of Dorian Gray 1890 The opportunity to construct aesthetic details precisely and combine them with larger social themes drew Wilde to write drama He wrote Salome 1891 in French in Paris but it was refused a licence Unperturbed Wilde produced four society comedies in the early 1890s which made him one of the most successful playwrights of late Victorian London At the height of his fame and success while his masterpiece The Importance of Being Earnest 1895 was still on stage in London Wilde had the Marquess of Queensberry the father of his lover Lord Alfred Douglas prosecuted for libel a charge carrying a penalty of up to two years in prison The trial unearthed evidence that caused Wilde to drop his charges and led to his own arrest and trial for gross indecency with other men After two more trials he was convicted and imprisoned for two years hard labour In 1897 in prison he wrote De Profundis which was published in 1905 a long letter which discusses his spiritual journey through his trials forming a dark counterpoint to his earlier philosophy of pleasure Upon his release he left immediately for France never to return to Ireland or Britain There he wrote his last work The Ballad of Reading Gaol 1898 a long poem commemorating the harsh rhythms of prison life He died destitute in Paris at the age of forty six
