

THE CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

DECLARATION,

By the REPRESENTATIVES of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
In GENERAL CONGRESS assembled.

WHEN in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the Political Bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness—that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on these principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former system of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid view, presenting them by a meek Trail, from position to any Master which we should choose to the inhabitants of these States.

For taxing us, and Trade with all parts of the World.

For imposing Taxes on us without our consent.

For depriving us, in many Cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury.

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended Offences.

For abolishing the best System of English Laws, in a neighbouring Province, establishing thereby an arbitrary Government, and enlarging its Boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and its instrument for introducing the same arbitrary rule into these Colonies.

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Government.

For suspending our Laws; and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all Cases whatsoever.

The King hath refused assent to Laws most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has refused our Tax, trampled our Goods, burnt our Towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He has refused to assent to large Summs of Money, to complete the Works of Defence, Fortification, and Tyranny, already begun, with expostulations of Council, and Petition, humbly presented to the most humane Kings, and ready compliance with the Mind of a virtuous Nation.

He has prostituted our sacred Colonies, to the high seas to have Arms, Ammunition, and Cannon, to be used by the Tyranny of these Kings and Barons, at the disposal of their Mercenaries.

He has caused the Colonies to be used as a base, and has endeavored to bring on
