The Tuner of Silences Mia Couto, 2013-02-01 A RADIO FRANCE CULTURE T L RAMA BEST WORK OF FICTION BY THE WINNER OF THE 2013 CAM ES PRIZE AND THE WINNER OF THE 2014 NEUSTADT PRIZE Quite unlike anything else I have read from Africa Doris Lessing By meshing the richness of African beliefs into the Western framework of the novel he creates a mysterious and surreal epic Henning Mankell Mwanito was eleven when he saw a woman for the first time and the sight so surprised him he burst into tears Mwanito has been living in a former big game park for eight years The only people he knows are his father his brother an uncle and a servant He s been told that the rest of the world is dead that all roads are sad that they wait for an apology from God In the place his father calls Jehoosalem Mwanito has been told that crying and praying are the same thing Both it seems are forbidden The eighth novel by the internationally bestselling Mia Couto The Tuner of Silences is the story of Mwanito s struggle to reconstruct a family history that his father is unable to discuss With the young woman s arrival in Jehoosalem however the silence of the past quickly breaks down and both his father s story and the world are heard once more The Tuner of Silences has been published to acclaim in more than half a dozen countries Now in its first English translation this story of an African boy s quest for the truth endures as a magical humanizing confrontation between one child and the legacy of war

Topography of the Psyche Edmar Camara, 2025-07-09 The Architecture of the Psyche A Treatise on the Engineering of Narrative Before us is not merely a book about writing but a profound and systematic investigation into the architecture of consciousness in narrative form edii Camara s work is in essence a treatise that positions the character s psyche with its tensions valences mutations and fields of action as the irreducible engine of all meaningful fiction In 101 concise and dense chapters the author carries out a veritable dissection of the literary craft offering not just a manual but a philosophical manifesto on how plot character and reader coexist in a dialectical dance of meaning For the student and the academic this work proves to be an extraordinary theoretical and interdisciplinary framework Camara establishes a profound and original dialog between Russian Formalism Shklovsky Propp Existentialism Kierkegaard Sartre Phenomenology Bachelard Reception Theory Iser Sociology Bourdieu and Psychoanalysis Jung applying these concepts in an innovative way to the practice of creation Each chapter functions as a stand alone paper ideal for discussions in Literary Theory Narratology or Comparative Literature seminars The text doesn t

just analyze literature it proposes a method for constructing it making it an invaluable resource for theses and dissertations that seek a bridge between criticism and poetics For the Fictional Writer this book is the most sophisticated conceptual toolbox you could wish for Tired of flat characters and predictable plots Camara offers a system for injecting depth resonance and a sense of inevitability into your narrative Forget the clichés of writing workshops here you'll learn how to master the economy of tension calibrate the valence of a scene and orchestrate the dielike shift that turns a good story into an unforgettable one With practical references to his own works the author not only theorizes but demonstrates how his concepts work in practice transforming abstractions into applicable techniques for building conflicts deepening the psychology of characters and crucially captivating the reader's intelligence and emotion For the Academic Manager and the Professor the book represents an opportunity for pedagogical innovation In a scenario where creative writing and humanities courses are looking for a competitive edge edii Camara's treatise offers a ready-made curriculum for cutting-edge training It transcends the dichotomy between traditional literary analysis and formulaic writing manuals proposing a third way the development of a narrative intelligence that is both analytical and creative Adopting this work as a central bibliography means positioning a department or university at the forefront of thinking about the art of storytelling training not only critical readers but also creators who are aware of the complexity of their craft In short edii Camara's work is an invitation to descend into the engine room of fiction It is a challenging and illuminating text that treats literature with the seriousness of a science and the passion of an art It is aimed at those who are not content with just consuming stories but who feel the urge to understand and perhaps master the invisible forces that give life power and transcendence to the act of narrating The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 An overview of the key novels and novelists of the continent covering multiple cultures and languages Confession of the Lioness Mia Couto, 2015-07-14 A dark poetic mystery about the women of the remote village of Kulumani and the lionesses that hunt them Told through two haunting interwoven diaries Mia Couto's Confession of the Lioness reveals the mysterious world of Kulumani an isolated village in Mozambique whose traditions and beliefs are threatened when ghostlike lionesses begin hunting the women who live there

The Drinker of Horizons Mia Couto, 2023-03-14 Longlisted for the 2024 Dublin Literary Award The scintillating conclusion to the critically acclaimed historical saga the Jan Michalski Prize-winning Sands of the Emperor trilogy Couto's life has been woven into the history of the nation and he has become the foremost chronicler of Mozambique's antiheroes its women its peasants even its dead Jacob Judah The New York Times In The Drinker of Horizons the award-winning author Mia Couto brings the epic love story between a young Mozambican woman named Imani and the Portuguese sergeant Germano de Melo to its moving close We resume where The Sword and the Spear concluded While Germano is left behind in Africa serving with the Portuguese military Imani has been enlisted to act as the interpreter to the imprisoned emperor of Gaza Ngungunyane on the long voyage to Lisbon For the emperor and his seven wives it will be a journey of no return Imani's own return will come only after a decade long odyssey through the Portuguese empire at the beginning of the twentieth century If history is always narrated by the victors in The Drinker of Horizons Couto performs an act of restorative justice giving a voice to those silenced by the horrors of colonialism Throughout Couto s language astonishes rendering with utter clarity the beauty and terror of war and love and revealing the devastation of a profoundly unequal encounter between cultures

Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta,2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture

Indigenous Creatures, Native Knowledges, and the Arts Wendy Woodward,Susan McHugh,2017-10-17 This volume illuminates how creative representations remain sites of ongoing struggles to engage with animals in indigenous epistemologies Traditionally imagined in relation to spiritual realms and the occult animals have always been more than primitive symbols of human relations Whether as animist gods familiars conduits to ancestors totems talismans or co creators of multispecies cosmologies animals act as vital players in the lives of cultures From early days in colonial contact zones through contemporary expressions in art film and literature the volume s unique emphasis on Southern Africa and North America historical loci of the greatest ranges of species and linguistic diversity help to situate how indigenous knowledges of human animal relations are being adapted to modern conditions of life shared across species lines
