The Sojourn of a Sceptic in the Land of Darkness and Uncertainty ... Being the History of the Rise and Progress, Or The First Impressions and Final Development of Divine Truth in the Unbelieving Soul Peter Hately Waddell, 1847 *The Sojourn of a Sceptic in the Land of Darkness and Uncertainty: Being the History of the Rise and Progress of Divine Truth in the Unbelieving Soul. Peter Hately WADDELL (the Elder.), 1847 Ibn Fadlan and the Land of Darkness Ibn Fadlan, 2012-07-26 In 922 AD an Arab envoy from Baghdad named Ibn Fadlan encountered a party of Viking traders on the upper reaches of the Volga River In his subsequent report on his mission he gave a meticulous and astonishingly objective description of Viking customs dress table manners religion and sexual practices as well as the only eyewitness account ever written of a Viking ship cremation Between the ninth and fourteenth centuries Arab travellers such as Ibn Fadlan journeyed widely and frequently into the far north crossing territories that now include Russia Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan Their fascinating accounts describe how the numerous tribes and peoples they encountered traded furs paid tribute and waged wars This accessible new translation offers an illuminating insight into the world of the Arab geographers and the medieval lands of the far north

The Land of Silence and the Land of Darkness Bennett George Johns, 1857 Darkness Falls on the Land of Light Douglas L. Winiarski, 2017-02-09 This sweeping history of popular religion in eighteenth century New England examines the experiences of ordinary people living through extraordinary times Drawing on an unprecedented quantity of letters diaries and testimonies Douglas Winiarski recovers the pervasive and vigorous lay piety of the early eighteenth century George Whitefield's preaching tour of 1740 called into question the fundamental assumptions of this thriving religious culture. Incited by Whitefield and fascinated by miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit, visions, bodily fits, and sudden conversions, countless New Englanders broke ranks with family, neighbors, and ministers who dismissed their religious experiences as delusive enthusiasm. These new converts, the progenitors of today's evangelical movement, bitterly assaulted the Congregational establishment. The 1740s and 1750s were the dark night of the New England soul as men and women groped toward a restructured religious order. Conflict transformed inclusive parishes into exclusive networks of combative spiritual seekers. Then, as now, evangelicalism emboldened ordinary people to question traditional authorities. Their challenge shattered whole communities.

Margaret Oliphant's Curative Gothic Literature Katerina García-Walsh, 2025-11-06. Prolific Scottish novelist Margaret Oliphant (1828-1897) is remembered chiefly for her realist fiction and biting literary criticism of contemporary authors; she also wrote nineteen supernatural tales. This monograph offers a comprehensive exploration of Oliphant's Gothic literature in the light of her religious beliefs, cultural context, and experiences of death and mourning as she survived her husband and all six of her children. Oliphant's stories set in the afterlife depict the dead as inhabiting a new existence characterised by spiritual growth, while her tales set on earth attempt contact between the mortal and immortal planes. García-Walsh illustrates Oliphant's unique theological conception of afterliving, which ultimately seeks to eradicate the divide between the living and their deceased loved ones, reimagining death as a liminal passage towards God and divine self-development. This book thus suggests a new direction for Gothic studies by showing how Oliphant's supernatural fiction provided a means of curative writing, transforming the traumatic reality of death into a source of hope. The volume is suited for students, researchers, and academics in the disciplines of literature and history, particularly the fields of nineteenth-century studies, Victorian studies, and Gothic studies, with an interest in women's writing, theology, and mental health/trauma studies. A
