The Consciousness Of Deserving:

Consciousness of Deserving Rusty Berkus,1992-04-01 Justification: A Guide for the Perplexed Alan J. Spence,2012-01-26 This title provides an upper level introduction to the doctrine of justification which triggered the Reformation and is still high up on the agenda in Ecumenical dialogue The core of the book is an historical survey of the doctrine of justification as it has developed within the Western church a somewhat simplified version of McGrath s Justitia Dei but with a more outspoken assessment of the various moves that are taken at various stages in the discussion Attention will is paid to the context or prevailing world view in which such a doctrine is deemed significant Although the focus is on a number of principal theologians there are some reference to their peers or followers Only at the end the Pauline texts are examined The conclusion considers what part a doctrine of justification can have within a modern worldview in which the concept of divine judgement has generally been marginalised Continuum s Guides for the Perplexed are clear concise and accessible introductions to thinkers writers and subjects that students and readers can find especially challenging or indeed downright bewildering Concentrating specifically on what it is that makes the subject difficult to grasp these books explain and explore key themes and ideas guiding the reader towards a thorough understanding of demanding material The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams,George Pattison,Graham Ward,2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution Throughout this period many of the wide range of modernisms and anti modernisms had a distinctly religious and even theological character not least when religion was subjected to the harshest criticism Yet for all the breadth and complexity of modern European thought and in particular its relations to theology a distinct body of themes and approaches recurred in each generation Moreover many of the issues that took intellectual shape in Europe are now global rather than narrowly European and for good or ill they form part of Europe s bequest to the world from colonialism and the economic theories behind globalisation through to democracy to terrorism This volume attempts to identify and comment on some of the most important of these The thirty chapters are grouped into six thematic parts moving from questions of identity and the self through discussions of the human condition the age of revolution the world both natural and technological and knowledge methodologies concluding with a section looking explicitly at how major theological themes have developed in modern European thought The chapters engage with major thinkers including Kant Hegel Kierkegaard Heidegger Schleiermacher Nietzsche Dostoevsky Barth Rahner Tillich Bonhoeffer Sartre de Beauvoir Wittgenstein and Derrida amongst many others Taken together these new essays provide a rich and reflective overview of the interchange between theology philosophy and critical thought in Europe over the past two hundred years Fragments on Ethical Subjects by the late G. G.; being a selection from his posthumous papers. [Edited by A. B., i.e. A. Bain.] George GROTE,1876 Creation and Humanity Ian A. McFarland,2009-01-01 This major sourcebook provides significant primary readings from the history of Christian theology on the topics of creation and humanity Beginning with an extended introduction McFarland fleshes out the topics of creation and humanity in sections such as God as Creator The Human Creature Evil and Sin and Providence and provides a brief introduction to each selection that demonstrates its importance and establishes its historical context This collection will be of special value in classrooms allowing students to experience firsthand some major works that shaped efforts to forge a sound Christian understanding of creation and humanity

The Christian Faith Friedrich Schleiermacher, 1928 In the opinion of competent thinkers the Christian Faith of Schleiermacher is with the exception of Calvin's Institutes the most important work covering the whole field of doctrine to which Protestant theology can point To say this is not necessarily to adopt either his fundamental principles or the detailed conclusions to which these principles have guided him On all such matters a nearly unbroken controversy has long prevailed Indeed at the moment a formidable attack is being delivered upon his main positions by a new and active school of thought in Germany But whether for acceptance or rejection it is necessary for serious students to know what Schleiermacher has to say Editors preface page v

English Synonymes G. Crabb, From Calvin to Barth Phillip D. R. Griffiths, 2014-07-21 The Enlightenment caused a paradigm shift in the worldview of most people living in the Western world Those Christian doctrines associated with the Protestant Reformation were believed to be no longer tenable The great

German theologian Karl Barth appeared to provide a remedy for this with a theology that harkened back to Protestant Reformation From Calvin to Barth examines just how successful Barth was in returning to the old ways to ascertain whether he did espouse the thinking of men like John Calvin or whether he simply provided a theological system that was just another face of post Enlightenment liberal thinking

Saved by His Life Marco Galli,2021-12-10 What does Christ died for us mean Why does the Bible say that we were reconciled to God through the death of Jesus and that we shall be saved by his life What is the meaning of God s incarnation in the first place Why God with us In this book we will try to answer these and other questions about salvation first by reconstructing the origin of the various theories that have been proposed throughout history We will discover that to this day there is no agreement among theologians on many fundamental points of the doctrine of redemption and we will come up with our own hypothesis which is exhaustive and does justice to God s mercy To do so we will rediscover some lost biblical concepts that will help us to recover the original idea of salvation We will show that it is intrinsically linked to the nature of God which was fully manifested in the faithfulness of Jesus Christ and the gift of his life We will also understand why we are called to identify ourselves in him and in his love since it is the source foundation and ultimate goal of salvation
