

"While they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, 'Take; this is my body.' He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. I assure you that I won't drink wine again until that day when I drink it in a new way in God's kingdom.'"

book challenges modern worshipers to allow this biblical theological study to guide their thinking and shape their practice

Reconstructing Pastoral Theology Andrew Purves, 2004-09-20 In Pastoral Care in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves argued that pastoral care and theology has long ignored Scripture and Christian doctrine and pastoral practice has become secularized in both method and goal the fiefdom of psychology and the social sciences He builds further on this idea here presenting a christological basis for ministry and pastoral theology

I Believe in God Thomas P. Rausch, 2016-03-24 In the spirit of nineteenth century philosopher John Stuart Mill's admonition to fully frequently and fearlessly discuss what we profess to be true in order that it remain a living truth rather than dead dogma Thomas P Rausch gives us I Believe in God A Reflection on the Apostles Creed Rausch carefully explores the controversies that led to the development of the Creed and thereby brings the Creed to life for modern readers More important he maintains that the Creed is most fully alive when those who profess it do so as a personal response to their baptismal call I Believe in God carefully unpacks the three articles of the Creed but does so always with an eye and heart toward communion with God as Father Son and Holy Spirit As baptized Christians to profess the Creed is to be committed to enter more deeply into this trinitarian relationship and thus more fully into communion with one another Rausch clearly shows that the Apostles Creed is grounded in Scripture first came to expression in the church's baptismal liturgy and can be better understood in light of contemporary theological reflection Attentive to the ways in which the language of the Creed is relevant to the experience of twenty first century Christians he leads us to understand what Pope Benedict meant when he said the Creed is a tiny summa in which everything essential is expressed With Rausch's guidance readers will confess those essentials with greater conviction and appreciation , Walking in the Word Carolyn Wells,2015-11-06 As Christian families it is good to discover how to apply the whole of God s Word to our lives This book gives families the opportunity to read through the story of the Bible together finding out how it all fits together and how it can affect our lives today This is a flexible book to be used in the way that suits your own family best The readings give the family a chance to read God s Word together discuss the things that affect their lives to encourage each other in their faith and to reach out to tell others the Good News of Jesus It has some practical activities memory verses and encouragement to pray for others A Scriptural view of the Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ Jeremiah JACKSON,1844 A Companion to Anglican Eucharistic Theology Brian Douglas,2012 Anglican eucharistic theology varies between the different philosophical assumptions of realism and nominalism This book presents case studies from the 20th Century to the Present and avoids the hermeneutic idealism of particular church parties by critically examining the Anglican eucharistic tradition

Thinking about Prayer Owen F. Cummings,2009-08-01 Many people think of prayer and worship in terms that are too narrow Sometimes they also entertain presuppositions about prayer and worship that need to be expanded and critiqued and challenged to make them more mature and informed This book seeks to address these issues It is an invitation to engage with prayer and worship in ways that enlarge our capacity to think about address and encounter God through liturgy and theology the arts and poetry as well as basic critical thinking The Living Church ,1954 The Lord's Supper John Shower,2021-05-21 In the Lord s Supper we express our public gratitude to the Lord Jesus Christ Showers shows us how we can celebrate His actions on our behalf with love gratitude and joy Towards a Truly Catholic Church Thomas P. Rausch,2005 Ecclesiology which takes into account the Second Vatican Council ecumenism and globalization Provided by publisher The Congregationalist and Advance ,1919 Leading from the Table Paul Galbreath,2008-04-30 The communion table stands as an intersection between Word and Sacrament between memory and hope between pastor and congregation between receiving and serving and between community and individual Leading from the table says Paul Galbreath professor of preaching and worship is a way of thinking speaking acting and living that grows out of learning to recognize and embody these connections in our lives as a congregation and as individuals Developing leadership skills that connect the congregation s eucharistic practice to the life and work of the church is essential to moving toward unity within congregations denominations and throughout the church This book is not a how to manual on presiding techniques however Rather this book is a series of reflections about the way the prayer at the communion table provides a pattern for our lives The goal is to shift our understanding of table prayer from a formula led by the pastor to a road map that highlights intersections between the practices at the table and the daily practices in the life of the community that gathers around the table The Nicene Creed Jared Ortiz,Daniel A. Keating,2024-04-23 Though the Nicene Creed is regularly recited in weekly church services few understand its historical origins and connections to Scripture and key Christian doctrines This volume bridges the gap providing an accessible introduction that explains how the Creed is anchored in the Bible and how it came to be written and confessed in the early history of the church The authors show how the Creed reflects the purpose of God in salvation especially in relation to Christians divine adoption as sons and daughters leading to glorification Each chapter includes sidebars highlighting how the Creed has been received in the church s liturgy Professors students clergy and religious educators will benefit from this illuminating and edifying guide to the Nicene Creed

Distinguishing the Church Greg Peters, Matt Jenson, 2019-06-27 As the Protestant Reformers did so twenty first century Christians also recognize the need to distinguish between the true and false church Thus they find themselves looking closely at the modern church to determine whether it is a true and faithful church Today s Christians know that proper criteria are necessary to discern the true church The most common criteria wrote John Calvin are that the Word of God is rightly preached and heard and that the sacraments are administered according to Christ s institution Moreover Martin Luther said that suffering is a telltale sign of God s people while Anabaptist and Reformed Christians included discipline among the distinguishing marks of the church These standards take on particular poignancy today The global church continues to live under severe persecution and the American church characterized by a lack of discipline has been wounded by its own sins of chasing sex and power In this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the Evangelical Theological Society the authors take time to reflect on the Reformational marks of the church in order to help reform Christ s bride With contributions from Edward W Klink III Duane Litfin J Stephen Yuille J V Fesko Keith D Stanglin Greg Cochran Jeremy M Kimble Guy Waters Justin L McLendon
