Excerpt from The Constitutional Documents of the Puritan Revolution 1625 1660 The documents in this volume are intended to serve either as a basis for the study of the Constitutional History of an important period or as a companion to the Political History of the time By far the greater number of them are printed in books which though commonly to be found in large libraries are on account of their size and expense not readily accessible to students in general The MS of the Constitutional Bill of the first Protectorate Parliament in the handwriting of John Browne Clerk of the Parliaments is preserved at Stanford Hall in the possession of Lord Brayne with whose kind permission the copy used in this volume has been taken It is possible that a great part of the document might have been recovered from the entries of clauses and amendments in the Journals of the House of Commons but as far as I know this is the only complete copy in existence The documents in Part I of the present edition have been added at the suggestion of Professor Prothero who very generously placed at my disposal the copies he had made with the intention of adding them to his own Statutes and other Constitutional Documents illustrative of the reigns of Elizabeth and James I Clarendon Press 1894 Though the Navigation Act of the Commonwealth has no claim to a place amongst Constitutional Documents it is of sufficient importance to be printed in the Appendix About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
