The Last Circus The Electrocutation:

The Last Circus ; & The Electrocutation Ray Bradbury,1980 Circus, Science and Technology Anna-Sophie Jürgens,2020-06-22 This book explores the circus as a site in and through which science and technology are represented in popular culture Across eight chapters written by leading scholars from fields as varied as performance and circus studies art media and cultural history and engineering the book discusses to what extent the engineering of circus and performing bodies can be understood as a strategy to promote awe how technological inventions have shaped circus and the cultures it helps constitute and how much of a mutual shaping this is What kind of cultural and aesthetic effects does engineering in circus contexts achieve How do technological inventions and innovations impact on the circus How does the link between circus and technology manifest in representations and interpretations imaginaries of the circus in other media and popular culture Circus Science and Technology examines the ways circus can provide a versatile frame for interpreting our relationship with technology Ray Bradbury Jonathan R. Eller,William F. Touponce,2004 This is a textual bibliographical and cultural study of 60 years of Bradbury s fiction The authors draw upon correspondence with his publishers agents and friends as well as archival manuscripts to examine the story of Bradbury s authorship over more than half a century

Carceral Fantasies Alison Griffiths,2016-08-23 A groundbreaking contribution to the study of nontheatrical film exhibition Carceral Fantasies tells the little known story of how cinema found a home in the U S penitentiary system and how the prison emerged as a setting and narrative trope in modern cinema Focusing on films shown in prisons before 1935 Alison Griffiths explores the unique experience of viewing cinema while incarcerated and the complex cultural roots of cinematic renderings of prison life Griffiths considers a diverse mix of cinematic genres from early actualities and reenactments of notorious executions to reformist expos s of the 1920s She connects an early fascination with cinematic images of punishment and execution especially electrocutions to the attractions of the nineteenth century carnival electrical wonder show and Phantasmagoria a ghost show using magic lantern projections and special effects Griffiths draws upon convict writing prison annual reports and the popular press obsession with prison house cinema to document the integration of film into existing reformist and educational activities and film s psychic extension of flights of fancy undertaken by inmates in their cells Combining penal history with visual and film studies and theories surrounding media s sensual effects Carceral Fantasies illuminates how filmic representations of the penal system enacted ideas about modernity gender the body and the public shaping both the social experience of cinema and the public s understanding of the modern prison Giants of the Genre Michael McCarty,Dean R.
