was eventually forced out of the Universal empire replaced by a string of studio heads who entered and exited one after another the beginning of the age of corporate Hollywood which transformed Universal Pictures into NBCUniversal a subsidiary of Comcast Dick explains how the Universal International merger in 1946 Decca's stock takeover in the early 1950s and MCA's buyout in 1962 all presaged today's Hollywood where the art of the deal often eclipses the art of making movies Ultimately although stars and executives have come and gone shaping and reshaping the studio's image Universal's revolving globe logo has lit up screens around the world through it all

Southern California Carey McWilliams, 1973 Provides an overview of Southern California discussing the history of the region seasons Native Americans missions folklore culture Hollywood politics and more Rebirth: Entertainment Tycoon Er YueHongFeng, 2020-08-19 A young man with an overflowing talent was a person who didn't want to encounter talent Once he was transported to another world he relied on the memories of his previous life to flourish in the entertainment circle as all sorts of beauties swarmed in

Movies and Methods Bill Nichols, 1976 VOLUME 2 Movies and Methods Volume II captures the developments that have given history and genre studies imaginative new models and indicates how feminist structuralist and psychoanalytic approaches to film have achieved fresh valuable insights In his thoughtful introduction Nichols provides a context for the paradoxes that confront film studies today He shows how shared methods and approaches continue to stimulate much of the best writing about film points to common problems most critics and theorists have tried to resolve and describes the internal contradictions that have restricted the usefulness of post structuralism Mini introductions place each essay in a larger context and suggest its linkages with other essays in the volume A great variety of approaches and methods characterize film writing today and the final part conveys their diversity from statistical style analysis to phenomenology and from gay criticisms to neoformalism This concluding part also shows how the rigorous use of a broad range of approaches has helped remove post structuralist criticism from its position of dominance through most of the seventies and early eighties Publisher description
