The Delicate Prey And Other Stories:

The Delicate Prey Paul Bowles, 1990-11 The Delicate Prey and Other Stories Paul Bowles, 1930 The Delicate Prey & Other Stories Paul Bowles, 1950 The Delicate Prey Deluxe Edition Paul Bowles, 2015-06-23 Paul Bowles's classic collection of short stories available in a deluxe paperback edition part of Ecco's Art of the Story series. All the tales are a variety of detective story wrote Bowles of this his first short story collection in which the reader is the detective the mystery is in the motivation for the characters behavior. In such stories as A Distant Episode and How Many Midnights Bowles pushes human character beyond socially defined limits and maps a transformed often horribly transformed reality. Bowles captures the duality of human frailty and cruelty in these seventeen taut and atmospheric tales written between 1939 and 1949. Brutal and gorgeous visceral yet perceptive this timeless collection is one of the most profound beautifully wrought and haunting collections in our literature at once austere witty violent and sensuous. His language has a purity of line a poise and authority entirely its own capable of instantly modulating from farce to horror without a ruffle. Tobias Wolff The Short Story Charles May, 2013-10-14 The short story is one of the most difficult types of prose to write and one of the most pleasurable to read. From Boccaccio's Decameron to The Collected Stories of Reynolds Price Charles May gives us an understanding of the history and structure of this demanding form of fiction. Beginning with a general history of the genre he moves on to focus on the nineteenth century when the modern short story began to come into focus. From there he moves on to later nineteenth century realism and early twentieth century formalism and finally to the modern renaissance of the form that shows no signs of abating. A chronology of significant events works and figures from the genre's history notes and references and an extensive bibliographic essay with recommended reading round out the volume. A Sea of Stories John Dececco, PhD, Sonya L Jones, 2013-01-11 Take a look at how narrative has shaped gay and lesbian culture. A Sea of Stories: The Shaping Power of Narrative in Gay and Lesbian Cultures. A Festschrift for John P. De Cecco is an unforgettable collection of personal narratives that explores the historical psychological and sociological contexts of homosexuality in locations ranging from Nazi Germany to Colorado. Some of the prominent authors in this collection include David Bergman, Louis Crew, Diana Hume George, and Ruth Vanita. Scholars in gay and lesbian studies, political movements, cultural studies, and narratology and anyone interested in gay history will want to explore these intriguing narratives on topics such as sex and sin in the South, selling gay literature before Stonewall, growing up gay in India, and the story of an interracial male couple facing homophobic ignorance in a small town. A Sea of Stories also contains creative fiction and nonfiction love stories, war stories, oral stories, and bibliographies and a beautiful post-Stonewall and post-modern narrative set on a South African seascape that tells the story of two professional men and the possibility of a kiss. Short Story Index ,1979 Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih,2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story's protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington's notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles's poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash

The Animals: Love Letters Between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy Christopher Isherwood, Don Bachardy, 2014-05-13 The love story between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy in their own words Christopher Isherwood was the celebrated middle aged English author of Goodbye to Berlin when he met the Californian teenager Don Bachardy on a Santa Monica beach in 1952 Defying convention the two created an enduring relationship out of that initial spark living as an openly gay couple for more than three decades in the closeted world of Hollywood The Animals is the testimony in letters of their extraordinary partnership which lasted until Isherwood's death in 1986 despite a thirty year age gap affairs jealousies the pressures of literary fame and the disdain of twentieth century America for love between two men In romantic letters to each other they invented the private world of the Animals Chris was Dobbin a stubborn old workhorse Don was a rash spirited white kitten named Kitty The ability to create a world a safe and separate milieu was a great talent of Isherwood's and a necessary one as a gay man in mid twentieth century America But Isherwood knew how to spread hay around his stable and attract beauty He drew Bachardy into his semisecret realm and together they invented a place for their love to thrive Bold transgressive and playful The Animals shows us the devotion between two creative spirits in tenderness and storms

Travel Narratives, Travel Fictions Daniel Cooper Alarcón, 2024-02-02 In Travel Narratives Travel Fictions Daniel Cooper Alarcón argues that travel literature performs important social and cultural criticism often overlooked in studies of the genre By examining non fiction and fiction novels and short stories that purposefully examine different types of travel in relationship to each other Cooper Alarcón documents and highlights the sophisticated ways that both types of writing have anticipated and contributed ideas central to critical studies of travel tourism and migration The author uses the term travel fictions to illustrate the ways in which travel narratives supposed factual accounts of travel often misrepresent distort and fabricate notions about the people and places they purport to describe creating useful mythologies and hinting at the ways in which the acts of reading and writing have become an integral part of traveling shaping not just itineraries but perceptions and beliefs about places travelers visit Both types of travel writing are influential in this regard and they frequently borrow from one another mutually reinforcing ideas tropes and modes of representation often in problematic ways
