The Destruction of Aboriginal Society - Aboriginal Policy and Practice Volume 1 C.D. Rowley,1970 The Fatal Shore Robert Hughes,2012-01-11 NATIONAL BESTSELLER This incredible true history of the colonization of Australia explores how the convict transportation system created the country we know today One of the greatest non fiction books I ve ever read Hughes brings us an entire world Los Angeles Times Digging deep into the dark history of England s infamous efforts to move 160 000 men and women thousands of miles to the other side of the world in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Hughes has crafted a groundbreaking definitive account of the settling of Australia Tracing the European presence in Australia from early explorations through the rise and fall of the penal colonies and featuring 16 pages of illustrations and 3 maps The Fatal Shore brings to life the history of the country we thought we knew Genocide of Indigenous Peoples

Robert Hitchcock,2017-09-08 An estimated 350 to 600 million indigenous people reside across the globe Numerous governments fail to recognize its indigenous peoples living within their borders It was not until the latter part of the twentieth century that the genocide of indigenous peoples became a major focus of human rights activists non governmental organizations international development and finance institutions such as the United Nations and the World Bank and indigenous and other community based organizations Scholars and activists began paying greater attention to the struggles between Fourth World peoples and First Second and Third World states because of illegal actions of nation states against indigenous peoples indigenous groups passive and active resistance to top down development and concerns about the impacts of transnational forces including what is now known as globalization This volume offers a clear message for genocide scholars and others concerned with crimes against humanity and genocide much greater attention must be paid to the plight of all peoples indigenous and otherwise no matter how small in scale how little known how invisible or hidden from view

The Dying Days Of Segregation In Australia Barbara Miller,2017-08-31 While this book is an up to date account of the situation in Australia generally and particularly in Yarrabah an Aboriginal community near Cairns Queensland most of the research was done in 1984 This was an incredibly significant time when nearly 100 years of legal oppression and segregation of Indigenous people in Queensland came to an end What began in 1897 as legislation to ostensibly protect Indigenous people from white society including outright slaughter ended up as the Queensland Aborigines Act which put them on reserves with a permit system like apartheid South Africa Read real life stories about segregation self management land rights and human rights Indigenous Rights and the Legacies of the Bible Mark G. Brett,2024-06-25 A Christian imagination of colonial discovery permeated the early modern world but legal histories developed in very different ways depending on imperial jurisdictions Indigenous Rights and the Legacies of the Bible From Moses to Mabo explores the contradictions and ironies that emerged in the interactions between biblical warrants and colonial theories of Indigenous natural rights The early debates in the Americas mutated in the British colonies with a range of different outcomes after the American Revolution and tracking the history of biblical interpretation provides an illuminating pathway through these historical complexities A ground breaking legal judgement in the High Court of Australia Mabo v Queensland 1992 demonstrates the enduring legacies of debates over the previous five centuries The case reveals that the Australian colonies are the only jurisdiction of the English common law tradition within which no treaties were made with the First Nations Instead there is a peculiar development of terra nullius ideology which can be traced back to the historic influences of the book of Genesis in Puritan thought in the seventeenth century Having identified both similarities and differences between various colonial arguments and their overt dependence on early modern theological reasoning Mark G Brett examines the paradoxical permutations of imperial and anti imperial motifs in the biblical texts themselves Concepts of rights shifted over the centuries from theological to secular frameworks and more recently from anthropocentric assumptions to ecologically embedded concepts of Indigenous rights and responsibilities Bearing in mind the differences between ancient and modern notions of indigeneity a fresh understanding of this history proves timely as settler colonial states reflect on the implications of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples 2007 Brett s illuminating insights in this detailed study are particularly relevant for the four states that initially voted against the Declaration the USA Canada New Zealand and Australia

Man's Most Dangerous Myth Ashley Montagu, 2001-04-19 Man s Most Dangerous Myth was first published in 1942 when Nazism flourished when African Americans sat at the back of the bus and when race was considered the determinant of people s character and intelligence It presented a revolutionary theory for its time breaking the link between genetics and culture it argued that race is largely a social construction and not constitutive of significant biological differences between people In the ensuing 55 years as Ashley Montagu s radical hypothesis became accepted knowledge succeeding editions of his book traced the changes in our conceptions of race and race relations over the 20th century Now over 50 years later Man s Most Dangerous Myth is back in print fully revised by the original author Montagu is internationally renowned for his work on race as well as for such influential books as The Natural Superiority of Women Touching and The Elephant Man This new edition contains Montagu s most complete explication of his theory and a thorough updating of previous editions The Sixth Edition takes on the issues of the Bell Curve IQ testing ethnic cleansing and other current race relations topics as well as contemporary restatements of topics previously addressed A bibliography of almost 3 000 published items on race compiled over a lifetime of work is of enormous research value Also available is an abridged student edition containing the essence of Montagu s argument its policy implications and his thoughts on contemporary race issues for use in classrooms Ahead of its time in 1942 Montagu s arguments still contribute essential and salient perspectives as we face the issue of race in the 1990s Man s Most Dangerous Myth is the seminal work of one of the 20th century s leading intellectuals essential reading for all scholars and students of race relations

of Aboriginal Protectors William Thomas and his Chief George Robinson form the backbone of this compilation With this ethnographic material we learn something of the Kulin worldview into this mostly white fella history Sounding 1 Before 1840 describes the initial British and European experiences events observations intentions self serving judgements ignorance naivete treachery and so on when they found Oz and proclaimed the continent theirs by the now obvious fiction of terra nullius Latin legalese for land belonging to no people The reader may enjoy separating the grains of truth from the chaff propaganda of Empire capitalism or racist sectarian Christian bible dogma that was the self serving mindset of the white land takers Batman and Fawkner s land hunting deals with local koori s along with the re emergence of the remarkable wild white castaway Buckley made their mark on the first settlement at Melbourne The focus widens in 1836 with Surveyor General Major Mitchell s and his Wuradjuri guides conquering the interior from the Murray near Mildura to the Western District at Portland and then back north east across the state to the Murray upstream at Albury His wheel tracks opened up Victoria from the north First contact race interactions at Port Phillip and the notion of cultural coexistence during the first five years leads to the role of successful battler and publican Fawkner in the colonial invasion process from Kulin country to sheep run to city Sounding 1 then winds up with Melbourne s first executions and descriptions of Port Phillip as the money melting pot forming the Melbourne hub of world capitalism Twentieth century academic studies now identify native religion language zones tribal locations and clan heads at the time of dispossession by pirate capitalism In describing the Australian land rush the chapter echoes oscillate between history sociology race theory trade and class wars whaling and sealing imperialism and the monopoly East India Company army mates all pitted against the vanishing race of hunter gathering savages The dispossession was virtually complete in Victoria before the 1850 s gold rushes transformed the sheep runs into banker s dividend wealth for the winners Sounding 2 DISPOSSESSION AT MELBOURNE Sounding 2 unfolds gently with a wistful early Melbourne memoir involving Batman s lost lawyer Gellibrand in 1836 but then we confront the frontier kill or be killed point of necessity The violent life times and fate of mass murderer Fred Taylor who was first employed as overseer for banker Swanston s Bellarine peninsula land grab sets the local dispossession tone Taylor s repeated atrocities today exposes a credibility gap in Oz between civilized progress and slaughter that now looms over all else in Victoria s birth as an independent state in 1851 The winter of 1837 saw the first violent death of a white squatter and his servant by savage natives north west of Williamstown at Mt Cotterell Town leaders such as Fawkner and police chief Henry Batman formed a posse that also included clan heads from both the Melbourne and Geelong tribal areas Buckley refused to take part in the vigilante party and its punitive actions belied the humanitarian standards expressed in Batman s treaty deed This revenge slaughter and destruction of villages by the white invaders forced the Sydney government to investigate and so began administering law and order at Port Phillip By 1838 Sydney trumped Batman s land grab and the penal government of NSW on the one hand executing eight whites for killing what the newspapers called savages while on the other hand providing sufficient speedy cavalry to tackle black resistance in Victoria at places such as west of Colac and near Benalla after the Faithfull massacre The arrival in 1839 of first governor La Trobe and the Aboriginal Protectorate plan then unfolds the development of town civic structures while tribal life disintegrates Government and private measures to tame the naked Melbourne natives culminated with the dawn Merri Creek round up in October 1840 of hundreds of Kulin by Major Lettsom s redcoats and townsmen This appears as the death blow to tribal life and with the first shiploads of migrating British colonists arriving in 1841 near genocide for the Kulin Mara Kurnai and Murray River first peoples Shared Space: Divided Space Michael Chisholm, David M. Smith, 2016-01-29 This specially commissioned volume of original essays first published in 1990 provides a unique view of conflict territorial behaviour and reconciliation between groups social racial religious and nationalist within states in both the developed and the developing worlds The volume as a whole shows the wide range of geographical solutions which have been adopted in attempts to limit conflict and foster stability This title underlines the importance of a geographical perspective on intergroup conflict and reconciliation and provides a broad range of real world experience in carefully chosen case studies Shared Space Divided Space will be of interest students of the social sciences as well as to general readers who will find this title to be accessible and authoritative The Black Grapevine Linda Briskman, 2003 The Black Grapevine tells the extraordinary story of Indigenous efforts to stop children becoming part of the stolen generations and to end the government policies and practices which destroyed their families Linda Briskman uses the story of the Secretariat of National Aboriginal and Island Child Care SNAICC to centre her book Indigenous people involved tell how they came together to form a national organisation for child care how they found similar experiences from one end of Australia to the other how they pooled experience and emotion to provide support for one another how they lobbied for a national inquiry And they campaigned Indigenous activists fought with astonishing resilience for recognition of past and present practices for the right to have Indigenous viewpoints to the forefront and for resources Briskman s story goes beyond the contest with the state to give a convincing portrait of the ways in which Indigenous groups worked There are connections with international action educational and fund raising projects and the much vaunted annual Aboriginal and Islander Children s Day She concludes by reflecting on the successes of campaigns and actions to date and the extent of unfinished business Her strong academic background combines with the oral testimony of the activists to produce a fast moving book that is both entertaining and rigorous The Making of the Nations and Cultures of the New World Gérard Bouchard, 2008-03-03 The Making of the Nations and Cultures of the New World explores the question of how a culture a collective consciousness is born G rard Bouchard compares the histories of New World collectivities which were driven by a dream of freedom and sovereignty and finds both major differences and striking commonalities in their formation and evolution He also considers the myths and discursive strategies devised by elites in their efforts to unite and mobilize diversified populations Australia's Doomed-Race Protective Myth Grant Rodwell, 2024-12-27 Periodically in Australian society racial chasms emerge portraying the great divide between Indigenous and non Indigenous Australians exposing the sustained influence of the doomed race protective myth and its residue This book exposes that a long and powerful influence on Australian society economy culture and history has been the doomed race protective myth While most nations harbour protective myths of one form or another often endorsed by Australian governments at all levels and steeped in a cruel racism and inter alia a quest for pastoral lands Australia s doomed race protective myth has asserted an undue influence on First Nations people This book argues the doomed race protective myth warped the vision of power elites politicians and bureaucrats For centuries sustained by representations in official and public history schools churches and a whole host of public institutions the doomed race protective myth has been voiced by almost every facet of non Indigenous Australian society with pastoral Australia particularly benefiting This book opens fresh vistas to the continuing racism in Australian society through an examination of the long politicised doomed race protective myth which was foisted on First Nations people and with vested interests in pastoral Australia Key events in Australia s race relations history such as the 2023 First Nations Voice to Parliament Referendum have new light shed on them Transnational themes relevant to Indigenous history have been examined People with an interest in non Indigenous Indigenous affairs academics politicians and bureaucrats and students will enjoy this book

Henry Prinsep's Empire Malcolm Allbrook, 2014-09-01 Henry Prinsep is known as Western Australia s first Chief Protector of Aborigines in the colonial government of Sir John Forrest a period which saw the introduction of oppressive laws that dominated the lives of Aboriginal people for most of the twentieth century But he was also an artist horse trader member of a prominent East India Company family and everyday citizen whose identity was formed during his colonial upbringing in India and England As a creator of Imperial culture he supported the great men and women of history while he painted wrote about and photographed the scenes around him In terms of naked power he was a middle man perhaps even a small man His empire is an intensely personal place a vast network of family and friends from every quarter of the British imperial world engaged in the common tasks of making a home and a career while framing new identities new imaginings and new relationships with each other indigenous peoples and fellow colonists This book traces Henry Prinsep s life from India to Western Australia and shows how these texts and images illuminate not only Prinsep the man but the affectionate bonds that endured despite the geographic bounds of empire and the historical social geographic and economic origins of Aboriginal and colonial relationships which are important to this day

Constructions of Colonialism Ian J. McNiven, 1999-01-01 One of the most famous shipwreck sagas of the 19th century took place on the tropical coast of north east Australia In 1836 the Stirling Castle was wrecked off the Queensland coast and many of the crew together with the captain s wife Eliza Fraser were marooned on Fraser Island Early sensationalized accounts represent Mrs Fraser as an innocent white victim of colonialism and her Aboriginal captors as barbarous savages These first contact narratives of the white woman and her Aboriginal captors impacted significantly on England and the politics of Empire at an early stage in Australia's colonial history The text critically examines the Eliza Fraser episode by bringing together an interdisciplinary team of authors artists members of the Fraser Island Aboriginal community and academics in the areas of cultural and women's studies literature history anthropology archaeology the visual and creative arts This book Essays include feminist analyses of the incident investigations of textual and visual representations of Aboriginal people and considerations of the role played by Eliza Fraser as creative inspiration for the arts The text explores the constructions of Empire colonialism identity femininity savagery otherness captivity and survival Australia's Unthinkable Genocide Colin Tatz, 2017-04-04 We are a moral people and the very notion that Australians could have anything to do with genocide is unthinkable so claimed parliamentarians when Australia was asked to ratify the UN's Genocide Convention in 1949 The reality is that even decent democrats and people who consider themselves good colonists are capable of doing just that killing people because of who they were forcibly removing their children in order to assimilate them and erase them from the landscape and then in the name of their protection incarcerated them on reserves in a manner that caused them serious physical and mental harm This confronting book addresses the whole issue of what happens to an indigenous minority who were considered other than human an unworthy order of beings destined to die out The Routledge International Handbook of Colorism Ronald E. Hall, Neha Mishra, 2024-08-04 This timely and unique edited book explores the concept of colorism which is discrimination based on the color of a person's skin It takes a global approach that draws on authentic voices from varied contexts and is dedicated to exploring and enriching the diverse intellectual discourse on colorism The book explores colorism across the globe and studies how it has been woven into the cultural fabric of communities of color With 22 chapters organised geographically into parts representing six continents it looks at various facets of colorism offering international insights beyond a Western perspective The handbook examines policy making in the sphere of colorism internationally and across countries and provides thoughtful insights on colorism discrimination in different contexts Chapters are written by leading experts from different disciplinary backgrounds who present cutting edge research on the topic of colorism in different country contexts contributing to a global dialogue on colorism The Routledge International Handbook of Colorism comprehensively highlights colorism and skin color bias which blurs the national and international boundaries It will be fascinating reading for students and academics in psychology social work education criminal justice and other social sciences It will also be of interest to those working in areas relating to marginalization human rights diversity and inclusion

Family and Gender in the Pacific Margaret Jolly, 1989-11-24 A 1989 examination of the effect of mission evangelism and colonial intervention on the family life of Pacific peoples Severing the Ties that Bind Katherine Pettipas, 1994-10-28 Religious ceremonies were an inseparable part of Aboriginal traditional life reinforcing social economic and political values However missionaries and government officials with ethnocentric attitudes of cultural superiority decreed that Native dances and ceremonies were immoral or un-Christian and an impediment to the integration of the Native population into Canadian society Beginning in 1885 the Department of Indian Affairs implemented a series of amendments to the Canadian Indian Act designed to eliminate traditional forms of religious expression and customs such as the Sun Dance the Midewiwin the Sweat Lodge and giveaway ceremonies However the amendments were only partially effective Aboriginal resistance to the laws took many forms community leaders challenged the legitimacy of the terms and the manner in which the regulations were implemented and they altered their ceremonies the times and locations the practices in an attempt both to avoid detection and to placate the agents who enforced the law Katherine Pettipas views the amendments as part of official support for the destruction of indigenous cultural systems She presents a critical analysis of the administrative policies and considers the effects of government suppression of traditional religious activities on the whole spectrum of Aboriginal life focussing on the experiences of the Plains Cree from the mid 1880s to 1951 when the regulations pertaining to religious practices were removed from the Act She shows how the destructive effects of the legislation are still felt in Aboriginal communities today and offers insight into current issues of Aboriginal spirituality including access to and use of religious objects held in museum repositories protection of sacred lands and sites and the right to indigenous religious practices in prison Beyond C. L. R. James John Nauright, Alan G. Goble, David K. Wiggins, 2014-11-01 A collection of essays that analyze the interconnections between race ethnicity and sport The Commonwealth of Nations W. David McIntyre, 1977 The author a professor of history at the University of Canterbury Christchurch New Zealand presents a comprehensive survey of Commonwealth history from the time of soul searching about the future of the British Empire which marked the middle years of Queen Victoria s reign to the year when Britain decided to enter the European Community The account is divided in three periods 1869 to 1917 1917 to 1941 and 1942 to 1971 Within each period a four fold thematic divisions is followed Dominions Indian Empire crown colonies and protectorates With Intent to Destroy Colin Martin Tatz, 2003-08-14 An exciting and important study of genocide
