Chesterton and the Romance of Orthodoxy William Oddie,2010-04-01 On the publication of Orthodoxy in 1908 Wilfrid Ward hailed G K Chesterton as a prophetic figure whose thought was to be classed with that Burke Butler Coleridge and John Henry Newman When Chesterton died in 1936 T S Eliot pronounced that Chesterton s social and economic ideas were the ideas for his time that were fundamentally Christian and Catholic But how did he come by these ideas Eliot noted that he attached significance also to his development to his beginnings as well as to his ends and to the movement from one to the other It is on that development that this book is focused Chesterton and the Romance of Orthodoxy is an exploration of G K Chesterton s imaginative and spiritual development from his early childhood in the 1870s to his intellectual maturity in the first decade of the twentieth century William Oddie draws extensively on Chesterton s unpublished letters and notebooks his journalism and his early classic writings to reveal the writer in his own words In the first major study of Chesterton to draw on this source material Oddie charts the progression of Chesterton s ideas from his first story composed at the age of three and dictated to his aunt Rose to his apologetic masterpiece Orthodoxy in which he openly established the intellectual foundations on which the prolific writing of his last three decades would build Part One explores the years of Chesterton s obscurity his childhood his adolescence his years as a student and a young adult Part Two examines Chesterton s emergence on to the public stage his success as one of the leading journalists of his day and his growing renown as a man of letters Written to engage all with an interest in Chesterton s life and times Oddie s accessible style ably conveys the warmth and subtlety of thought that delighted the first readership of the enigmatic GKC

Renaissance Themes Sukanta Chaudhuri,2009-07-01 Arun Kumar Das Gupta taught English literature for over 40 years first at

Presidency College Kolkata and then at the University of Calcutta His interpretations of Western literature and thought particularly of the Renaissance shaped a whole generation of students Some of them have produced this volume of essays in tribute to their mentor Two essays directly address the intellectual milieu of the European Renaissance Sukanta Chaudhuri examines the unusual merger of modes and registers in Renaissance philosophic discourse while Niranjana Goswami looks at a particular example of Ramist practice The other pieces relate to English writers and works notably Shakespeare and Milton in a wider perspective of Renaissance concerns and general critical issues Abhijit Sen analyses the stage and verbal imagery in Macbeth Supriya Chaudhuri and Paromita Chakraborty take King Lear as their point of departure Chaudhuri brings out the full conceptual implications of the Dover Cliff scene while Chakraborty dissects the play's sexual imagery Swapna Chakraborty takes in a wide range of dramatic and non dramatic texts in his survey of reading on the Early Modern stage Amlan Das Gupta studies the Miltonic simile specifically in Paradise Lost Book IV Finally Malabika Sarkar reads Samson Agonistes in a context of magic and alchemy to draw out some implications deeply relevant at the present time

Demon Possession John Warwick Montgomery, 2018-01-26 In January of 1975 the Christian Medical Association gathered to deliver papers on the subject of demon possession The essayists are Christians affiliated with a variety of academic institutions The essays themselves explore the phenomena of the demonic in the Bible in literature on the mission field in anthropology legal history and psychiatric treatment All of the participants accept the reality of the demonic but they are circumspect in their scholarship If you are looking for a more substantial treatment than what you might find in popular booklets on the subject or on the fiction aisle this is it never before or since this symposium has there been a focused study of this magnitude on demon possession

Tremendous Trifles G. K. Chesterton, 1920 These fleeting sketches are all republished by kind permission of the Editor of the DAILY NEWS in which paper they appeared They amount to no more than a sort of sporadic diary a diary recording one day in twenty which happened to stick in the fancy the only kind of diary the author has ever been able to keep Even that diary he could only keep by keeping it in public for bread and cheese But trivial as are the topics they are not utterly without a connecting thread of motive As the reader's eye strays with hearty relief from these pages it probably alights on something a bed post or a lamp post a window blind or a wall It is a thousand to one that the reader is looking at something that he has never seen that is never realised He could not write an essay on such a post or wall he does not know what the post or wall mean He could not even write the synopsis of an essay as The Bed Post Its Significance Security Essential to Idea of Sleep Night Felt as Infinite Need of Monumental Architecture and so on He could not sketch in outline his theoretic attitude towards window blinds even in the form of a summary The Window Blind Its Analogy to the Curtain and Veil Is Modesty Natural Worship of and Avoidance of the Sun etc etc None of us think enough of these things on which the eye rests But don't let us let the eye rest Why should the eye be so lazy Let us exercise the eye until it learns to see startling facts that run across the landscape as plain as a painted fence Let us be ocular athletes Let us learn to write essays on a
