The Ladder Of Memory:

The Medieval Craft of Memory Mary Carruthers, Jan M. Ziolkowski, 2016-01-22 In antiquity and the Middle Ages memory was a craft and certain actions and tools were thought to be necessary for its creation and recollection Until now however many of the most important visual and textual sources on the topic have remained untranslated or otherwise difficult to consult Mary Carruthers and Jan M Ziolkowski bring together the texts and visual images from the twelfth through the fifteenth centuries that are central to an understanding of memory and memory technique These sources are now made available for a wider audience of students of medieval and early modern history and culture and readers with an interest in memory mnemonics and the synergy of text and image The art of memory was most importantly associated in the Middle Ages with composition and those who practiced the craft used it to make new prayers sermons pictures and music The mixing of visual and verbal media was commonplace throughout medieval cultures pictures contained visual puns words were often verbal paintings and both were used equally as tools for making thoughts The ability to create pictures in one's own mind was essential to medieval cognitive technique and imagination and the intensely pictorial and affective qualities of medieval art and literature were generative creative devices in themselves

Through The Mist Of Memory Francita Brown Gasche, 2023-02-16 All the numinous events hidden safely from ridicule criticism and disbelief bubbled up from deep in my heart when my childhood friend died in 1985 The voices visions sighting and apparitions throughout my life clamored acknowledgement Gossamer threads anchored to my life fabric at various points in my life told vignettes of mysteries about which I wondered After he started school he changed from a happy little boy to one depressed and afraid Though I asked he would not tell me what happened only snippets plus a warning to me before I started school He was particularly afraid to go to the outhouse alone because of a phantom We had appendectomies within a week in 1947 and spent five days in the hospital together He was in the children s ward and I in the women s ward The epiphany after Johnny s death was the most wonderful and horrendous event of my life It answered questions for which I needed answers plus information I did not contemplate When his spirit came to me explained and verified his words and actions in childhood it was apparent all I had been a witness to needed to be revealed The mysteries disclosed must be open to others Just as I needed more information some other soul may need the information I can offer This is my purpose
