in the pages of a diary Presenting seven portraits of literary and creative lives Alexandra Johnson illuminates the secret world of writers and their diaries and shows how over generations these writers have used the diary to solve a common set of creative and life questions In Sonya Tolstoy s diary we witness the conflict between love and vocation in Katherine Mansfield and Virginia Woolf s friendship the nettle of rivalry among writing equals is revealed and in Alice James s diary begun at age forty the feelings of competition within a creative family are explored The Hidden Writer shows how the diaries of Marjory Fleming Sonya Tolstoy Alice James Katherine Mansfield Virginia Woolf Ana s Nin and May Sarton negotiated the obstacle course of silence ambition envy and fame Destined to become a classic on writing and the diary as literary form this is an essential book for anyone interested in the evolution of creative life Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia,Bettina L. Knapp,2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts a summary of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok,2017-02-15 Ana s Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin s guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin s celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin s celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin s writing identity public image and consumer culture Women, Writing, and Fetishism, 1890-1950 Clare L. Taylor,2003 Clare L Taylor investigates the problematic question of female fetishism within modernist women s writing 1890 1950 Drawing on gender and psychoanalytic theory she re examines the works of Sarah Grand Radclyffe Hall H D Djuna Barnes and Ana s Nin in the context of clinical discourses of sexology and psychoanalysis to present an alternative theory of female fetishism challenging the perspective that denies the existence of the perversion in women Trapeze Anaïs Nin,2017-05-15 Ana s Nin made her reputation through publication of her edited diaries and the carefully constructed persona they presented It was not until decades later when the diaries were published in their unexpurgated form that the world began to learn the full details of Nin s fascinating life and the emotional and literary high wire acts she committed both in documenting it and in defying the mores of 1950s America Trapeze begins where the previous volume Mirages left off when Nin met Rupert Pole the young man who became not only her lover but later her husband in a bigamous marriage It marks the start of what Nin came to call her trapeze life swinging between her longtime husband Hugh Guiler in New York and her lover Pole in California a perilous lifestyle she continued until her death in 1977 Today what Nin did seems impossible and what she sought perhaps was impossible to find harmony and completeness within a split existence It is a story of daring and genius love and pain largely unknown until now Anaïs Nin Clara

Oropeza,2018-08-06 Ana s Nin A Myth of Her Own traces Nin s literary craft by following the intimacy of self exploration and poetic expression attained in the details of the quotidian transfigured into fiction By digging into the mythic tropes that permeate both her literary diaries and fiction this book demonstrates that Nin constructed a mythic method of her own revealing the extensive possibilities of an opulent feminine psyche Clara Oropeza demonstrates that the literary diary for Nin is a genre that with its traces of trickster archetype among others reveals a mercurial yet particular understanding of an embodied and at times mystical experience of a writer The cogent analysis of Nin's fiction alongside the posthumously published unexpurgated diaries within the backdrop of emerging psychological theories further illuminates Nin's contributions as an experimental and important modernist writer whose daring and poetic voice has not been fully appreciated By extending research on diary writing and anchoring Nin's literary style within modernist traditions this book contributes to the redefinition of what literary modernism was comprised who participated and how it was defined Ana's Nin A Myth of Her Own is unique in its interdisciplinary expansion of literature literary theory mythological studies and depth psychology By considering the ecocritical aspects of Nin's writing this book forges a new paradigm for not only Nin's work but for critical discussions of self life writing as a valid epistemological and aesthetic form This impressive work will be of great interest to academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies literary studies cultural studies mythological studies and women's studies

A Literate Passion Anaïs Nin, Henry Miller, 1989-04-22 A lyrical impassioned document of the intimate relationship between the two authors that was first disclosed in Henry and June Booklist This exchange of letters between the two controversial writers Ana's Nin renowned for her candid and personal diaries and Henry Miller author of Tropic of Cancer paints a portrait of more than two decades in their complex relationship as it moves through periods of passion friendship estrangement and reconciliation The letters may disturb some with their intimacy but they will impress others with their fragrant expression of devotion to art Booklist A portrait of Miller and Nin more rounded than any previously provided by critics friends and biographers Chicago Tribune Edited and with an introduction by Gunther Stuhlmann
