embroidered and her shift and the bed sheets about her of fine linen The man s dress was poor and coarse by comparison yet he carried a sword and was plainly of gentle nurture The sword Snorri drew from its sheath and brought away also he took a small box of jewels but little else could he find on the ship and no food of any kind His design was to leave the ship as he found it carrying away only these tokens that his story when he arrived at Brattahlid might be received with faith and to direct where the ship might be sought for But as he quitted the cabin some of his men shouted from the deck where they had discovered yet another body frozen in a drift This was an old man seated with crossed legs and leaning against the mast having an ink horn slung about his neck and almost hidden by his grey beard and on his knee a book which he held with a thumb frozen between two pages This was the book which Snorri had brought to Brattahlid and which the Bishop of Garda read aloud to him that same afternoon translating as he went the ink being fresh the writing clerkly and scarcely a page damaged by the weather It bore no title but the Bishop who afterwards caused his secretary to take a copy of the tale gave it a very long one beginning God s mercy shown in a Miracle upon certain castaways from Jutland at the Feast of the Nativity of His Blessed Son our Lord in the year MCCCLVII whereby He made dead trees to put forth in leaf and comforted desperate men with summer in the midst of the Frozen Sea with much beside But all this appears in the tale which I will head only with the name of the writer

life and bad timing played a role in my unsuccessful dreams Then you will find out that my life was not only my decision alone But on the side of all of this I had a good life and I maintained to stay happiness Now if I had not exposed my life to you many people would never know the pain and hardship that I experienced in my life time I am still the same Darmonica who you have know in the past who love sports and love lending a helping hand where it s needed For the love of life is to love yourself help another and take the worst of life and make the best of it and I did just that Without my family and friends I would not be the person who I am NOW That s why I say Hold on someone is on the other line
