The Department Phoenix Fiction:

The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2011 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included The Education Index, 1953 Catalogue of the Reference and Lending Departments:

General literature and fiction Port Elizabeth Public Library (Port Elizabeth, South Africa), 1906 Karmatic Fiction

Benjamin Atwell, 2023-03-31 About the Book Karmatic Fiction follows the life of college student Ricky as he deciphers life's mysteries through philosophy and physics About the Author Benjamin Atwell attended Edinboro University for philosophy and pre law Though he failed to obtain a degree from the university when the opportunity to submit a brief explanation of philosophical addendum to Yale and receive a philosopher's pin presented itself he was quick to jump on the opportunity In his free time Atwell enjoys being with his family and playing guitar The Rough Guide to San Francisco & the Bay Area

Nick Edwards, Mark Ellwood, 2009 Presents guidance and tools for visitors to San Francisco and the Bay Area including maps lodging and restaurant suggestions and details on history culture and things to see and do Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold, 2024-10-29 Honorable Mention for the Pop Culture Association Awards In a political moment when social panics over literature are at their peak Dangerous Fictions is a mind expanding treatise on the nature of fictional stories as cultural battlegrounds for power Fictional stories have long held an uncanny power over hearts and minds especially those of young people In Dangerous Fictions Lyta Gold traces arguments both historical and contemporary that have labeled fiction as dark immoral frightening or poisonous Within each she asks How dangerous is fiction really And what about it provokes waves of moral panic and even censorship Gold argues that any panic about art is largely a disguised panic about power There have been versions of these same fights over fiction for centuries By exposing fiction as a social danger and a battleground of immediate public concern we can see what each side really wants the right to shape the future of a world deeply in flux and a distraction from more pressing material concerns about money access and the hard work of politics From novels about people driven insane by reading novels to copaganda TV shows that influence how viewers regard the police Gold uses her signature wit research and fearless commentary to point readers toward a more substantial question Fiction may be dangerous to us but aren't we also dangerous to it "To Remain an Indian" K. Tsianina Lomawaima, Teresa L. McCarty, To Remain an Indian traces the footprints of Indigenous education in what is now the United States Native Peoples educational systems are rooted in ways of knowing and being that have endured for millennia despite the imposition of colonial schooling In this second edition the authors amplify their theoretical framework of settler colonial Safety Zones by adding Indigenous Sovereignty Zones Safety Zones are designed to break Indigenous relationships and impose relations of domination while Sovereignty Zones foster Indigenous growth nurture relationships and support life This fascinating portrait of Native American education highlights the genealogy of relationships across Peoples places and education initiatives in the 20th and 21st centuries New scholarship re evaluates early 20th century reforms as less an endorsement of Indigenous self determination and more a continuation of federal control The text includes personal narratives from program architects and examines Indigenous language culture and education resurgence movements that reckon with the coloniality of U S schooling Book Features Enriched theoretical framework contrasting settler colonial Safety Zones designed to control with Indigenous Sovereignty Zones designed to nurture Indigenous futures The voices of activists and educators who are linked together in a genealogy of Indigenous educational self determination Developments in Indigenous schooling contextualized within the Piper v Big Pine and Brown v Board desegregation cases Empirically updated case studies of ongoing language culture and education resurgence movements Recent scholarship highlighting Progressive Era continuities in federal powers over Native Peoples and the impact of the 1924 Indian Citizenship Act Visual imagery including historic and contemporary photos of people and programs curricular materials and schools It offers a balm against despair and provides an inspiring theoretical frame for those who continue to fight for indigenous control Tribal College Journal for first edition Studying Fiction Jessica Mason, Marcello Giovanelli, 2021-04-19 Studying Fiction provides a clear rationale alongside ideas and methods for teaching literature in schools from a cognitive linguistic perspective Written by experienced linguists teachers and researchers it offers an overview of recent studies on reading and the mind providing a detailed guide to concepts such as attention knowledge empathy immersion authorial intention characterisation and social justice The book synthesises research from cognitive linguistics in an applied way so that teachers and those researching English in education can consider ways to approach literary reading in the classroom Each chapter draws on the latest research in cognitive stylistics and cognitive poetics discusses a range of ideas related to the whole experience of conceptualising teaching fiction in the classroom and enacting it through practice provides activities and reflection exercises for the practitioner encourages engagement with important issues such as social justice emotion and curriculum design Together with detailed suggestions for further reading and a guide to available resources this is an essential guide for all secondary English teachers as well as those teaching and researching in primary and undergraduate phases Novelists on the Novel Miriam Allott,2023-03-08

First published in 1959 Novelists on the Novel makes an attempt to set out fully what novelists both major and minor have to say about the practice of their art It draws on the experience of English French and Russian novelists so that the general reader and the more serious literature student can find out what they have to say about the novel as a literary form The included passages come from novels themselves from diaries letters notebooks etc and together constitute something like an aesthetic of the novel Using these sources the book tries to answer the following questions What is a novel what are the problems which face the novelist when he sits down to write a work of fiction How is he to tell his story What exactly is meant by the point of view How should he manipulate time How is he in one of the possible senses of the word to make his characters seem real What are the functions of dialogue and how should it be dovetailed into narrative New York Herald Tribune Books ,1927 Power Hungry Robert Bryce,2011-04-26 The promise of green jobs and a clean energy future has roused the masses But as Robert Bryce makes clear in this provocative book that vision needs a major re vision We cannot and will not quit using carbon based fuels at any time in the near future for a simple reason they provide the horsepower that we crave The hard reality is that oil coal and natural gas are here to stay Fueling our society requires more than sentiment and rhetoric we need to make good decisions and smart investments based on facts In Power Hungry Bryce provides a supertanker load of footnoted facts while shepherding readers through basic physics and math And with the help of a panoply of vivid graphics and tables he crushes a phalanx of energy myths showing why renewables are not green carbon capture and sequestration won t work and even surprise that the U S is leading the world in energy efficiency He also charts the amazing growth of the fuels of the future natural gas and nuclear Power Hungry delivers a clear eyed view of what America has in the tank and what s needed to transform the gargantuan global energy sector Educational Media and Technology Yearbook Michael Orey,Stephanie A. Jones,Robert Maribe Branch,2012-11-06 As digital devices play a more critical role in daily life than ever more opportunities arise for innovative learning technologies a trend on full display in the Educational Media and Technology Yearbook for 2012 This latest edition volume 37 from the Association for Education Communication and Technology AECT notes the most current trends in the field of learning design and technology taking into account the implications for both formal and informal learning The majority of articles train their focus on graduate and professional goals including an analysis of doctoral programs in educational technology and new collaborative learning platforms Library science is a featured component of this analysis and Library Science programs are featured prominently in this analysis Mediagraphy and profiles of leaders in the field are also included The Educational Technology Handbook Steven Hackbarth,1996 Grade level 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 k p e i s t The Outlook Lyman Abbott,Ernest Hamlin Abbott,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Francis Rufus Bellamy,1917 Finding List of Books Except Fiction in the Public Library of the City of Dener with Author and Subject Indexes Denver Public Library,1903 Books and Pamphlets.
