Anders,1999-01-01 In this first full length study of male homosexuality in Cather s short stories and novels John P Anders examines patterns of male friendship ranging on a continuum from the social to the sexual He reveals how Cather s work assumes an unexpected depth and complexity by drawing on both the familiar tradition of friendship literature inspired by classical and Christian texts and a homosexual legacy that is part of yet distinct from established literary traditions Anders argues that Cather s artistic achievement is distinguished by her sexual aesthetics an elusive literary style inextricably associated with homosexuality His analysis demonstrates how a homosexual ethos and eros helped Cather develop a sensitivity to human variation and a style to accommodate it and thus became the objective correlative of her art dramatizing the diversity of human nature as it deepens the mystery of her work The Poetics of Otherness and Transition in Naomi Alderman's Fiction José M. Yebra,2020-01-28 This is the first book on Naomi Alderman s literary production and highlights the writer s transcultural recasting of British and Jewish traditions The four novels analysed here prove to be relevant not only from a literary viewpoint but also from the fields of ethics spirituality and politics The analysis thus focuses on issues such as alterity and respect towards the other in a globalized context As such the book will be of interest to literary critics researchers and students in the fields of literature ethics and social and cultural studies The reader will find in the text a comprehensive approach to a young writer who undoubtedly deserves attention given her interrogation of varied and socially relevant topics including gender and sexual orientation in the early twenty first century the rewriting of the Sacred Scriptures and the discourse of feminist posthuman dystopias A History of Gay Literature Gregory Woods,1998-01-01 Account of male gay literature across cultures and languages and from ancient times to the present It traces writing by and about homosexual men from ancient Greece and Rome through the Middle Ages and Renaissance to the twentieth century gay literary explosion It includes writers of wide ranging literary status from high cultural icons like Virgil Dante Marlowe Shakespeare and Proust to popular novelists like Clive Barker and Dashiell Hammett and of various locations from Mishima s Tokyo and Abu Nuwas s Baghdad to David Leavitt s New York It also deals with representations of male male love by writers who were not themselves homosexual or bisexual men
