for children Rethinking Society in the 21st Century, Fourth Edition Kate Bezanson, Michelle Webber, 2016-09-01

Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is a critical collection of readings that provides students with a foundational knowledge base in sociology. The fourth edition has been thoroughly updated to include significant Canadian content with a greater focus on indigeneity, gender and sexuality and a new section dedicated to social movements, social change and emerging fields. This anthology introduces students to the fundamental elements of sociology with a balance of classical theory: Marx, Weber, Durkheim, Mills and more contemporary approaches found in the works of Michel Foucault and Dorothy Smith. Building on this theoretical grounding, the text outlines core concepts in sociology as well as major social institutions such as families, the economy and labour, education, health care and media. Covering a wide breadth of topics including chapters on animals, the environment, crime, trans issues, class, ethnicity and race, this new edition explores critical debates in Canadian society with an emphasis on intersectional approaches to social inequalities. This volume is rich with pedagogical features that promote critical understanding, including detailed introductions that speak to the contextual history of the source material and discussion questions for each section. Uniquely designed for introductory courses, Rethinking Society in the 21st Century is the ideal reader for Canadian students of sociology.

When Grampa was a Mountie Charles Scheideman, 2014-07-01

When Grampa was a Mountie is the third book based on Charlie Scheideman's 27 years of police work in the Interior of BC. The first two, Policing the Fringe and Tragedy on Jackass Mountain, ranked high on the BC bestsellers lists for several months after their release. This book is again a collection of short stories; some are funny, some gruesome and some just tell things the way they were. Some accounts reveal the physical and mental hardships a few RCMP members have suffered for their dedication to duty and their willingness to serve in spite of the obvious danger. Scheideman's goal in all three books has been to portray to later generations small town police life as closely as possible to the way things really were. The longest story, Fred Quilt Frame Up, is about two RCMP constables at Alexis Creek who were falsely accused of beating a First Nations elder to death. The conspiracy to discredit these policemen and the RCMP held tight for years until the key witness's deathbed confession. The original accusations became front page stories internationally. Scheideman's account sets out the facts that have not been public knowledge up to now.

Sisters of My Heart Ann Blaine, 2005-10

Sisters of My Heart explores the deep bond of love that three sisters form after the death of their mother in a horrific car accident. Alexandra is the mother figure to her two sisters, but every girl has a dream. Alex dreams of a career far removed from the cares of raising a family until she meets Tom McNeil. Ruesha dreams of serving a mission for the church, but when the man she loves proposes, can she sacrifice her dream for his? Elizabeth marries the man she has loved since childhood, but her dream turns to ashes when she discovers that he is an abusive alcoholic incapable of committing to her and their family. Three sisters form a tight circle of support and protection, but will it be enough when catastrophe strikes again? Can their faith in God and in each other survive, or will they be torn apart by the fears they must face together?
