the relationship between aesthetics and ethics and envisions literary discourse as contributing to an alternative mentality based on peace rather than power Dominator of the Stars Ku SeDeCha,2021-04-14 In the vast universe 100 races coexisted A mutated blood spirit allowed Mu Qing to rise up from earth to fight against the bug clan The purple bamboo forest attracted millions of thunder tribulations and the black Kun Peng flapped its wings crushing countless powerhouses There was only one Imperial Lord in the starry sky From Communion to Cannibalism Maggie Kilgour,2014-07-14 Focusing on such metaphors as communion and cannibalism in a wide range of Western literary works Maggie Kilgour examines the opposition between outside and inside and the strategies of incorporation by which it is transcended This opposition is basic to literature in that it underlies other polarities such as those between form and content the literal and metaphorical source and model Kilgour demonstrates the usefulness of incorporation as a subsuming metaphor that describes the construction and then the dissolution of opposites or separate identities in a text the distinction between outside and inside essentially that of eater and eaten is both absolute and unreciprocal and yet fades in the process of ingestion as suggested in the saying you are what you eat Kilgour explores here a fable of identity central to Western thought that represents duality as the result of a fall from a primal symbiotic unity to which men have longed to return However while incorporation can be desired as the end of alienation it can also be feared as a form of regression through which individual identity is lost Beginning with the works of Homer Ovid Augustine and Dante Kilgour traces the ambivalent attitude toward incorporation throughout Western literature She examines the Eucharist as a model for internalization in Renaissance texts addresses the incorporation of past material in the nineteenth century and concludes with a discussion of the role of incorporation in cultural theory today Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Frostborn: The Dark Warden (Frostborn #6) Jonathan Moeller,2014-10-03 RIDMARK ARBAN is the Gray Knight questing to stop the return of the terrible Frostborn to the High King s realm For years he has sought the secret of the Frostborn and now the answer is at hand within the walls of the cursed citadel of Urd Morlemoch For the Warden of Urd Morlemoch knows the secret CALLIANDE seeks for her past her memory lost in fog She seeks to stop the return of the Frostborn but the secret of their defeat is trapped within her damaged memory The truth of her past awaits within the walls of Urd Morlemoch For the Warden of Urd Morlemoch knows who she really is THE WARDEN has been imprisoned within Urd Morlemoch for centuries beyond count his potent magic chained behind its walls But his final game is almost complete And worlds beyond count shall tremble before his power Court of the Dead: Rise of the Reaper General Beatrice van Slee,Tom Gilliland,2021-08-03
