Language in the News Roger Fowler, 2013-10-08 Newspaper coverage of world events is presented as the unbiased recording of hard facts In an incisive study of both the quality and the popular press Roger Fowler challenges this perception arguing that news is a practice a product of the social and political world on which it reports Writing from the perspective of critical linguistics Fowler examines the crucial role of language in mediating reality Starting with a general account of news values and the processes of selection and transformation which go to make up the news Fowler goes on to consider newspaper representations of gender power authority and law and order He discusses stereotyping terms of abuse and endearment the editorial voice and the formation of consensus Fowler s analysis takes in some of the major news stories of the Thatcher decade the American bombing of Libya in 1986 the salmonella in eggs affair the problems of the National Health Service and the controversy of youth and contraception

News Talk Colleen Cotter, 2010-02-11 Written by a former news reporter and editor News Talk gives us an insider s view of the media showing how journalists select and construct their news stories Colleen Cotter goes behind the scenes revealing how language is chosen and shaped by news staff into the stories we read and hear Tracing news stories from start to finish she shows how the actions of journalists and editors and the limitations of news writing formulas may distort a story that was prepared with the most determined effort to be fair and accurate Using insights from both linguistics and journalism News Talk is a remarkable picture of a hidden world and its working practices on both sides of the Atlantic It will interest those involved in language study media and communication studies and those who want to understand how media shape our language and our view of the world

The News Media C.W. Anderson, Leonard Downie Jr, Michael Schudson, 2016-08-11 The business of journalism has an extensive storied and often romanticized history Newspaper reporting has long shaped the way that we see the world played key roles in exposing scandals and has even been alleged to influence international policy The past several years have seen the newspaper industry in a state of crisis with Twitter and Facebook ushering in the rise of citizen journalism and a deprofessionalization of the industry plummeting readership and revenue and municipal and regional papers shuttering or being absorbed into corporate behemoths Now billionaires most with no journalism experience but lots of power and strong views are stepping in to purchase newspapers both large and small This addition to the What Everyone Needs to Know series looks at the past present and future of journalism considering how the development of the industry has shaped the present and how we can expect the future to roll out It addresses a wide range of questions from whether objectivity was only a conceit of late twentieth century reporting largely behind us now how digital technology has disrupted journalism whether newspapers are already dead to the role of non profit journalism the meaning of transparency in reporting the way that private interests and governments have created their own advocacy journalism whether social media is changing journalism the new social rules of old media outlets how franchised media is addressing the problem of disappearing local papers and the rise of citizen journalism and hacker journalism It will even look at the ways in which new technologies potentially threaten to replace journalists

The News Media In National And International Conflict

Andrew Arno,Wimal Dissanayake,2019-07-11 Ironically as telecommunications technology the embodiment of modernity advances bringing people in different nations into more direct contact during conflict situations traditional cultural factors become increasingly important as differing ways of thinking and acting collide The mass media can be seen as a factor in the creation of international conflict they also claim many scholars are the key to control and resolution of those problems Whichever side of the coin one chooses to look at mass communication as cause or cure of conflict there is no doubt that the news media are no longer peripheral players on the global scene they are important participants whose organizational patterns of behavior values and motivations must be taken into account in understanding national and international conflict In this volume a distinguished group of authors explores the variety of ways the news media newspapers radio and television are involved in conflict situations Conflicts between the United States and Iran India and Pakistan and the United States and China are examined and national level studies in Sri Lanka Iran Hong Kong and the United States provide varied contexts in which the authors look at the complex interrelationships among government news media and the public in conflict situations

The News Media in Puerto Rico Federico Subervi-Vélez,Sandra Rodríguez-Cotto,Jairo Lugo-Ocando,2020-10-27 The News Media in Puerto Rico offers a synopsis as well as a critical analysis of the Island s news media system with emphasis on the political and economic factors that most influence how the media operate The authors also document the impact of Hurricane Maria on the media structures and the changing media landscape given the political economic and colonial strictures Building on interviews with news media professionals the book further presents detailed insights about journalism and journalism education in these times of crises The final chapters include theoretical frameworks and methodological guidelines for the analysis of other colonial post colonial and neo colonial media systems with research recommendations valuable for future studies of the Island s media as well as for cross national comparisons This book will be an essential read for students and scholars interested in learning not only about the Puerto Rican and Latin American mass media but also the media systems of other colonial neo colonial countries Corporate Reputation and the News Media Craig

Carroll,2010-09-01 This volume examines agenda setting theory as it applies to the news media s influence on corporate reputation It presents interdisciplinary international and empirical investigations examining the relationship between corporate reputation and the news media throughout the world Providing coverage of more than twenty five countries contributors write about their local media and business communities representing developed emerging and frontier markets including Argentina Brazil Chile China Germany Greece Japan Nigeria Spain and Turkey among others The chapters present primary and secondary research on various geo political issues the nature of the news media the practice of public relations and the role of public relations agencies in each of the various countries Each chapter is structured to consider two to three hypotheses in the country under discussion including the impact of media visibility on organizational prominence top of mind awareness and brand name recognition the impact of media favorability on the public s organizational images of these firms how media coverage of specific public issues and news topics relates to the associations people form of specific firms Contributors contextualize their findings in light of the geopolitical environment of their home countries the nature of their media systems and the relationship between business and the news media within their countries borders Incorporating scholarship from a broad range of disciplines including advertising strategic management business political communication and sociology this volume has much to offer scholars and students examining business and the news media News, Publics and Politics in Globalising India Sahana Udupa,2015-06-11 The first ethnography to examine the role of urban transformation caste and language in shaping India s contemporary news culture Media Studies: Institutions, theories, and issues Pieter Jacobus Fourie,2001 This outcomes based textbook provides comprehensive information on the makeup of media institutions theories in media studies and critical issues that face the media today With this guide media students learn the history of the media and learn how to keep up with the latest trends and developments in broadcasting printed press and film Outlined is how to develop an internal media policy with company mission statements news and programming policies The relationship of the media to the economy politics and society and how the media represents race gender violence and terrorism are also discussed The Independence of the News Media Loïc Ballarini,2020-10-16 This book explores the different ways Francophone research on news media has faced the challenges of dependence and independence from three complementary perspectives The first is economics how can sustainable business models be developed and to what extent can crowdfunding help to maintain the financial and editorial independence of newsrooms Secondly in a time where the role of journalism in the public sphere is more questioned than ever the authors evaluate to what extent news media can embody the needs of their readers Thirdly the authors consider the historical and political context of publication in the light of the Arab Spring This book deals with major contemporary evolutions of news media bringing together research that considers the media in France Canada and the Arab region notably Tunisia Algeria Morocco and Egypt Using numerous case studies this book helps to define how complex the question of independence is today News Media and the Indigenous Fight for Federal Recognition Cristina Azocar, 2022-04-05 Federal recognition enables tribes to govern themselves and make decisions for their citizens that have the power to retain their cultures But over the last forty years the news media coverage of the federal recognition of tribes has perpetuated ignorance and stereotypes about tribal sovereignty This book examines how past coverage has prioritized gaming over sovereignty and interfered in Tribes ability to be federally recognized Scholars of journalism mass communication media studies and indigenous studies will find this book of particular interest
