The Ladder Of Lives:

Cosmic Code of Life C.A. Ninan, 2015-02-12 This book relates DNA and the genetic code to consciousness as the universal principle of life. This is done through perception of seven pattern germs from DNA which are girdled into an archetypal model called the tree of life. The symbols of the tree model are logically related to the self, spirit, soul, psyche, and body. How this new approach helps to understand the phenomenon of life in its integrated wholeness and cosmic totality is explained in this book. It heralds the dawn of a new science of life which translates the innate mysticism of religions into the language of science. It provides novel keys to consciousness and creativity in relation to the transcendental horizon of the human being and the spiritual growth of humanity at large.

The Ladder of Life Stuart Symington, 2021 The Fellowship of Life Joseph Woodill, 1998 This book fills a vacuum in our understanding of the Eastern Church by revealing themes, persons, and insights that offer resources for a contemporary moral theology. Reviewing the Eastern tradition from patristic times to the present, Woodill shows its relevance to contemporary virtue ethics and identifies both differences and similarities between Orthodox and other Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish virtue ethics. Woodill's study centers on the fundamental elements of classical Greek ethics: telos, practice, virtue, community, narrative, and mentoring. He analyzes the ancient Greek fathers and the writings of modern Orthodox ethicists Stanley Harakas, Vigen Guroian, and Christos Yannaras to show how those elements relate to the process of Christian transformation. He then demonstrates how the movement from creation to redemption contains an implicit virtue ethic.

Life-Study of Genesis Witness Lee, 1987-12-01 In the Lord's recovery during the past five hundred years, the church's knowledge of the Lord and His truth has been continually progressing. This monumental and classical work by Brother Witness Lee builds upon and is a further development of all that the Lord has revealed to His church in the past centuries. It is filled with the revelation concerning the processed Triune God, the living Christ, the life-giving Spirit, the experience of life, and the definition and practice of the church. In this set, Brother Lee has kept three basic principles that should rule and govern every believer in their interpretation, development, and expounding of the truths contained in the Scriptures. The first principle is that of the Triune God dispensing Himself into His chosen and redeemed people; the second principle is that we should interpret, develop, and expound the truths contained in the Bible with Christ for the church; and the third governing principle is Christ, the Spirit, life, and the church. No other study or exposition of the New Testament conveys the life, nourishment, or ushers the reader into the divine revelation of God's holy Word according to His New Testament economy as this one does.

Living in the House of God Margaret Malone, 2014-11-21 How should we live in this house of God? We know that the way a building is shaped also helps in determining the way those within it live and relate. We are indeed formed by what we form. Qualities such as integrity, hospitality, humanity, and beauty in a place will enable its dwellers to live lives in which such qualities are evident. The way we understand who we are and how we live will be reflected in our places, and vice versa. Our places become bearers of meaning.

and memory From Chapter 1 In Living in the House of God Margaret Malone draws on her study of and research on the Rule of Saint Benedict to show the ways in which this ancient rule can illuminate modern life The broad gamut of topics this book examines from Benedictine life as sacrament to Augustine's influence on Benedict to obedience and the art of listening among others is itself a witness to the generous flexibility of the Rule as Benedict proposes a way of life that truly corresponds to the deepest needs of the whole of human nature The Philosophy of Church Life Richard Tudor, 1887
