The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern Women's Writing in English, 1540-1700 Elizabeth

Scott-Baumann, Danielle Clarke, Sarah C. E. Ross, 2022 A Handbook on early modern women's writing that combines new developments in historical and critical research with theoretical and conceptual approaches The Dutch in the Early Modern World David Onnekink, Gijs Rommelse, 2019-06-06 Presents an overview of early modern Dutch history in global context focusing on themes that resonate with current concerns Selling and Rejecting Politics in Early Modern Europe Martin Gosman, Joop W. Koopmans, 2007 Power in the early modern age as in the present age is an important subject for debate What is power Who has it or should have it What are the underlying reasons for this And especially how is this power exercised legitimised and accepted The issue of power in Europe in the early modern age is all the more significant because the demarcation line between the worldly and the religious component of power is not always clearly drawn The fact is that power can only exist in a structured context where there is a measure of approval and consensus on the way that power is constituted and exercised It is actually about the relationship between those who have or crave power and those who find themselves in subordinate positions Many means of persuasion are deployed in propaganda mechanisms to underscore the rightness or superiority of this relationship The reverse side of this phenomenon is equally important the extent to which criticism is being voiced and other opinions are being proclaimed is at least as relevant to an evaluation of the relationship between both groups i.e. rulers and subordinates In societies where pomp and circumstance bear the brunt of the persuasive process since not everyone can read or write visual elements are crucial painting sculpture architecture urban planning court parties and ceremonies play a major role as do all the products issued by the printing presses tracts and pamphlets illustrated or unillustrated The essays in this volume deal not so much with theories of power but rather with the ways that rulers attempt to motivate the legitimation of their power and convey their own superiority be it genuine or spurious They focus on the persuasive production emanating from governments as well as on the reactions of other parties which show both confirmative and contesting tendencies Chess Life, 1998 Stereotypes and stereotyping in early modern England Koji Yamamoto, 2022-10-25 Early modern stereotypes used to be studied as evidence of popular belief something mired with prejudices and commonly held assumptions Stereotypes and stereotyping in early modern England goes beyond this view by exploring practices of stereotyping as contested processes To do so the volume draws on recent works on social psychology and sociology It thereby brings together early modern case studies and explores how stereotypes and their mobilisation shaped various negotiations of power in spheres of life such as politics religion economy and knowledge production Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood, 2005-08-01 Dealing with New Order perceptions of the past this study gives insights into how the past can be used for purposes of national building and regime legitimization and into the nature of the New Order The Suharto regime created a coherent history that is reflected in recent archaeological and historical research in popular histories and biographies in monuments and in school textbooks The author describes an official history stretching from the proto Indonesia of Majapahit through the Indonesian Revolution up to the birth of the New Order in 1965 He also gives a counterview to this history stressing Indonesia's place in the larger Islamic world The past emphasized political stability and national unity under the guidance of the military and socially disruptive ideas were to be avoided The Arte of English Poesie Richard Puttenham, George Puttenham, 1869 Ms notes on English Poets to 1598 and A Discourse of English Poetry by William Webb in a copy of Puttenham's work published London 1589 The Arte of English Poesie ... 1589. Carefully Edited by Edward Arber Richard Puttenham, George Puttenham, 1869 Ideology and Foreign Policy in Early Modern Europe (1650-1750) Gijs Rommelse, 2016-05-13 The years 1650 to 1750 sandwiched between an age of wars of religion and an age of revolutionary wars have often been characterized as a de-ideologized period However the essays in this collection contend that this is a mistaken assumption For whilst international relations during this time may lack the obvious polarization between Catholic and Protestant visible in the proceeding hundred years or the highly charged contest between monarchies and republics of the late eighteenth century it is forcibly argued that ideology had a fundamental part to play in this crucial transformative stage of European history Many early modernists have paid little attention to international relations theory often taking a Realist approach that emphasizes the anarchism materialism and power political nature of international relations In contrast this volume provides alternative perspectives viewing international relations as socially constructed and influenced by ideas ideology and identities Building on such theoretical developments allows international relations after 1648 to be fundamentally reconsidered by putting political and economic ideology firmly back into the picture By engaging with and building upon recent theoretical developments this collection treads new terrain Not only does it integrate cultural history with high politics and foreign policy it also engages directly with themes discussed by political scientists and international relations theorists As such it offers a fresh and genuinely interdisciplinary approach to this complex and fundamental period in Europe's development Routledge Library Editions: Modern East and South East Asia Various Authors, 2022-07-30 This 7 volume set reissues a range of classic out of print texts that cover a host of issues that have contributed to the development of modern East and South East Asia With titles covering economics politics history anthropology and security this set provides the researcher with an essential resource on the region

A Cultural History of the Sea in the Early Modern Age Steve Mentz, 2023-02-09 For the first time during the Early Modern period ships regularly traveled between and among all of basins that comprise the World Ocean During this period European mariners ventured into new waters where they encountered new trading partners new environments and new opportunities In the Caribbean and Atlantic coast of the Americas European mariners sought everything from pearls to gold to codfish and in pursuing these resources they fractured Indigenous communities Entering into the ancient monsoon routes of the Indian Ocean brought European ships in touch with the powerful states and maritime cultures of East Africa and Asia

Converging on the vast Pacific basin both from the Americas and from Asia brought these mariners into contact with ancient cultures dangerous passages and newly global trade routes During this period of globalization and cultural encounters the ocean provided a means of transportation a site of environmental hostility and a poetic metaphor for both connection and alienation In material and cultural ways the global sea routes traveled during this period laid down structures of global exchange and conflict that the world still follows today Wellbeing in Early Modern Christianity Karla Boersma, Herman J. Selderhuis, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2024-09-09 Today wellbeing is high on the personal and societal agenda but thinking about wellbeing certainly is not a new phenomenon The Greek philosopher Aristotle for example came up with the concept of Eudaimonia the contented state of feeling healthy happy and prosperous and this concept has been influential up until today Starting from Augustine's thoughts on the topic of wellbeing which had a great influence on theologians and others in the Early Modern Era the contributions in this book reflect on a variety of topics ranging from wellbeing for the soul and the body to broader related concepts and theories approaching the theme from such disciplines as music literature history and theology George Puttenham Richard Puttenham, George Puttenham, 1869 The Arte of English Poesie. June? 1589 George Puttenham, 1869 English Reprints ...: Sir Thomas More: Utopia. George Puttenham: The arts of English poesie. James Howell: Instructions for forreine travell. Rogers, 2017-03-02 This is an annotated bibliography of Catholic books in English printed abroad or secretly in England at a time when Catholic printing was prohibited in England and such books when discovered by the authorities were seized and destroyed It includes all the 930 items listed in the authors A Catalogue of Catholic Books in English 1956 A R except for a handful which for reasons of consistency were described in volume I of the present work Scholar Press 1989 and it adds a further twenty five on which information has come to light more recently The annotations historical literary and bibliographical are very much fuller than those in A R and include a vast amount of evidence now brought together for the first time The true authors of many anonymous and pseudonymous books are identified and many books issued with a false imprint or no imprint at all are assigned to particular presses In each entry up to fifteen locations are given where known A concordance links the entries with those in A R to facilitate cross reference from one to the other and indexes of titles printers and publishers and persons including foreign authors mentioned in the text are provided The volume concludes with a short list of Addenda and Corrigenda to volume I English Reprints [no. 1-30]. Edward Arber, 1869 English Reprints Edward Arber, 1869 Modern Languages Across the Curriculum Michael Grenfell, 2004-01-14 This book sets out the agenda for the future of modern language teaching in schools It aims to look beyond the dominant methods of second language teaching to a new approach emphasising the integration of language learning within the wider curriculum Through research and case studies from the UK France Spain Italy Germany Belgium and Finland the book shows how teachers and policy makers are increasingly moving towards a system where second languages are taught through other curriculum subjects rather than alongside them Key areas covered are recent trends and issues in the teaching and learning of modern foreign languages the rationale for integrating languages across the curriculum how cross curricular language teaching is developing across Europe practical materials and useful ideas for teachers and policy makers This timely book will interest all foreign language teachers particularly those on in service or higher level degree courses It will also be useful reading for student teachers and educators and policy makers internationally Proceedings of the Huguenot Society of Great Britain and Ireland Huguenot Society of Great Britain and Ireland,1988
