The Land of the

White Elephant Frank Vincent,2018-04-14 This is a reprint from 1874 originally published by Harper but still we are compelled to admit that they have far excelled our recent endeavours in many things and notably in the Fine Arts of painting architecture and sculpture We were but just looking upon a most wonderful example of the two latter for in style and beauty of architecture solidity of construction and magnificent and elaborate carving and sculpture the great Nagkon Wat has no superior certainly no rival standing at the present day The first view of the ruins is almost overwhelming One writer says The ruins of Angkor are as imposing as the ruins of Thebes or Memphis and more mysterious and another M Mouhot whose work we have used as a guide book in this distant part of Siam thinks that one of these temples Nagkon Wat a rival to that of Solomon and erected by some ancient Michael Angelo mighttake an honourable place beside our most beautiful buildings It is grander than anything left to us by Greece or Rome At a first sight one is most impressed with the magnitude minute detail high finish and elegant proportions of this temple and then to the bewildered beholder arise mysterious after thoughts who built it when was it built and where now are its builders But it is doubtful if these questions will ever be answered There exist no credible traditions all is absurd fable or legend
