Introduction

Foundational to the Christian faith is the belief that God is actively involved with His creation, and this particular belief tends to affect the way people interact with others within a chosen profession or career. However, human beings descend from Adam and Eve; they still bear the resemblance of God and are, therefore, still His masterpiece (Townes 32). Yes, some may believe that God's Spirit is long gone given the various sufferings and crime that is being experienced in today's world.

But it is important for people to remember and continue believing that God has not at all abandoned His creation and that He is still constantly providing for it through His grace (Elwell 51). The Scriptures tend to take up a most important part in God's dealing with human beings, and it is, therefore, not surprising to learn that more often than not, people have replaced the role of the Holy Spirit with that of the Scripture (Townes 33).

Discussion

The belief that God is still quite active in terms of His creation usually affects the way individuals relate with others within a chosen vocation. One text from the Scripture that illustrates God's involvement with man in this day and age is 2 Timothy 3:16 – 17, reminding us that Scripture is there to change us for the better, reproof us and instruct us in the right direction so that man can be found perfect through all good works (Robinson 101).

Science has, for many years, revealed that people would eventually destroy the Earth by global warming, an issue that is being experienced today. Colossians 1:17 reminds us that God holds all things together, and therefore, man cannot destroy what is held together by Him (Townes 35).

God is in control of all natural processes which include rain, snow, ice, thunder and lightning, and so forth, where His acts of preservation apply to all individuals, whether good or bad. The Bible also makes it quite clear that the Spirit of God is actively residing

World Today Bing Goodman, 2025-03-18 Truth in Our World Today addresses the need to find truth which is becoming more obscured and diluted in woke circles that are widening and influencing adults teens and even unsuspecting children today This book addresses how to find and recognize truth from error It reveals and outlines tactics used by those who oppose truth as they promote destructive agendas This book puts side by side the agendas and dogmas opposing truth contrasting them with unchangeable truths in a way that clear choices can easily be seen These comparisons made without emotional conflict show points on both sides directly and clearly Truth is not often given voice or stage and is often shouted down today Here truth is given voice and perspective which is so hard to find It is my hope that truth becomes easier to discern so it can be readily chosen and can bring true joy into the life of the reader Acting upon unchanging eternal truths taught by Jesus Christ is the way to find happiness and true joy in life The Holy Spirit Today Dick Iverson, 1990-12 The Holy Spirit Today

Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, 1995-08-21 Jürgen Moltmann formulates necessary questions about the significance of Jesus the Christ for persons today. He offers a compelling portrait of the earthly Jesus as the divine brother in our distress and suffering and points to the risen Christ as the warrant for the future in which God will restore everything and gather everything into his kingdom. Urging that acknowledgment of Christ and discipleship are two sides of the same coin, Moltmann contends that the question of Jesus Christ for today is not just an intellectual one. Moltmann takes fresh approaches to a number of crucial topics: Jesus and the kingdom of God, the passion of Christ and the pain of God, Jesus as brother of the tortured and the resurrection of Christ as hope for the world, the cosmic Christ, Jesus in Jewish-Christian dialogue, the future of God and others.
