The House Of Hunger A Novella Short Stories:

African Short Stories Chinua Achebe, Catherine Lynette Innes, 1987 A collection of stories by African writers which deal with life and customs in African society They Called You Dambudzo Flora Veit-Wild, 2022 Compelling memoir of Flora Veit Wild and her relationship with the Zimbabwean novelist poet playwright and essayist Dambudzo Marechera one of Africa's most innovative and subversive writers and a significant voice in contemporary world literature How shall I tell our story I hear your voice ringing in mine I struggle to disentangle a dense tapestry of memories One thread will be caught up in another Early images will embrace later ones My gaze will often be filtered through your eyes your poems In the end I will not always be able to tell the original from the reflection Just as you wrote Time's fingers on the piano play emotion into motion the dancers in the looking glass never recognise us as their originals This book is a memoir with a double heartbeat At its centre is the author's relationship with the late Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera whose award-winning book The House of Hunger marked him as a powerful disruptive perhaps prophetic voice in African literature Flora Veit Wild is internationally recognised for her significant contribution to preserving Marechera's legacy What is less known about Marechera and Veit Wild is that they had an intense personal and sexual relationship This memoir explores this the couple's first encounter in 1983 amidst the euphoria of the newly independent Zimbabwe the tumultuous months when the homeless writer moved in with his lover and her family the bouts of creativity once he had his own flat followed by feelings of abandonment the increasing despair about a love affair that could not stand up against reality and the illness of the writer and his death of HIV-related pneumonia in August 1987 What follows are the struggles Flora went through once Dambudzo had died On the one hand she became the custodian of his life and work on the other she had to live with her own HIV infection and the ensuing threats to her health Jacana Southern Africa House of Hunger Dambudzo Marechera, 1978 Joint winner of The Guardian Fiction Prize this book is a collection of stories about growing up in Rhodesia The Postcolonial Condition of Names and Naming Practices in Southern Africa Tendai Mangena, Oliver Nyambi, Charles Pfukwa, 2016-08-17 The Postcolonial Condition of Names and Naming Practices in Southern Africa represents a milestone in southern African onomastic studies The contributors here are all members of and speakers of the cultures and languages they write about and together they speak with an authentic African voice on naming issues in the southern part of the African continent The volume's overarching thesis is that names are important yet often underestimated socio-political cultural sites on which some of the most significant events and processes in the post-colony can be read The onomastic topics covered in the book range from the names of traditional healers and male aphrodisiacs to urban landscapes and street naming from the interface between Chinese and African naming practices to the names of bands of musicians and mini bus taxis There is a strong section on literary onomastics which explores how names have been variously deployed by southern African fiction writers for certain semantic aesthetic and ideological effects The cultures and languages covered in this volume are equally wide ranging and while some authors focus on single languages and cultures for example Thembu Xhosa Shona others look at inter cultural influences such as the influence of the Portuguese and Chinese languages on Shona naming Written by Professor Adrian Koopman Emeritus Professor University of KwaZulu Natal Mugabe Stephen Chan,2019-04-18 On 21st November 2017 Robert Mugabe resigned as President of Zimbabwe after 37 years in power A week earlier the military had seized control of the country and forced him to step down as leader of the ruling Zanu PF party In this revised and updated edition of his classic biography Stephen Chan seeks to explain and interpret Mugabe in his role as a key player in the politics of Southern Africa In this masterly portrait of one of Africa s longest serving leaders Mugabe s character unfolds with the ebb and flow of triumph and crisis Mugabe s story is Zimbabwe s from the post independence hopes of idealism and reconciliation to electoral victory the successful intervention in the international politics of Southern Africa and the resistance to South Africa s policy of apartheid But a darker picture emerged early with the savage crushing of the Matabeleland rising the elimination of political opponents growing corruption and disastrous intervention in the Congo war all worsened by drought and the HIV AIDS crisis Stephen Chan s highly revealing biography based on close personal knowledge of Zimbabwe depicts the emergence and eventual downfall of a ruthless and single minded despot amassing and tightly clinging to political power We follow the triumphant nationalist leader who reconciled all in the new multiracial Zimbabwe degenerate into a petty tyrant consumed by hubris and self righteousness and ultimately face an ignominious endgame at the hands of his own army Robert Mugabe Stephen Chan,2003 An informed insightful biography of Zimbabwe s first and only president which tells of his fateful path from revolutionary patriot to ruthless dictator The House of Hunger Dambudzo Marechera,2022-04-28 Dambudzo Marechera burst onto the English literary scene with a bang in 1978 with this vivid roar of a book exploring township life in pre independence Zimbabwe Irreverent and uncompromising Dambudzo Marechera rejected what he saw as the narrow stereotypes of African literature and was a fearless critic of his country The narrator expresses his desperate alienation from his family from his student friends from township life and from Zimbabwe itself This novella and the other short stories here portray an explosive world that flashes with both violence and humour Reading Marechera Grant Hamilton,2013 Variously understood as literary genius and enfant terrible of African literature Dambudzo Marechera s work as novelist poet playwright and essayist is discussed here in relation to other free thinking writers Considered one of Africa s most innovative and subversive writers the Zimbabwean novelist poet playwright and essayist Dambudzo Marechera is read today as a significant voice in contemporary world literature Marechera wrote ceaselessly against the status quo against unqualified ideas against expectation He was an intellectual outsider who found comfort only in the company of other free thinking writers Shelley Bakhtin Apuleius Fanon Dostoyevsky Tutuola It is this universe of literary thought that one can see written into the fiction of Marechera that this collection of essays sets out to interrogate In this important and timely contribution to African literary studies Grant Hamilton has gathered together essays of world renowned established and young academics from Africa Europe Asia and Australia in order to discuss the important literary and philosophical influences that course through Marechera s prose poetry and drama From classical allusion to the political philosophy of anarchism this collection of new research on Marechera s work makes clear the extraordinary breadth and quality of thought that Marechera brought to his writing Grant Hamilton is Assistant Professor of English Literature at the Chinese University of Hong Kong He is the author of On Representation Deleuze and Coetzee on the Colonized Subject Rodopi 2011 as well as a number of articles on contemporary African postcolonial and world literatures He is currently working on his second book Deleuze and African Literature

Eliot,2021-11-18 The essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world For six decades the Penguin Modern Classics series has been an era defining ever evolving series of books encompassing works by modernist pioneers avant garde iconoclasts radical visionaries and timeless storytellers This reader s companion showcases every title published in the series so far with more than 1 800 books and 600 authors from Achebe and Adonis to Zamyatin and Zweig It is the essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world and the companion volume to The Penguin Classics Book Bursting with lively descriptions surprising reading lists key literary movements and over two thousand cover images The Penguin Modern Classics Book is an invitation to dive in and explore the greatest literature of the last hundred years

The Zimbabwean Maverick Shun Man Emily CHOW-QUESADA,2022-10-26 This book seeks to unfold the complexity within the works of Dambudzo Marechera and presents scholars and readers with a way of reading his works in light of utopian thinking Writing during a traumatic transitional period in Zimbabwe s history Marechera witnessed the upheavals caused by different parties battling for power in the nation Aware of the fact that all institutionalized narratives whether they originated from the colonial governance of the UK Ian Smith s white minority regime or Zimbabwe s revolutionary parties appeal to visions of a utopian society but reveal themselves to be fiction Marechera imagined a unique utopia For Marechera utopia is not a static entity but a moment of perpetual change He rethinks utopia by phrasing it as an ongoing event that ceaselessly contests institutionalized narratives of the postcolonial self and its relationship to society Marechera writes towards a vision of an alternative future for the country Yet it is a vision that does not constitute a fully rounded sense of utopia Being cautious about the world and the operation of power upon the people rather than imposing his own utopian ideals Marechera chooses instead to destabilize the narrative constitution of the self in relation to society in order to turn towards a truly radical utopian thinking that empowers the individual
